It is said that Gen. Ransom denies that he ever said that the vacant Judgeship had been tendered him.

Gov. Biles, of Iowa is seriously ill with typhoid malaria. If it develops into malignant typhoid, as it threatens to, the result may be fatal.

An election riot occurred at Duquesne school house, Pittsburgh, Pa., Tuesday which resulted in several men being knocked down and the polls being closed. Republicans tried to prevent Democrats from voting was the cause of the riot. And strange to say this did not happen in the South!

The President has given a temporary commission to Mr. Simmons, whose case was not reached by the Senate and he will now go into office, subject however to the Senate's passing on his nomination at the next session.

It will be the same with Mr. Einas. Both will be in office, but the Senate will have to confirm them. Mr. Simmons will now give his bond and take possession.

The latest election news is briefly as follows: Virginia will go Democratic by 50,000. Populists carry ten counties in the State. New York gives Barrett, republican, 89,668 plurality. Maryland went democratic by 10,000. Holcomb, Populist, of Nebraska was elected Supreme Court Judge by 5,000 plurality. McKinley, republican, carried Ohio by 80,000 plurality; the legislature largely republican. Woman's suffrage wins in Colorado by 2,500.

The architect of the school for deaf mutes at Morganton says it will be the handsomest public building in the State, surpassing the Western Hospital. The roof and towers are up. The slate roofing is being put on. The clock tower is 135 feet high, and is flanked by two towers, each 100 feet in height. Rapid work is being done. The character of the work and of the materials is first class. By next summer the building will be ready for occupancy.

At a meeting of the Raleigh Bar last Thursday the following resolution was adopted:

"The members of the Bar of the city of Raleigh and county of Wake, in meeting assembled respectfully and earnestly recommended to the President the name of the Hon. Richard H. Battle of North Carolina as one in every way worthy to be appointed as Circuit Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit.

A man of the highest integrity, a lawyer of profound learning a practitioner of many years experience a prominent and popular citizen and a Christian gentleman his appointment would be welcomed by the Bar and the people of North Carolina with peculiar and universal gratification.

Resolved: That an engrossed copy of the foregoing recommendation be duly forwarded to the President by the chairman.

As a remedy for the craze for lynching, it is proposed that a unanimous verdict shall not be required on the part of jurors. We are inclined to urge that idea. Besides, it would be well to have a more thorough purging of the jury lists. Jurymen who are to pass on the lives and liberty of people should be argued with care and on question affecting property rights, should be selected with care and should be competent to deal intelligently with such matters. Perhaps after all the defect in our administration of justice which is thought to be at the bottom of the prevailing tendency to lawlessness, arises from the incompetency of jurors and a feeling on the part of the people that merited punishment will not be secured in some particular case. And so the first step would seem to be to obtain jurors whose character would be intelligently and properly passed upon. Occasionally we hear of some scandalous failure of justice, or the escape of some culprit believed by the entire community to be guilty; and indeed in some instances where the criminal has confessed his guilt, or has been taken under such circumstances as to preclude the possibility of innocence. Such results can come only through incompetent and improper jurors. We think that the law might be reformed somewhat in ascertaining the fitness of those to serve in the box, and perhaps also in not requiring a unanimous verdict. -News-Observer-Chronicle.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular correspondent.

President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle are both firm in the belief that the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman silver law, now an accomplished fact, will soon bring about a state of affairs that will make the much-talked-about issue of bonds unnecessary, and neither of them wishes to issue bonds until circumstances shall make such an issue absolutely necessary. The democrats in Congress, or at least a majority of them, would like to escape authorizing an issue of bonds, if it can possibly be done. It will be much easier for President Cleveland to speak positively and definitely on the bond question a month hence than it is now, and it is probable that his message to the regular session of Congress will take a decided stand one way or the other on the subject, and I venture the prediction that the state of business public and private, for the next month will decide which. If the expected increase in business shall result in largely increasing the revenues of the government, as Secretary Carlisle believes it will, the administration can get through without bonds.

The movement for a change in the rules of the Senate is growing quite rapidly, and it is among the probabilities that a change will be made early in the regular session. Formal amendments to the rules have this week been proposed by Senator Hill and Blackburn, and other Senators speak of offering others. All of these will be referred to the committee on Rules, which will, it is believed, in due time report an amendment that will accomplish the end aimed at—give the majority of the Senate the authority to order a vote whenever it may think that the debate has been sufficiently prolonged, an authority possessed by the House and by nearly every legislative body in the world. Unless the republicans shall oppose the change, it is expected that it will be easily accomplished.

