☞ J. R. Kerr is no longer connected with this paper, nor is he authorized to receive anything due us on account or otherwise.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.—Two complete newspaper and job printing outfits, will be sold, or exchanged, for an improved farm, in Western North Carolina. One of these outfits is that of the old "CAROLINA WATCHMAN," which includes the subscription list and good will of the WATHMAN, now published at Salisbury, N. C., and the other is a good and complete 7-column newspaper outfit including a first-class job printing office, at Statesville, N. C. This property will be sold at a genuine bargain by the undersigned, proprietor, who is forced to retire from business on account of failing health. For further information address,

J. W. MCKENZIE,
Feb 12, 1894. Salisbury, N. C.

Grand Offer.

Will $35.00 do you any good? If so you can by a little effort and a few moments time realize as much. The WATCHMAN will give a Gold Watch worth $35.00 with first class Elgin movement warranted for 20 years, to the one sending in the largest number of cash subscribers within the next 60 days. This is a bona-fide offer and the watch first class in every sense. No clubs taken of less than five and cash must accompany each. Ladies or gentlemans size as desired. Go to work at once see what you can do. Send for sample copies.

☞ Messrs. C. C. Wade, at Troy, J. M. Overton, at Mt. Gilead, and L. R. Lisk Ophile, Montgomery, county, are our only authorized agents to solicit, collect, and receipt for subscriptions or other dues for the WATCHMAN, and all of our patrons who are due us will please make note of this fact and pay up their arrears.

J. W. MCKENZIE, Editor.

Dr. J. A. Tyson, of Norwood, spent Monday in the city.

Hon. S. J. Pemberton and Dr. King, of Albermarle, was in town Tuesday.

Rev. L. W. Crawford, of Trinity College, was in the city Tuesday.

The view of the aurora lights in the northern sky last Friday night was pretty. It lasted about two hours.

The News says that the hessian fly, or some other destructive insect is killing the oats crop in portions of Stanly county.

Rev. S. A. Steele, D. D., of Nashville, Tenn., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at Trinity College, on Wendesday, June 13th, next.

Hon. W. M. Robbins, of Statesville, is in Washington where he has gone to enter upon his duties as a member of the Gettysburg Battlefield Commissioner.

Under the charge of selling liquor here last Sunday, Luther Julian was committed to jail on default of bond, to await trial a our next term of court.

Mr. W. B. Scarboro, spent a part of yesterday in the city on his way home at Mt. Gilead, from Trinity College, where he has been attending school.

Mr. Henry Fike, of Hickory Mountain township, Chatham county, says the Record, owns a mule that is thirty years old, and still works as well as any other mule and seems still in his youth.

☞ Dr. W H. Wakefield will be at the Central Hotel in Salisbury, on Thursday and Friday, April 19th and 20th. Practice limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

A man living near Danbury, Stokes county, says the Reporter, has five children and five dogs but has not had a dust of meal in the house for several days except what he borrowed. He is a fit subject as a recuit to Coxey's army.

Rats, it is said, came near causing a disastrous fire at Norwood, last Saturday night. A building used for storing forage, in rear of and near Hotel Norwood, caught fire and before it could be put out the hotel was in great danger of being destroyed.

The State Supreme Court, Tuesday, rendered its decision in two cases from Rowan: State vs. I. H. Foust, affirming the verdict of the lower court; and also Byrd vs. Creese, affirmed. At last term of our Superior Court Mr. Foust was sentenced to two years in State prison. This sentence must now be executed.

The granite men of the quarries near town are reported as having had plenty of work the past winter, and have recently filled several large orders from abroad. As the more favorable season advances they anticipate demands for all the work they can do in filling increasing orders.

Salisbury's correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says, "a staunch republican here, speaking of the fusion of the Republicans and Populists, thinks they will fuse in some parts of the State and in others they will not." Infering "that a fusion is intended in places where it will be of advantage to the g. o. p., and where not to fight it out on the old line." Can the said "staunch Republican" tell us whether or not fusion is intended in Rowan?

A full-sized edition of the Charlotte Observer was issued Monday morning giving full and latest particulars of the South Carolina rebellion against Tillman's spies. As a news dispenser it keeps far ahead of all contemporaies

We are requested to announce that there will be a match game of base ball played at Trading Ford on Saturday 14th inst., between the Trading Ford and Craven mines. Game to begin at 10, o'clock a. m.

If you owe us your subscription for the WATCHMAN you know it, and you know it is an honest debt that you are as much in honor bound to pay as for the clothes you ware. It is our labor given to you for a price, and from it alone we have to get our living for self and family therefore we ask for what is our own trusting that you pay us without the necessity of our going or sending to you.

