LOCAL BRIEFS.
and Country.
WEDNESDAY February 1, 1894.

Miss Ada Burke, of Statesville is visiting Miss Lillie Burke of this city.
Collector M. E. Carter was sworn in and took charge of his office yesterday, at Asheville.
Rev. Dr. Kumpke, Capt. S. H. Wiley and Hon. T. F. Klutz, made a flying trip to Charlotte, last Tuesday.
The railroad people are cutting down expenses. Five mechanics were discharged from the car shops here yesterday.
Mrs. C. M. Miller died at her home, in St. Peter's community, this county, on the 19th inst. The deceased was sick only a few days, and leaves a husband and three children to mourn the loss of their best earthly friend.
Geo. F. Folk, only son of Hon. G. N. Folk, of Caldwell county, died in Greensboro, the 26th inst., and his remains passed here Tuesday, going home to be buried by the side of an elder brother and sister who died during the war.
Last night about 10:30 at a colored festival in the Iron Clad Ware House Pink Mannel cut and seriously wounded Lony Goodman. The wound is a dangerous one but the chances at present are that the woman will recover. The meat had gone out so Lony's fate was the consequence.
The young lady, Mrs. J. C. Goodman, who was so horribly burned, at her home near town, an account of which was published three weeks ago, died last night at 11 o'clock. She suffered terribly, and her case is, indeed, a sad one. She was only 17 years old and leave a husband, babe five months old.
Mr. M. L. Julian's eight-year-old son, James, while fooling with a loaded cartridge, Tuesday, struck it with an axe, when it exploded and a small piece of the cap entered the skin of the boy's forehead just over the left eye, injuring that organ dangerously and causing the child severe pain.
Lewis Workman, a white man from the Southern section of Davidson county, was arrested in Lexington Tuesday for passing counterfeit coin. Ten dollars, in 25 cent counterfeit pieces, were found on his person. It is believed that there are confederates of his, in the neighborhood mentioned, who have a full set of counterfeiters' tools, and that this is probably their first attempt to pass any of their serious metal.
The Charlotte News says that the exodus of farmers from Cabarrus and Stanly counties has assumed such proportions as to attract attention, and some means should be provided to put a stop to it. Dozens of some of the most thrifty families in Stanly have gone to Texas, Arkansas and other Western States in the past six weeks, and some of the yeomanry of Cabarrus have vacated their homes for the West, and Union county has suffered in this respect. The News learns that some of the best homesteads in Stanly have been deserted. Along with the older people have gone young men who we need to build up our own State. This exodus is becoming a serious matter for the counties named.
Vick's Floral Guide.
Messrs. Jas. Vick's Sons' FLORAL GUIDE, for 1894, is received, and is an illustration of the great progress made in recent years in the art of color-printing, it is a perfect gem. It is handsomely bound in a chaste cover of gold, its novelty pyges printed in eight different colors, and its many new and beautiful engravings, is indeed, a wonderful work of art. We have ordered garden seed from Vicks for a number of years and have always found them just as represented—fresh and reliable—and we can safely assure our readers that if they want honest goods, as cheap as the cheapest, they will do well to send 10 cents to JAMES VICK'S SONS, Rochester, N. Y., for their "Floral Guide", which also contains a catalogue and price list of seeds, bulbs, plants, etc. As the 10 cts. will be deducted from your first order, the "Guide" will really cost you nothing. Send your orders!

