An Experiment with the Memory. Starting with the word Washington, write down one hundred words just as they occur to you. Let your second word be the one which Washington naturally suggests to you. Possibly it will be capitol. It may be President. Take the word which first comes into your mind. In the same manner let the third word be suggested by the second, the fourth by the third, and so on. Be careful that the third word is not suggested by both the first and second. Drop the first entirely, and let your mind go from the second alone to the third. Having written this list of words, you will have furnished yourself with a cheap but very useful mirpor of your mind. If you are able to use this mirror, you may discover some very serious defects in your mental processes. You may discover that you think along certain lines too frequently. You may discover that you are rusing superficial principles quite too much to the neglect of more important laws of mind. You will be led to avoid certain linkings and to encourage others of a more philosophical nature.-Saturday Evening Post.

A NEGRO WOMAN' KILLED AT

Monroe - Agricultural Department's Crop Reports-Winners of Peabody Scholarships-Deserters Captured

Mr. Henry Hoffman, a traveling man who was interviewed by a reporter of the Charlotte Observer, said: "last Thursday I was in Wilson and visited a tobacco warehouse. I saw 3,000 piles of tobacco sold with a rapidity that took my breath. I went into the office and enquired what the business of the day would amount to in dollars and cents. I was told that the sales would aggregate $15,000. I was also told that the average price would be about 12 cents. The farmers seemed to regard the prices as entirely satisfactory, but the brokers said they should be better. The whole to bacco belt seemed to be prospering. The territory around Kinston, Newbern and Washington seems to be making a big success of tobacco."

A Well Deserved Compliment.

Mr. Jos. G. Brown, president of the Citizens' National Bank, of Raleigh, was elected a member for three years of the executive council of the American Bankers' Association, which was in session at Denver, Col. This is a high compliment to Mr. Brown, and shows that his abilities are recognized at home and abroad, he having recently been elected vice president of the North Carolina Bankers' Association. Mr. Brown is one of the State's most prominent and popular citizens, and has no superior as a bank officer.

SPANISH NEWSPAPERS.

Remone for the Queer Things to Be Found in Their Columns.

Spanish newspapers are queen things, even outside of their "news" about the United States, the Indians and what not, and their queerness is due as much to the public which they serve as to the inconceivable ignorance or willful dishonesty, or both, of the people who make them.

It is said, for instance, that outside of the larger cities there is a large class of people who do not even know of the existence of the present crisis, To one unacquainted with Spanish cuscoms and manners it might seem strange that Spanish newspapers did not lay the whole matter before the people, but, according to the Boston Advertiser, there are some obstacles in the way of such a general campaign of education in Spain.

In the first place it must be remembered that less than one-third, and only a little more than one-fourth of the eigns. He is up every morning of his Spanish people can read or write. An life by 6 o'clock, and may be seen at educated Spaniard is not the rule, but his writing table often as early as 4 the exception. A newspaper among a trying to cope with an overwhelming population, more than two-thirds of mass of correspondence. On days which can neither read nor write, is not likely to have a tremendous circulation or unlimited power. Even in he may have longer hours to devote to the cities the circulation is not large. La Epocha, the conservative organ of Madrid, for example, has a circulation of less than 5,000 copies. Outside of Barcelona and Madrid there are perhaps 600 papers published in Spain, and not half of these pretend to be newspapers.

Indeed, out of all the 1.200 peroidicals published in Spain the scientific journals, religious papers and fashion papers are largely in the majority, while the newspapers are in the minor ity. Newspaper enterprise does not have much encouragement. Foreign news is obtained chiefly from government officials. The whole kingdom of Spain does not receive as many foreign dispatches in a week as are sent to a single city in this country in a single day. The average Spanish edilist of those receiving appointments as | tor does not see much use in paying for an interesting dispatch from abroad when the chances are about ten to one that when he gets the dispatch the press censor will not allow the paper to print it.

All these facts must be borne in mind in considering the influences which go to make up public opinion in Spain. Unfortunately for the stability of the present Spanish government, clerical influences in Spain are rather with the Carlist pretender than with the young king. If Sagasta were able to lay before the Spanish people generally a true statement of the present condition of things and of Weyler's britiality, spoliation and outrageous robbery in Cuba it would not take long to settle the Cuban question with peace and honer to both sides.

Submerged Mountain.

A submerged island has been found 1.000 miles due west from Gibraltar which offers a curious problem for geographers. It was discovered by the Prince of Monaco, and will soon be placed on the charts issued by the Hydrographic Office at Washington.

The sunken island was discovered quite by accident by the Prince while making soundings from his yacht Princess Alice, and the formation was accordingly named after the yacht. The island is supposed to have been at one time a huge volcano. Its shape, which has been determined by careful soundings, is much the same as that of a huge cocked hat. The island is in no danger of interfering in the least with navigation, since its highest point is some fourteen fathoms below the surface of the sea .- New York World.

Gentrel Poverty in Washington. "I never saw so much genteel poverty before as exists in Washington, D. C. You have no idea how many of these department clerks tremble in their boots for fear of losing their positions with a change of administration and enforcement of the civil service rules. The departments unfit both men and women for any other occupation. You would be surprised to know how many of the fashionable men are department clerks. Some of the most attractive among them get a majority of their meals out of society. They rent a room for a small amount and dine out every night, frequently getting a lunch or a breakfast from a friend. In return they make it their business to be entertaining and always in a good humor, ready to be of service and to initiate new people into the etiquette of the place."-Ladies' Home Journal.

The Old Bay Line Ronte.

At this season of the year when people are peering over railroad maps and steamboat guides to decide where to spend their vacation, a glance over he illustrated folder of the "Old Bay Line" shows at once that one of the most delightful trips to Baltimore, via Cheapeake Bay ,is on the steamers "Georgia" and "Alabana." These steamers afford a most pleasant means of reaching the East. West and farther North, as the invigorating sail on these magnificent and commodious steamers prepares the tourist for the journey on the railroad, whether the traveler is bound for New York, which city is reached soon after noon by the regular railroad connections of the Bay Line steamers, or Philadelphia, at 10:45. A trip across Chesapeake Bay to Union Dock, where the "Georgia" and "Alabama" lands its passengers at 6:45 in the morning, covers 170 miles, and affords an excellent route for distant points, as the tourist alights in Baltimore refreshed after inhaling the balmy air of this inland sea. A descriptive folder of this interesting route can be had of all ticket offices and stations of the Seaboard Air Line, N. & W. Railway, A. C. & L., C. & O. R. R., Norfolk & South-
