Mr. W. H. Willis desires us to say

-Willis can prove his refutation of said
-story, and we gladly give him the space to
-do so, if he can deny its being true!

Vick's Floral Guide.
-Messrs. Jas. Vick's Sons' FLORAL
-GUIDE, for 1894, is received and, as an
-illustration of the great progress made
-in recent years in the art of color-print-
-ing, it is a perfect gem. It is hand-
-somely bound in a chaste cover of gold,
-its novelty pyges printed in eight dif-ferent colors, and its many new and
-beautiful engravings, is indeed, a won-derful work of art. We have ordered
-garden seed from Vicks for a number
-of years and have always found them
-just as represented—fresh and reliable —and we can safely assure our readers
-that if they want honest goods, as cheap
-as the cheapest, they will do well to

About three weeks ago, says the
-Landmark, a man calling himself Henry
-Spearman applied to Mrs. M. E.
-Gaither, of Harmony, Iredeed county,
-for work. He was given employment
-on the farm. Last Sunday Mrs. Gaither
-and family went to church but as
-Spearman did not want to go he was
-left alone at the house. When the -family returned Spearman was gone
-as was also $15 or $20 in cash, a suit
-of clothes worth about $25 and some -other articles of minor value. One of
-Mrs. Gaither's sons is at school in -Statesville and the other, Dr. F. B.
-Gaither, was away from home at the -time. Word was sent to Statesville to
-look out for Spearman but at last ac-
-counts he had not been heard of. He

Read the Following Magnificent Offer.
-MONEY MADE EASY, YOU CAN DO IT, SO
-WHY NOT TRY?

We call the attention of our readers
-to the remarkable clubbing offer in
-another column by which we can send
-this paper and the Atlanta Weekly Con-
-stitution for the same address for one
-year for the low sum of $1.50.

This is the only offer of its kind we
-have ever been able to make to our
-readers.

The Atlanta Weekly Constitution is
-too well known to need any introduc-
-tion here. It has won its place at the -forefront of the nation as a model week-
-ly newspaper. It numbers on its staff
-some of the most famous and brilliant
-writers of the day and on all public
-questions its lance is ever in rest to -defend the rights of the people. It is the -largest and most widely circulated
-weekly newspaper published in America
-having a circulation of 155,000, and it
-teaches, it is in itself an education to
-those who read it. By the clubbing
-rate which we offer our readers can
-get the Weekly Constitution and their
-home paper at but little more than the -cost of one paper, thereby getting the -news of their home and the news of
-the world every week for a year at an
-insignificant outlay.

In addition to this, every subscriber
-to this paper and the Constitution, un-
-der our clubbing arrangement, will be
-given an opportunity to win some hand-
-some prizes.

All these matters are explained in -another column. We merely call at-tention to it here to show our readers
-what a liberal offer we have to make to
-them. These offers are made by our
-arrangement with the Constitution, and
-only those who subscribe for both pa-
-pers through this office are entitled to
-take part in the contest.

This is the most liberal clubbing
-offer any have ever been able to make,
-and we feel sure that it will prove im-
-mensely popular with our readers.

A Complimentary Letter.
-News-Observer-Charlotte.

Mr. T. K. Bruner, late Commissioner
-of Exhibits for North Carolina at the -World's Fair, has received a highly
-complimentary letter from the Com-
-missioner of Forestry of France, who
-witnessed the North Carolina forestry
-whilst at Chicago and who voluntarily
-wrote to Mr. Bruner the following let-ter. It was written in French but has
-been translated as follows:

BUREAU OF FORESTRY,
-THIRTY SECOND CONSERVATION,
-DEPARTMENT OF THE HOUSE SAONS,
-VES-UT, January 11, 1894.

To the Honorable Commissioner of
-the State of North Carolina:

Honorable Sir:—I was appointed by
-the Minister of Agriculture of France a
-Commissioner to the Columbian Ex-
-position at Chicago. My studies were
-directed especially to the subject of
-Silviculture.

It is a duty and pleasure to express
-to you my great admiration of the beau-
-tiful collection exhibited by the State
-of North Carolina.
-Thanks to a most happy arrange-
-ment, and one very pleasing to the eye,
-each different species was shown in
-three distinct compartments,—a pho-
-tograph of the trunk with bark, a pho-tograph of the tree in the growing or
-ordinary condition, and a sample of the -timber of about three feet long, six in-ches thick, and width of ten, showing
-the grain both in the rough and polish-
-ed conditions. A very complete label
-at the lower corner gave the age and
-size of the original tree, its locality,
-and the soil upon which it grew. A
-map exhibited the range of the species.
-This must have been very satisfactory
-both to the prospective settler and lum-
-berman in search of material.

But the thing for which I cannot
-sufficiently thank you was the gracious-
-ness with which I was always received
-both by yourself and the attendant in -charge of this exhibit. You gave me
-all the information I desired and to
-your kindness I owe much for the books
-and papers published by your State.

Kindly accepted then, dear sir, assur-
-ance of my remembrance of all these
-favors, and of my most distinguished
-consideration.
-ERNEST FEYER,
-Conservator of Forests.

ACTIVE AT 123.
-Richard Hoops, of Missouri, the Old-
-est Man of the Country.

One of the oldest, if not the very
-oldest, men in America lives in a
-little shanty on the banks of the
-Osage river at Osage City, Mo., ac-
-cording to the Cincinnati Commer-
-cial Gazette. He is a negro, and his
-name is Richard Hoops.

According to the statements of -Hoops, which are well supported by
-accessible records, he was born in
-Chatham county, N. C., December
-20, 1770, and thus has completed his
-123rd year.