Correspondence Watchman.
Bethany Academy.
The school at the academy will close about the 1st of March. Monthly entertainments are being held now.
An infant daughter of Mr. Mrs. L. E. Miller is quite sick with pneumonia. Mr. Luther Darr, is teaching a singing school at Grace Reform church.
Mr. H. A. Holsinger marketed a lot of his fine tobacco last week. He tried the Stateville market this time.
The Elm Grove Sunday school still continues to prosper. It will not close during the winter.
Miss Maimie Owens is teaching instrumental music at Rockwell.
There will be a public debate at Peeler's School house on Friday night. Subject: "Resolved, That we should have a Prohibition law."
On Friday Jan. 19th, the sad news was proclaimed through the community that Mrs. Mary S. Miller had departed from this life. Her remains were interred in the cemetery of St. Peter's church, of which church she was a most active member, on Saturday. She leaves three children and a devoted husband to mourn her loss.
Read the Following Magnificent Offer.
MONEY MADE EASY, YOU CAN DO IT, SO WEEK NO TRY?
We call the attention of our readers to the remarkable clubbing offer in another column by which we can send this paper and the Atlanta Weekly Constitution to the same address for one year for the low sum of $1.50.
This is the only offer of its kind we have ever been able to make to our readers.
The Atlanta Weekly Constitution is too well known to need any introduction here. It has won its place at the fireside of the nation as a model weekly newspaper. It numbers on its staff some of the most famous and brilliant writers of the day and on all public questions its lance is ever in rest to defend the rights of the people. It is the largest and most widely circulated weekly newspaper published in America having a circulation of 156,000, and it week. It is in itself an education to those who read it. By the clubbing rate which we offer, our readers can get the Weekly Constitution and their home paper at but little more than the cost of one paper, thereby getting the news of their home and the news of the world every week for a year at an insignificant outlay.
In addition to this, every subscriber to this paper and the Constitution, under our clubbing arrangement, will be given an opportunity to win some handsome prizes.
All these matters are explained in another column. We merely call attention to it here to show our readers what a liberal offer we have to make to them. These offers are made by our arrangement with the Constitution, and only those who subscribe for both papers through this office are entitled to take part in the contest.
This is the most liberal clubbing offer any have ever been able to make, and we feel sure that it will prove immensely popular with our readers.
Learning a Business.
A gentleman who had induced a large publishing house to take his son, as a boy, into its employ at a moderate rate of pay not long since, was especially anxious in his request that the young man should be made to work and learn the business.
This instruction was needless, as although modern fashion has done away with much of the junior and porterage work of old times, yet the young man found the selection of stock for orders, packing the same, entering, charging ditto, and occasional errands kept him actively employed for about ten hours a day, with an hour out for dinner.
At the end of three weeks' time he failed to put in his appearance, but the father walked in one morning with the information that John would not return unto the position.
"Why not?" ask the publisher.
"Well, John has to have his breakfast at half past seven every morning to get here, and then he is not used to carrying bundles, and sometimes he's been sent with books right up to the house of people we know socially. My son hasn't been brought up that way, and I guess I won't have him learn this business."
He did not and what's more, has never learned any other business.
Now let us look at another actual picture, that of a son of a wealthy mill owner desiring to become a manager of the mill.
"But that is impossible," said the father, "unless you practically learn the business."
"That is what I would like to do," said the son.
"But to become a manager or superintendent we prefer a man who has risen from the ranks and understands the mechanical department and the ways of employees."
"Let me begin in the ranks," then,

replied the young man.
To this the father assented, stimulating that no favor should be shown the son, but he should actually begin and work at regular labor in the mechanical department.
Not only this was done, but the young man went and boarded in the manufacturing town at a workman's boarding-house and went in and out of the factory at bell-call. In three years he was foreman in one of the departments, and a former classmate and well-known society man, was surprised at meeting a stalwart fellow in blue overalls, with hands so soiled with machinery oil as to prevent the conventional handshake.
But this young man persevered, made and paid his own way himself, and his father concluded it would not injure his future prospects. Judging from the fact that he is now manager of mills (not his father's), at a salary of ten thousand a year, and with ability to command even better compensation and partnership, is evidence that "learning a business," even by a man with a good education and a rich father, pays a good return, both in money and manly independence.—Boston Com. Bulletin.

QUIET WITH THE RIOTERS.
Sunday Press, Jersey in the Manufactured Good Region.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., January 30.—The quiet of Sunday prevailed yesterday throughout the Mansfield coal region, the scene of Saturday's rioting. But few strikers were seen out of their houses, and the deputy sheriffs in the district had little to occupy their attention. By many, however, the calm was regarded as preceding the storm. There are well grounded fears of another outbreak tomorrow, and the law-abiding citizens are preparing to meet it. Trusted foreigners, who were supposed to be in sympathy with the rioters, were sent out this morning by the coal operators. They circulated freely with the strikers, and this evening returned with the information that preparations were being made to attack the works at Bridgeville, Rosedale and Reading. The feeling among the rioters is very bitter against the Reading brothers for the killing of Frank Steptz, and they assert that they will have revenge.
If another attack is made on the Reading works the foreigners will meet with a still warmer reception than that accorded them yesterday. There are twelve men in the Reading family, and every one is as determined and brave as the three who yesterday put to flight a mob of several hundred.
Reading says he and his brothers fired at least one hundred shots yesterday, and he is satisfied that if a search of the strikers' homes was made at least a score of wounded men would be found.
Killed by a Band of Outlaws.
SAN ANTONIO, TEX., January 30.—Frank Howell, a ranchman in Pezos county, arrived here yesterday and brought news of the killing of a prominent young American, named Henry W. Carey, by a band of Mexican outlaws, supposed to be remnants of Santa Fe's so-called revolutionary forces. Mr. Carey came to southwest Texas a few months ago from Chattanooga, Tenn., and was prospecting in Pezos county with a view of raising the sheep raising business there on an extensive scale. He left the ranch of Mr. Howell last Tuesday for a trip into Mexico. He was traveling alone, and had hardly crossed the border when he was attacked and killed. His pockets were rifled of a considerable sum of money and his horse stolen. The body of the murdered man was not found until Friday. The supposed band of outlaws followed into the mountains below the Rio Grande river in Mexico.
Cops and Tramps on the Bloody Sands.
CANTON, O., January 30.—The police force had another conflict with tramps quartered at Stark Sliding, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, late Saturday afternoon, and took twenty-one of them into custody on charge of vagrancy. The raid was conducted by Pennsylvania Railroad Detective Tracy, who was assisted by two Alliance officers and four Canton men. The offenders went to the place in a box with a yard shifter. The tramps, about thirty in all, took to their heels when the train arrived, and the officers were left. Probably fifty shots were fired, and many of the tramps were injured.
The Gunt Confessed.
NEWARK, O., January 30.—A. W. Taylor, Charles Thompson and William Sands pleaded guilty to burglary today, and will be sentenced later. Fred Myers also pleaded guilty to the charge of being a confirmed tramp. He was given a year in the penitentiary. He was found at Henry Road, of Croton, O., guilty of the rape of sixteen-year-old Edna Loper. He took his conviction coolly, and will be sentenced at the end of the term.
And He Killed Himself.
HUNTINGTON, Pa., January 30.—While lying in his bed, with his young wife on one side of him and his ten months baby on the other, Geo. H. McCann, of this city, pulled a revolver from under his pillow and fired a 38-slug caliber bullet and the babe was in a head in the blood from the wound when they were discovered by neighbors.
Resigned As a Consequence.
CLEVELAND, O., January 30.—It is announced that General Superintendent W. H. Canfield, of the Lake Shore railroad, has resigned. The supposed cause was the fact that President Newell declined to approve his appointment of Freight Agent Murphy as the successor of Paymaster T. S. Lindsay, who recently retired. Cashier Sheldon was made paymaster.
The Death Bed Brings a Confession.
FORT SMITH, Ark., January 30.—Willie Brown, the train robber, wounded in the capture of the Rogers gang at Vinton, I. T., and who is in the hospital here, confessed today to participating in the Moond Valley (Kan.) bank robbery, and also the robbery of the express agent at Chelsea, I. T. The chances are that Brown will die of his wounds.