At the session of the quarterly conference, held in the Methodist church of this city last week, it was decided to have the church repaired, and a building committee of ten was appointed to raise the necessary funds for the purpose. During said confence Mr. S. M. Mills was licensed to preach, and was placed in charge of the mission work at the Vance Cotten Mills.

There has been a great revival of religion at Danbury, Stokes county. The meetings were conducted by Revs. C. Miller and Wm. Black, two Presbyterian evangelists—i. e., synodical evangelists or home missionaries, not the traveling kind. Fifty-three persons were converted, among the number State Senator A. M. Stack and W. W. King, Esq. a prominent lawyer.

The first and only prisoner that has died in our county jail since the war was Lindsay Haden, a white man, who died there last Saturday night. Haden was serving out a 6 month's term on the chain gang, and becoming ill about two weeks ago was placed in the jail where he could have proper medical attention. He was about 60 years old, and was buried in the pauper's grave yard at the County Home.

Jas. Carter, of Stanly county, charged with violation of the "infernal" revenue laws was being brought under arrest up the Yadkin road Tuesday, by officer Neal when, just before the train arrived at Misenheimer Springs, he was allowed to enter the gentleman's water closet. Officer Neal becoming impatient at his delay in coming out opened the door of the closet to find an open window but no prisoner. Carter was gone having thus given the officer the slip.

The distressing news reached town last Saturday of the terrible death of the little three-year-old daughter of Rev. R. F. Crooks, at his place some eight miles south of this city. Mr. Crooks was burning the brush from a hedge-row when his little girl, who was playing about the fire, had her clothing to ignite, and before the father could get to her relief she was entirely enveloped in the flames, causing her death almost immediately.

A young white man giving his name as John Smith, living two miles northeast of Salisbury, on the Lexington road, was in town Tuesday and reported that last Thursday night about 11 o'clock his house and its contents were destroyed by fire, and his invalid wife, disabled from partial paralysis, bearly escaped with her life by the use of her crutches, with her 13 months old baby in her arms, which was so badly burned that it died early Friday morning. He says he thinks the fire originated from a cat's turning over a lamp left burning in the room, or else it exploded, setting fire to the bed in which the wife and child were sleeping, she not awakening until aroused by the burning bed; and before she could get out of bed and secure her crutches, the clothing of her babe became ignited; and, although the poor woman succeeded in smothering the flames that were burning her child, and escaped out of the house, sustaining painful burns herself in her heroic efforts; the little girl was so badly burned that it died as above stated. Smith says he was absent from home, having visited a near neighbor, and as he was starting home he discovered the flames of his burning home, and he arrived there to fine his all destroyed except his poor distracted wife with their dying babe in her arms. As he tells it his condition is a distressing one, and he asks the sympathy and help of those who are able to bestow charity upon his unfortunate family.

School Entertainment.

Communicated,

The people of Chestnut Hill and vecinity enjoyed a rare treat last Friday evening in the entertainment given at the close of Mr. H. C. Corriher and sister's school. The entertainment consisted of dialogues, recitations, etc., by the pupils, which were all rendered in a pleasing entertaining manner to a large audience. The scholars all acquitted themselves creditably, but we can only mention a few for the lack of space. The dialogue, "Pete and the Irishman," was admirably presented, the acting of Master Ed. Henley, as "Pete" being especially good. Miss Minnie Huffman recited very bautifully and feelingly, "The Dying Sailor," and Mr. Mack Coburn brought down the house by his pathetic delivery of "Farewell Bro. Watkins." Master Melvin Gant delivered 'Monkey and Man," in a very creditable manner, as did also Miss Lottie Gallimore, "Curfew."

The Salisbury String Band furnished the music for the occasion, which was highly enjoyed.

This term of the school has been a very successful one, and the committee have wisely decided to employ Mr. Corriher and his charming sister, Miss Annie, to teach the next term. They have rendered efficient service and we are glad to know that we shall have them back with us again.—S.

Bethany Academy.

Mrs. J. A. Heilig has been visiting relatives at Concord.

Mr. W. C. Fisher, one of our boys, who has been in Missouri for the past three years, returned home several weeks ago.

Mrs. Dovie D. Holshouser is quite sick with consumption, but is slowly recovering.

A Missionary entertainment will be given by the young people of St. Peter's congregation at that place on Saturday, May 19th.

Preparations are now being made at Organ Church for the annual meeting of the Lutheran Synod of N. C. which meets there the 1st of May.

Elm Grove Alliance will hold a special meeting on Tuesday, April 24th to celebrate the birth-day of Col. L. L. Polk.

The fifth term of Bethany Academy closed on March 20th with an entertainment at night. Quite a large crowd of people were present, and we think all had a very enjoyable time. The performances were good; the music excellent. Miss Carrie Rothrock presided well at the organ. Thus did the fifth term of Bethany end. The next session will open about the middle of July. However no announcements have been made.

