 C. F. King, a voluminous writer has resigned his position on the Atlanta Journal and is now with the Atlanta Herald. King is a tar heel.
 Mrs. Caldwell, wife of editor Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer, is alarmingly ill in Statesville. The latest bulletins concerning her say she is no better. Dr.
 John Whitehead is assisting in attending her. We hope she may soon recover.
 The meeting at the Baptist church increases in interest nightly. Rev. Mr.
 Jenkins is a forcible preacher and his preaching attracts large crowds.
 Much good has already been done and we hope much more will be accomplished.
 We are glad to learn from the Charlotte Observer that the Charlotte Dramatic Club has arranged to play its latest cast, "Dollars and Cents," in the Salisbury opera house the last week in November. Salisbury will welcome the club by a full house.
 If you owe this paper anything, please pay it. We can't run a paper without a little cash to pay for paper, ink, etc. We can live on sweet potatoes and persimmons, but paper manufacturers won't take 'em in payment for our blank paper.
 Please bear this in mind. We have waited long enough.
 Reuben Holmes, Jr., was accidentally shot by his brother, Ernest, while rabbit hunting Friday. Ernest shot at a rabbit Reuben being in range of the gun, received a part of the load in his left hand and right leg. Two shot entered his hand and six his leg. The wounds are very painful but not serious.
 The funeral of Dr. Price, late president of Livingstone College, was largely attended last Friday by both white and colored people. The remains were interred on the grounds of the institution which he was instrumental in founding.
 Messrs. Theo. F. Kluttz, L. H. Clement, R. Lee Wright and J. A. Ramsay acted as honorary pall bearers.
 The question of paying the teachers of the graded school has been much discussed here this week. The city treasury is empty and the teachers can't get pay even for the past two month work. The public school fund is not available until the first of January so that they will have to go unpaid until that time unless people pay their town tax.

Rev. Hadaway, chaplain of the House of Representatives, died Thursday the 29th.
 The Concord Standard says that Dr.
 Payne, who has been quite sick, is now improving.
 Dr. Schaff, an aged and popular physician of High Point, died in that place Wednesday night.
 Jno. M. Wagoner, for two months associated with the Charlotte Observer, died Saturday morning after a days illness.
 Hardly half of the cotton in Eastern Cabarrus has been picked. Some fields have not been touched, says the Standard.
 The Mooresville Register says:—Deputy Sheriff Krider of Rowan was here Saturday looking for Henry McKorkle (colored) who was wanted for larceny but failed to find him.
 The Concord Standard says that C.
 L. Sims of that place has purchased of J. M. Harrison, of Mill Bridge, a fine Jersey heifer known as "Alice of Mill Bridge."
 Wash Alexander, colored, who lives near Harts Rowan county, and his son George, became involved in a fight and during the "melee" the son produced his trusty razor and cut his father on the head, in the side and across the hand, inflicting serious injury, for which he was promptly arrested and lodged in jail. Strange as it may seem whiskey had nothing to do with this affair.
 A person is prematurely old when baldness occurs before the forty-fifth year. Use Hall's Hair Renewer to keep the scalp healthy and prevent baldness.
 Dallas Tex. Oct. 27.—About 15,000 people saw Lena Hill pace a mile in a race in 2:13 1/4 to-day. It was the fastest heat ever paced by a 2-year-old and establishes a new 2 year-old record.

 During the protracted meeting at Tabernacle last week, Mr. W. T.
 Hearn's mule got frightened and ran, throwing Mr. Hearn, wife and child out of the buggy and hurting Mr.
 Hearn very badly. A bad gash was cut between his eyes. The buggy was completely torn to pieces.
 Mr. J. E. Efril, the clever cotton buyer of Norwood, passed through town this week and gave us a pleasant call.
 Messrs. W. F. and O. A. Haywood have their store house up and weather-boarded. They expect to have in a stock of goods by the last of this month.

 Correspondence WATCHMAN.
 Farmers are about through gathering their corn and are beginning to sow wheat, and are hustling at a lively rate.
 Opossum hunters are getting plentiful and old "possum and tater" is swinging high.
 Coldest weather to day we have had this season. Everything is killed now, and farmers can dig their potatoes.
 If anybody has any meat to give away please recollect Cottonville. There was a man killed a pig last week but he waited until night, put his children in bed and hid the hair for fear somebody would find it out, so we have been informed.
 Luckily he did for we are getting rusty.
 Mrs. Lou Crump, of Polkton, who has been sick here for the past three weeks is improving some and will probably be able to go home this week.
 The young people had an old time candy eating frolic at Mr. H. L. Kendall's last Saturday night; afterward a "fan-dance" that made us think of the old ante bellum days.
 Mr. W. H. G. Watkins and family will leave tomorrow for Concord, where they will make their future home. We regret to lose them very much, especially the girls, and hope they will prosper in their move.
 Mrs. Lucy McSwain is on the sick list this week.
 Mr. J. H. Norwood has bought him a buggy. Hurrah Johnny!
 Last Sunday four of our citizens got into a row, but no damage was done. Cause supposed to have been brandy.
 Last Friday night Tom Morton, of Charlotte, was cutting up in town and tore off one corner of Mr. Henderson's tent cloth.
 Mr. Jake Kimery north of here died last Saturday night from an old disease of two years standing. Mr. Kimery was an old man when he died, and belonged to the Missionary Baptist church, but he has now gone home to get his reward in the beautiful home of God.

 Some of our boys were paying their respect to some of the fair sex near Porters Station last Sunday.
 Mr. W. R. Upchurch is some worse now with the cancer that has been bothering him so long.—CYCLER.

 lost complexion restored by Johnson's Oriental Soap. Sold by Edwin Cuthrell Salisbury N. C.
 We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of our Liver Regulator on another page. We have used the medicine in our family, and are prepared to say from experience that for a torpid liver or a disordered stomach it is a good remedy. When travelling we usually carry some in our valise. From the "Christian Visitor," SANFORD, N. C., Oct. 25.—The Sanford Brownstone Company's quarries are both in operation, getting out material for the Worden building now in course of construction in Philadelphia.

 This building will be nine stories high and will require 8,000,000 brick. The Sanford company will furnish all of the stone work, and now have 25 cutters at work.
 Johnson's Magnetic Oil kills all pains whether internal or external. Sold at Edwin Cuthrell's Salisbury N. C.
 A proposition is pending to build knitting mills at Asheville employing 5,000 hands.
The Silver Agitation.
 The silver agitation is making a great stir but the benefits from it will be nothing compared with the investment of a silver quarter in Simmons Liver Regulator power. It agitates the liver and cures Biliousness and Sick Headache.