Representative Bailey, of Texas, thinks Uncle Sam broaching an equivalent in return therefore. He has introduced two bills, each of which he thinks will stop a big leak of that kind. One of them provides for the repeal of the laws providing for the payment of retired army and navy officers and that the pay of such officers heretofore retired shall cease when the bill becomes a law. The other repeals the laws providing for the payment of retired judges from the U. S. courts and stops the pay of all those now on the retired list. Whether there is any probability of either of these bills becoming laws it is too early to say; but Mr. Bailey is thoroughly in earnest and will do his best to push them through.

Mr. J. S. Harrison, of Kansas City, ex-President Harrison's democratic brother, is in Washington seeking an office. He wants to be Surveyor at Kansas City.

While all of the Senators and Representatives are doubtless glad of the opportunity to go home for a few days before the beginning of the regular session, there are quite a number of prominent democrats who expressed the opinion that it would have been better to have let the extra session run right along until the time for beginning the regular session. The majority, however, thought that no time would be saved by remaining in session, and the majority rules, usually, in the democratic party.

One real reform was adopted by Congress this week when it decided that bills which pass either House or Senate shall be printed instead of being enrolled by hand. It is believed that this change will prevent many and costly errors, which have occurred during the closing hours of every session of Congress, in the enrollment of bills.

In a reply to a question as to what action the President had taken on the report that emissaries of several European nations were secretly aiding the Brazilian insurgents and that their purpose was to overthrow the republic and re-establish the monarchy, a prominent official, not a member of the cabinet, said: I am not at liberty to enter into details, but you can rest assured that this administration will assert the Monroe doctrine and protect the commercial interests of American citizens in Brazil and elsewhere at all hazards, and it will do it with out the bluster and jingoism which characterized President Harrison's dealings with Chili." All of the facts concerning the Brazilian revolution in the possession of the State department were laid before the cabinet this week and a unanimous agreement was reached, the nature of which was not, for obvious reasons, made public.

ELECTION NEWS.

Virginia. RICHMOND, Nov. 5.—Returns have been received from about one-half of the State, but the figures are of such a character that it is impossible to give them with accuracy. O'Ferrall's majority will probably reach 40,000. There is no doubt the Democrats have carried at least 20 out of the 25 senatorial districts and have probably elected 85 out of the 100 members of the House of Delegates.

Chairman Ellyson, of the State Democratic committee, places the Democratic majority at not less than 25,000. The secretary of the peoples party practically admits that O'Ferrall is elected, but says he concedes nothing and that if the Democrats have carried the State it has been done by fraud. Col. O'Ferrall, from present indications, will probably run behind his ticket some 5,000 votes.

New York. NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The tidal wave which swept this State was larger than even the Republicans dreamed. As the returns have come in the vote has increased until now it shows a Republican victory of 34,050 for John Palmer for Secretary of State, and Bartlett has defeated Maynard by the overwhelming plurality of 89,660. The Republicans elect their entire State ticket by good majorities.

The Senate will probably stand as follows: Republicans 18; Democrats 13; Independent Democrat 1. The Assembly: Republicans 75; Democrats 53.

Massachusetts. BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The returns so far received show clearly that Greenhale has been elected Governor by more than 25,000 plurality.

Boston, one precinct missing, gives Russell 37,702; Greenhale 20,005; Democratic plurality 9,747. In the 332 townships of the State alone Greenhale will have plurality enough to wipe out the Democratic plurality in Boston, with 17,000 votes to spare. In 1891 Governor Russell carried the 20 cities outside of Boston by 3,000.

Illinois. CHICAGO, Ills., Nov. 7.—The Democrats have undoubtedly carried this city by a majority that the Republican vote in the county cannot overcome. The indications at present are that Gary, Republican, candidate for Supreme Court judge is beaten, although he has run far ahead of his ticket.

Maryland. BALTIMORE, Nov. 7.—Returns received from many parts of Maryland show that the Democrats have elected their candidate for State Comptroller by a large plurality and substantial majority. The "regular" Democrats re-elected Ferdinand C. Latrobe, mayor of this city.