ELEVE.

Mt. Gilead Locals.

Correspondence Watchman.

Rev. K. A. McLeod, returns thanks to Mr. M. S. Martin for a nice load of hay.

The Mt. Gileadites decided that it was too cold for an Easter picnic so they had a sociable at Mr. W. S. Ingram's at night. Which all seemed to enjoy.

The wheat is greatly damaged in this section by the recent cold snap.

Mr. S. H. Rogers, near Wadeville, this county has discovered a very rich surface and ore gold mine. He says it is one of the richest this side of California.

Mr. L. H. Fesperman, a photographer of Wadesboro, has opened a photograph gallery here and is prepared to take all kinds and styles of pictures.

Blacks and Whites in the South.

Charlotte Observer.

The Northern people are gradually coming around to an understanding of the race situation in the South. Conspicuous proof of this fact is not lacking and one of the latest evidences of it is the following extract from a recent issue of the Albany Evening Journal, formerly the paper of Thurlow Weed and all is like a stout exponent of Republican doctrine:

The white people of the South have the intelligence, they own the property; and are in every way more deeply interested in the affairs of government and better able to direct them than are the negroes, as a class. The most virulent critic of Southern methods, placed in Southern surroundings, could hardly avoid sharing the sentiment.

The writer of the foregoing must have visited the South and looked over the ground in person. What he says is entirely true, but while it is, this may be added: that while the white people of the South have the greater interest in their local governments and must direct them, they will do so with due regard to the welfare of the black race. The whites and blacks of the South understand and like each other. There is no people under the sun which could get along with the blacks as well as the Southern white people do, or that the blacks could live so happily amongst. The proposition sprung in a recent colored convention at Birmingham, Ala., in favor of the deportation of the negroes, by the government, to Africa, meets with no favor in the South among the whites and not a corporal's guard of blacks would take advantage of such an offer, if it were made to them, apart from those who might be deluded into it by appeals from schemers to their credulity. The South needs the negro and he needs the protection and direction which he can get only from Southern white men for he is but recently out of slavery and has not yet reached fully to man's estate. We are all getting along very well down here together, thank you, except when the campaign orator comes around and stirs the black men up; and fortunately that is not often nor very deeply.

It may save you time and money to be informed that, when you need a blood-purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the kind most in favor with the medical profession. It is the standard and, as such, the only blood-purifier admitted at the Chicago World's Fair.

If you desire a luxurious growth of healthy hair of a natural color, nature's crowning ornament of both sexes, use only Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer.

Elwin Cathrell, Druggist will tell you that Johnson's Magnetic Oil always gives satisfaction and is the cheapest.

"COALITION.

Charlotte Observer.

The news from the ninth district about the meeting of Republicans which agreed that coalition is the thing and that Mr. Richmond Pearson is to run for Congress, is interesting and suggestive. It will be observed that nothing was said about "coalition" on national questions. This was probably due to the fact that there is no point at which the Minneapolis and Omaha platforms touch, and that the ways and means by which the two are to be jointed have not yet been devised. Mr. Pearson, it appears, is not to be nominated by anybody, but merely "endorsed," thus leaving him to run, as an independent candidate for the Legislature in this county some twenty years ago said he intended to run: "regardless of consequences." A basis of coalition as to State matters, was blocked out, it will be noted. Repeal of the present system of county government and of the election law are to be the issues. The first named proposition will not be so popular in some of the congressional districts of the State; but it is proposed, perhaps, to have different terms of coalition in different congressional districts. As to the election law, if all who have been defrauded of their votes by it shall vote the coalition ticket, and all who have not shall vote the Democratic ticket, the Democracy can afford to be content.

We are told that on the "platform" as above mentioned, "it was agreed that the Republicans and Populists could unite in electing a State ticket and members of the Legislature and in defeating Senator Ransom." Defeat him with whom? Republicans will probable want to know, and so, also, perhaps, will Populists. Some Republicans will likely not take kindly to a combine with the chances that some raw recruit will reap the benefit of it, and Populists will probably want to know that the Senator whom they are helping to elect is not a Republican who will go to Washington and vote with John Sherman and the plutocrats.

Go right on with the coalition, by counties, districts and State. When it is perfected and sets its table the best Populists and also the best Republicans will shift their places over to the Democratic board.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury,

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheny & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury; and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get genuine. It is by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Why Hood's Wins.

President Lincoln said, "You cannot fool the people a second time." They are too quick to recognize real merit or lack of it, and cling only to those things which they find to be what is claimed for them.

It is especially gratifying that the sale of Hood's Sarsaparilla increases most rapidly in those sections where it is best known.