Born a slave, he was taken to
-Missouri by his owner, John P.
-Hayden, while a mere boy. A few -years later he was sold to the man
-whose name he now bears, and lived
-with him near Vienna, Maries coun-
-ty, until the emancipation of the -slaves. Since that time he has lived
-at Westphalia, but for the last twen-
-ty-five years has made his home at
-Osage City.

Hoops is remarkably well pre-
-served, and lives alone in his shanty.
-He fishes a great deal for the big
-catfish that frequent the waters of
-the Osage, and is never happier than
-when he can catch a big one and
-makes soup of its head.

He is still able to do some work,
-and it was only a few years since
-that he contracted with a farmer in
-the vicinity of his home to remove
-the stumps and roots of a newly-
-cleared tract of land. He fulfilled
-his contract, doing all the work him-
-self.

His mind is still clear on many
-of the events that happened toward
-the close of the last century, and he
-recalls with great pride that he once
-held the horse of Gen. Greene, of
-revolutionary fame.

In appearance Hoops resembles a
-mummy; his skin looks like parch-
-ment, and he is toothless and hair-
-less, but his step is remarkably firm,
-and his eyes bright and clear.

He has the record of his birth,
-and there is but little doubt that he
-is the oldest person in the country.

TRICKS OF THE TRADE.
-The Scheme Will Not Work Equally
-Well in All Cases.

"The best story I ever heard," said
-John Thomas to the St. Louis GLOBE-
-Democrat's "corridor" man, "is
-vouched for by Capt. Rivers, of the -North Worth & Denver railroad. A
-Russian Hebrew came to this coun-
-try and established a dry goods and
-notion business. He was so success-
-ful that he sent for his younger
-brother and started to educate him
-in the business. The boy was slower
-to learn the ways of the world than
-his brother had been, and the latter
-sometimes grew impatient. One day
-he said:

"Now, schust, wait und see how I
-do. Dere was a lady."

"The lady asked to see some silk,
-which was shown, a piece at two dol-
-lars a yard."

"But I saw some like it a few days
-ago for one dollar and fifty cents,"
-he said.

"I don't doubt it, madam; but
-dot was some days ago. Shust to
-day dese goods at dot price until yes-
-terday, ven we got word dot all the
-silk worms in China was dead, und dot
-goods will cost us more as two dol-
-lars now."

"The lady was satisfied and pur-
-chased the silk."

"Now you see how dot was done.
-Dere was a lady now; you wait on -her," he said to his brother.

"The lady entered and asked for
-tape. The young man was all atten-
-tion, and the desired article was
-speedily produced."

"How much?" the lady asked.

"Ten cents a yard."

"Why, I saw some for eight
-cents."

"I don't doubt it, madam; but
-dot was some days ago. Shust to
-day we heard dot all dot tapeworms
-was dead, and dere would be no more
-tapeworms as twenty cents a yard."

A Great-Niece of Gen. Jackson.
-Mrs. Duncanson Wilcox, of Dupont
-Circle, is the great-niece of Presi-
-dent Jackson, says the Washington
-Post. Her father was Maj. Duncan-
-son, who was a nephew of Mrs. Jack-
-son. She was so much of an invalid
-that being unable to undertake the
-arduous social duties, she invited
-her nephew's beautiful wife to assist
-her. And it was at the white house
-that Mrs. Wilcox was born, in the -same room which was the scene of -Mrs. Harrison's death. She was
-President Jackson's pet and delight.
-Her husband was Congressman John
-A. Wilcox, of Mississippi, and since
-his death she has occupied a position
-in the treasury department. Her
-daughter, Miss Mary Wilcox, is very
-accomplished, and is popular in
-society.

From the Landmark we learn that
-Mr. Jas H. Gouger died at his home
-in Statesville Sunday morning at 6
-o'clock, aged 64 years. He had for
-years been a great sufferer from asth-
-ma and dropsy and his death was not
-unexpected. The Landmark says Mr.
-Gouger was a native of Iredeed county.
-This is a mistake. The deceased was -born and raised in Rowan, a few miles
-west of China Grove. He was educated
-for the ministry of the Presbyterian
-Church and was attending the theolog-
-ical seminary at the outbreak of the -war. He left the seminary and enter-
-ed the Confederate army and served
-until the end of the war. After the -war he engaged in the profession of
-teaching, which he followed until forc-
-ed by failing health, a few years ago,
-to abandon it. Deceased was a faith-
-ful member of the Presbyterian church
-and the funeral was conducted from
-that church Monday afternoon, the
-exercises being conducted by the pas-
-tor, Rev. Dr. Wood. The interment
-was at Oakwood cemetery.

Morganton Herald: From a cor-
-respondent and from other sources the
-Herald learns that the daughter of
-"George Milk" Pearson was driven to -commit suicide by the inhuman treat-
-ment of her father. He did not clothe
-her sufficiently, refused to give her suf-ficient food to eat and made her do a
-man's hard manual labor. The child
-who was only fifteen years old, com-plained that she was tired, hungry and
-sick all the time and that she was tired
-of life. So on last Friday she went in-
-to the woods and hanged herself with
-a cotton shawl.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that
-contain Mercury,
-As mercury will surely destroy the

CLEARED AWAY
-By its use. It is the best blood remedy on earth.
-Thousands who have used it say so.
-My blood was badly poisoned last year, which got me
-whole system out of order—diseased and constant vomit-
-ing, fainting, appetite, no enjoyment of life. Two bottles
-brought me right again. There is no better
-remedy for blood diseases.