Ohio. CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—The vote all over Ohio has been very full. Definite figures are impossible in advance of the returns. The general feeling is that McKinley and other Republican State officers are elected by highly respectable pluralities. Scratching was confined to local tickets in cities and was freely practiced, especially in Cincinnati.

Iowa. DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 7.—Enough returns have been received to make the election of Jackson, Republican, for Governor, over Bois reasonably certain by a majority of 35,000.

The Confederate monument. The North Carolina Confederate Monumental Association at a meeting yesterday afternoon at the state Library decided to adopt the design for the monument submitted by Col. Muldoon of Kentucky, who was on Gen Morgan's staff in the Confederate army. The design is a shaft upon a pedestal and the whole will be seventy-five feet from the base the pedestal and shaft being about half of this measurement respectively. There are three bronze statues representing the branches of the service one on each side about half the way up from the base. On the pedestal will be the Coat-of-arms of the Confederacy and the Coat-of-arms of North Carolina. On it will also be the names of the ninety-six counties.

The location of the monument will be in Capitol Square but the exact spot is still in the hands of the committee in charge.

Col. Muldoon's design is much admired and he has erected a number of hand some monuments in the South.—News Observer Chronicle.

GENERAL SOUTHERN NEWS.

ATLANTA, Ga., November 3.—Francis H. Weeks, the notorious New York defaulter, passed through Atlanta yesterday, escorted by three detectives. He was captured in Costa Rica, where he has been since his million dollar default in New York.

RICHMOND, Va., November 1.—T. R. Purnell and H. L. Marchland, of this city, have taken an option upon the lease of all the state convicts, 1,200 in number. These convicts are to be employed in the penitentiary, at the phosphate mines or other mines or on farms.

RICHMOND, Va., November 1.—A special to the Dispatch from Williamsburg says Mrs. Andrew Bethune was burned to death today. Two children at play in the room are supposed to have set fire to the bed in which she lay sick, and in an effort to stay the flames she lost her life.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., November 6.—Arthur Nisonger, a young white man, was waylaid in Mechanicville last night and shot in the neck by a negro. The wound may prove fatal. The negro is under arrest. The shooting was the result of some quarrel, in which the two men had sometime ago.

DALLAS, TEX., November 3.—Last night the Moss Rose saloon was burned and T. M. Brown and his son, W. H. Brown, who occupied lodgings over the saloon, were cremated. News has been received of the destruction by fire of a large portion of the business portion of the town of Kyle. No particulars.

CHARLESTON, S. C., November 4.—A special to the News and Courier from Marion, S. C., says Arthur Bethea, white, shot and instantly killed Press Brown, a negro, at Marion, S. C., this evening. Brown was drunk and drew, or threatened to draw, his pistol, when Bethea killed him, shooting him through the heart.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 4.—The state will not abandon its convict farms on Roanoke river, but will put 2,000 acres additional under cultivation. The superintendent of the penitentiary says the six floods in Roanoke river have caused the state a loss of $300,000 this year. Despite the floods 1,200 bales of cotton and 60,000 bushels of corn were produced.

WINSTON, N. C., November 3.—Information comes from Double Springs, Winston county, of the assassination last Saturday of J. K. Payne, a prominent farmer. Payne went to a spring to water his horse, when he was shot from ambush. He died in a short time. It is not known who the assassin was. As Payne was a well known and successful distiller, one of these men is suspected.

ATLANTA, Ga., November 3.—Commissioner Stallman, realizing that the Georgia State Fair to be held at Augusta from November 14th to December 14th is not a local affair, but one of state and of interstate importance of vital interest to the agricultural and mineral interests of Georgia and other states, has consented to make the 1 cent per mile rate for a radius of 300 miles.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., November 1.—Frank M. Reeder, clerk of the Carlton hotel in this city, has left suddenly for parts unknown, taking with him $1,000 in cash belonging to T. S. Humphrey, a guest at the house, whose wife had placed it with the clerk for safe keeping in the hotel safe. Reeder did not show up this morning and the theft was soon discovered. Mr. Humphrey is a wealthy lawyer of Tacoma, Wash., and has been here a little over a week for his health.