Recent statistics develop the fact that 98 of the cotton factories of Oldham, England, have realized a profit for the last two years of less than one per cent., while a large majority of our Southern cotton mills have realized from 8 per cent. up. No doubt such a showing will soon draw the attention of capitalists to the South's advantages for cotton manufacturing, when she will become the center for this great industry; and, we believe the day is not far distant when most of her cotton will be made into cloth in the States where the staple is produced in its raw state.
Without the means at hand for combating it, a cold may prove more dangerous than the small pox. No family is safe unless provided for such an emergency. In sudden attacks of cold, croup, asthma, etc., Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is an invaluable specific.
The great value of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh is vouched for by thousands of people whom it has cured.
A High Compliment.
Bolton, Conn.—I am very much pleased with the effect of your Simmons Liver Regulator, and have recommended it to a good many friends.—E. A. Rose, Your druggist sells it in powder or liquid. The powder to be taken dry or made into a tea.
Japanese Pile Cure is the only one that can be guaranteed, as it is the only cure. Sold by Edwin Cuthrell.
Mr. D. T. Holobough grocer, of Charlotte, confessed judgment in favor of Mr. W. Kaufman for $40,000 Saturday night. Other judgments amounting in all to about $1,200 were also filed. The store was closed by the Sheriff, who will take charge of the business. Poor collections the cause.
A report comes from Washington that Congressman Wilson, author of the tariff bill now before Congress, had a hemorrhage last Monday, and it is feared he will back down physically, ere the bill comes to a vote.
When traveling, always take a cake of Johnson's Oriental Soap with you; diseases are often caught from using hotel soap. Sold by Edwin Cuthrell.
H. Hineman Milwaukee, writes: "One box Japanese Pile Cure has cured me of a case of 23 years standing, after being treated by New York's best physicians." Sold by Edwin Cuthrell.
There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounce it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses of 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Newspaper Laws

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
 2. If the subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.
 3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bill and ordered them discontinued.
 4. If the subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.
 5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is Prima Facie evidence of intentional fraud.
 6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice to publishers at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice with payment of all arrearages is sent to the publisher.
- The last postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders the postmaster to mark it "refused" and have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, lays himself liable to arrest and fine the same as a thief, etc.

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is always within the bounds of reason because it is true; it always appeals to the sober common sense of thinking people because it does; it is always fully substantiated by the facts and figures which in the financial world would accepted without a moment's hesitation.

This question is often heard and usually as often unanswered. It is not always remembered, should be, that the cause of many of the ailments and irritability is often to be found in the physical condition of the persons affected. What is the use of trying to "harmonize" a man whose liver has gone back on him? If a man is tormented with rheumatism, how can he be expected to be affable and agreeable? Can a confirmed dyspeptic be expected to be cheerful and always ready to tell a funny story? The only way to remove the difficulty is to get at the cause. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, impure blood and liver troubles yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla; this is why it is a safe and effective tranquilizer, a powerful aperient, and a preventive of demerolism, etc.