The inference is plain. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven that it possesses genuine merit. It maintains a high standard which others cannot even approach. It is the people's favorite blood purifying and building up medicine, and is more popular this year than ever before. All this because Hood's Cures.

How's This.

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrah Cure.

Tennyson on Spring.

We have the word of Alfred Tennyson for it that in the spring the young man's fancies lightly turn to thoughts of love. It is singular that the great laureate omitted to mention the fact that it is in the spring that a considerable potion of the human race turn to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Probably nothing but the difficulty of finding a good rhyme for that invaluable remedy deterred him. Certain it is that the old-time domestic remedies are generally discarded in favor of the standard blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has attained the greatest popularity all over the country as the favorite Spring Medicine. It purifies the blood and gives nerve, mental, bodily and digestive strength.

The rapidity with which croup develops calls for instant treatment; and yet few households are prepared for its visits. An admirable remedy for this disease is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral It has saved hundreds of lives and should be in every home where there are young children.

Terrible Misery

Helpless With Rheumatism and Without Appetite

Tired Feeling and Pains Dispelled by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I was in terrible misery with rheumatism in my hips and lower limbs. I read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla that I thought I would try it and see if it would relieve me. When I commenced I could not sit up nor even turn over in bed without help. One bottle of

Read the Following Magnificent Offer.

MONEY MADE EASY, YOU CAN DO IT, SO WHY NOT TRY?

We call the attention of our readers to the remarkable clubbing offer in another column by which we can send this paper and the Atlanta Weekly Constitution to the same address for one year for the low sum of $1.50.

This is the only offer of its kind we have ever been able to make to our readers.

The Atlanta Weekly Constitution is too well known to need any introduction here. It has won its place at the fireside of the nation as a model weekly newspaper. It numbers on it staff some of the most famous and brilliant writers of the day and on all public questions its lance is ever in rest to defend the rights of the people. It is the largest and most widely circulated weekly newspaper published in America having a circulation of 156,000, and it week. It is in itself an education to those who read it. By the clubbing rate which we offer, our readers can get the Weekly Constitution and their home paper at but little more than the cost of one paper, thereby getting the news of their home and the news of the world every week for a year at an insignificant outlay.

In addition to this, every subscriber to this paper and the Constitution, under our clubbing arrangement, will be given an opportunity to win some handsome prizes.

All these matters are explained in another column. We merely call attention to it here to show our readers what a liberal offer we have to make to them. These offers are made by an arrangment with the Constitution, and only those who subscribe for both papers through this office are entitled to take part in the contest.

This is the most liberal clubbing offer any have ever been able to make, and we feel sure that it will prove immensely popular with our readers.

Ayer's Pills

Are better known and more generally used than any other cathartic. Sugar-coated, purely vegetable, and free from mercury or any other injurious drug, this is the ideal family medicine. Though prompt and energetic in their action, the use of these pills is attended with only the best results. Their effect is to strengthen and regulate the organic functions, being especially beneficial in the various derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels.

Ayer's Pills

are recommended by all the leading physicians and druggists, as the most prompt and effective remedy for biliousness, nausea, costiveness, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, jaundice, drowsiness, pain in the side, and sick headache; also, to relieve colds, fevers, neuralgia, and rheumatism. They are taken with great benefit in chills and the diseases peculiar to the South. For travelers, whether by land or sea, are the best, and should never be omitted in the outfit. To preserve their medicinal integrity in all climates, they are put up in bottles as well as boxes.

Ayer's Pills

"I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and always found them to be a mild and excellent purgative, having a good effect on the liver. It is the best pill used."

Newspaper Laws.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If the subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bill and ordered them discontinued.

4. If the subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is Prima Facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice to publishers at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it [illegible] until an express notice with payment of all arrearages is sent to the publisher.

The last postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders the postmaster to mark it "refused" and have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, lays himself liable to arrest and fine the same as for theft, etc.

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is always within the bounds of reason because it is true; it always appeals to the best common sense of thinking people because it is true; and it is always fully substantiated by endorsements which in the financial world would accepted without a moment's hesitation.

This question is often heard and nearly as often unanswered.

It is not always remembered, as it should be, that the occasion of ill-temper and irritability is often to be found in the physical condition of the persons affected. What is the use of trying to "charm away" a man whose liver has gone back on him? If a man is tortured with rheumatism, how can he be expected to be affable and agreeable? Can a confirmed dyspeptic be expected to be cheerful and always ready to tell a funny story? The only way to remove the difficulty is to cure the cause. Disregard, rheumatism impure blood and liver troubles yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla; this is why it as a reflective tranquilizer, a peace-maker, a cheerful giver, and a preventive of domestic [illegible] rels.