GREENVILLE, S. C., November 3.—A. R. Mayer has been running a rice bar in the Mansion House, without any attempt to conceal his business. Everybody in town knew he was selling beer, except, perhaps, the dispensary contractors. This morning Constable Chapel caught on to the matter and promptly secured a warrant. Sheriff Gilreath served the same, and for a few minutes Mayer was a prisoner. He gave bond to appear on Friday for examination, and quietly returned to his bar and resumed business at the old stand.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., November 2.—Thomas Towles, last night, while in a drunken condition, entered the house of Mrs. Stallings, near Troy. The screams of Mrs. Stallings and her daughter were heard by Professor John Watson, who lives near by. He ran to their assistance and carried his shotgun. He fired both barrels into the abdomen of Towles and he is not expected to live. Towles says he was so drunk that he thought he was in his own house until he was shot. Mrs. Stallings' husband is a minister and was away from home.

ATLANTA, Ga., November 1.—Chief Arthur, of the order of locomotive engineers, Chief Sargent, of the order of locomotive firemen and the chief clerk of the Order of Railway Conductors, will arrive in Augusta tomorrow to try and settle the differences between the order and the employees of the Georgia railroad. The cause of the differences is not given our Officials and employes both refuse to tell the existing trouble, but it is believed to be due to the doubling up of train crews which the employes object to. The trouble is believed to be of a serious nature and further action is expected unless a settlement is soon reached.

ORLANDO, FLA., November 1.—Miss Lillie Laubach, a highly respected young lady of this city, while alone in her father's home in South Orlando this morning, was brutally assaulted by a negro ruffian, who choked her to unconsciousness. After criminally assaulting her the scoundrel attempted to burn the house. He would have succeeded in destroying it had it not been for the timely arrival of a brother of the young lady, who gave the alarm and put out the blaze. Crowds of people soon surrounded the house and as soon as the awful particulars were learned hundreds of armed citizens started in pursuit of the black fiend. If captured he will be promptly and rigorously punished. The whole country is aroused.

Catarrh, Heart Failure, Paralysis of the Throat

"I Thank God and Hood's Sarsaparilla for Perfect Health."

Could Scarcely Walk. I had a very bad spell of paralysis of the throat some time ago. My throat seemed closed and I could not swallow. The doctors said it was caused by heart failure and gave medicine, which I took according to directions, but it did not seem to do me any good. My wife urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, telling me of Mr. Joseph C. Smith, who had been

At Death's Door. I was entirely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. After talking with Mr. Smith, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had taken two bottles I felt very much better. I have continued taking it, and am now feeling excellent. I thank God, and

Princeton, N. J. —Dr. Wm. Henry Green, senior professor of the theological seminary, formally announced that foot ball playing would be hereafter interdicted. "The rough and brutal game," said he, "does not comport with the purpose for which students are here and must be abolished."

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Ben Leavall, a negro, is in jail at Clarksville for having terribly maltreated a 13 year old girl of his own race named Mary Moore. The crime was committed near Ringgold Montgomery county. He carried the girl off to a lonely place in the woods where he treated her terribly. The girl dragged herself home this morning and told the tale of her terrible wrongs. When Leavall was captured he had to be hustled off to jail in a hurry to avoid lynching by a mob of his own race.

Marion, Nov. 6.—Mrs. J. H. Atkins after a long illness, died this evening. She was an estimable Christian lady and the community mourns her death.

Nashville Tenn., Nov. 4.—A special from Fayetteville, Tenn., says: Early this morning on the farm of Jack Daniels, near Lynchburg, Ned Waggoner, his son Will and daughter Mary and his son-in-law Motlow were found hanging to one tree. All the parties were colored. The only cause to explain their fate is that they were supposed to have been implicated in the numerous barn burnings which have taken place in Monroe and Lincoln counties recently. There is no clew as to the perpetrators of the deed.

"Why is he so Irritable." This question is often heard and nearly as often unanswered.

It is not always remembered, as it should be, that the occasion of ill-temper and irritability is often to be found in the physical condition of the persons affected. What is the use of trying to "harmonize" a man whose liver has gone back on him? If a man is tortured with rheumatism, how can he be expected to be affable and agreeable? Can a confirmed dyspeptic be expected to be cheerful and always ready to tell a funny story? The only way to remove the difficulty is to act at the cause. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, impure blood and liver troubles yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla; this is why it is an effective tranquilizer, a peaceful messenger, and a preventive of domestic quarrels.
