INTERNATIONAL LESSON COMMENTS FOR FEBRUARY 19.

Subject: Jesus at the Pool of Bethesda, John v., 1-15-Golden Text, John vi., 2-Memory Verses, 8, 9-Commentary on the Day's Lesson.

I. Jesus at the feast (vs. 1-4). 1. "After this," "After these things." R. V. Some think that when John is telling some event which follows immediately after the last thing narrated, he uses the expression "after this thing" (chap. 2:12), but that when there has been an interval of time he uses the expression "after these things." "A feast." There has been much difference of opinion as to what feast this was, but it is the opinion now of the best writers that it was the Passover. 2. "By the sheep gate" (R. V.) We know from Neh. 3:1, 32; 12:39 that there was a sheep gate; so called probably from sheep for sacrifice being sold there. It was near the temple. 'The Hebrew tongue." Hebrew here means Aramaic, the language spoken at the time, not the old Hebrew of the Scrip-tures. "Bethesda." This name does not occur elsewhere. It means "house of mer-The site is not identified with certainty. The traditional spot is near Castle Antonia. But Dr. Robinson thinks "the fountain of the Virgin," an intermittent spring in the southeast of the city, near the pool of Silaom, was Bethesda. "Five porches." These porches were probably covered arcades, colonades or verandas. open at one side to the air. but protected against the sun or rain overhead. In a hot country like Palestine such buildings are very necessary. 3. "Multitude." The sick congregated here in great numbers.

II. Jesus heals an impotent man (vs. 5-9). 5. "An infirmity." The original implies rather a loss of power than a positive disease: probably it was a nervous disease of paralytic type. "Thirty and eight years." The duration of the illness is mentioned, either to show how inveterate and difficult it was to heal, or rather, according to verse 6, to explain the deep compassion with which Jesus was affected on beholding the unhappy man. From verse 14 we may infer that his disease was the result of the sins of his youth. 6. "Knew." The word "knew" in the original indicates one of those instantaneous perceptions by which the truth became known to Jesus according as the task of the moment demanded. Verse 14 will show that the whole life of the sufferer is present to the eye of Jesus, as that of the Samaritan woman was in chapter 4. "Saith unto him." Usually Christ waited until He was asked before He relieved the suffering, but in this and a few other cases He healed without being asked. He read the man's past life and present condition of mind, and saw that he was in a state to receive spiritual good from the healing. "Wilt thou?" Why does He ask a question to which the answer was so obvious? Probably in order to rouse the sick man out of his lethargy and despondency.

7. "No man." He was friendless as well as sick. "Is troubled." This spring, probably the fountain of the Virgin, is intermittent to this day, and various travelers have seen it suddenly rise from five inches to a foot in five minutes. Whedon thinks that the moving of the waters arose from an underground connection of the pool with the city water works. The occasional and intermittent disturbance of the water is not to be understood as a regular occurrence, but as something sudden and quickly pasing away. Hence the man's waiting and complaint. "Put me into the pool." Literally, "in order to throw" me into the pool; perhaps implying that the gush of water did not last long, and there was no time to be lost in quiet carrying. "While I am coming." Thus picturing the extreme haste and rapidity with which the favorable opportunity was seized. There was a rush and scramble for the one chance.

"Rise," etc. Commands like these would test the man's faith and obedience. As in the case of the paralytic (Mark 2:9), Christ made no enquiry as to the man's faith. Christ knew that he had faith, and the man's attempting to rise and carry his bed after thirty-eight years of impotency was an open confession of faith. "Bed." Probably only a mat or rug, still common in the East. 9. "And walked." With the command was given the power of obedience. So the sinner who is bidden to commit himself to Christ need not wait for any compulsion. As he makes the effort he will find divine power within him-"Sabbath." The seventh day of the week, the Jewish Sabbath. III. Persecution of the Jews (vs. 10-13).

0. "Not lawful." Jeremiah had commanded, "Take heed to yourselves. and bear no burden on the Sabbath day" (16: 21), and the Jews interpreted this as for-bidding the carrying of the lightest weight. But Jeremiah's meaning is made clear by Neh. 13:15: "Treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses," etc. "To forbid this man from carrying his bed was like forbidding a modern man to move a camp stool or a chair."

11. "He—said." Unquestionably the words seem to say that one who could do such a wonder as healing me must certainly have the right to tell me what to do. He had been authorized by one endorsed as sent from God. And this was indeed the very ground which Christ Himself took. 12. "Who is the man" (R. V.) They ignore the miracle, and attack the command. They ask not. "Who cured thee, and therefore must have divine authority?" but, "Who told thee to break the Sabbath, and therefore could not have it?" 13. "Knew not" (R. V.) Jesus had been in Jerusalem but little, and the man who was healed had probably never seen "Conveyed himself away." withdrew. Literally, "slipped aside," became suddenly lost to sight. "A multitude," etc. This may be understood as explaining either why he withdrew-to avoid the crowd, or the manner in which he withdrew-by disappearing in the crowd. Either explanation makes good Jesus gives advice and warning (v. 4. "Afterward." Probably soon afterward; in a day or so. "Findeth him." Jesus had His eye on the man; His work with him was not yet finished; this meeting was not accidental. "In the temple." A good place for the man to be. "Sin no more." God asks this of every sinner. And yet there are those who insist that it more." is impossible to live without sin in this life, but if such is the case then Jesus asked this man to do the impossible. "A worse thing." A paralysis from which no pool can restore and no Saviour will de-liver; the most terrible catastrophe of the soul's eternal history.

V. The man bears testimony (v. 15). 15. "Told the Jews," etc. In reply to the inquiry they had made of him a short time before, partly in obedience to the authorities and partly to complete his apology for himself. He expected, probably, in the simplicity of his heart, that the name of Him whom so many counted as a prophet, if not as the Messiah Himself, would have been sufficient to stop the mouths of gain-

Baby Covered With Sores and Scales-Could Not Tell What She Looked Like-Marvelous Cure by Cuticura.

"At four months old my baby's face and body were so covered with sores and large scales you could not tell what she looked like. No child ever had a worse case. Her face was being eaten away, and even her finger nails fell off. It itched so she could not sleep, and for many weary nights we could get no rest. At last we got Cuticura Soap and Ointment: The sores began to heal at once, and she could sleep at night, and in one month she had not one sore on her face or body. - Mrs. Mary Sanders, 709 Spring St., Camden, N. Women Physicians for Lunatics.

One of the most famous of German physicians for the treatment of mental liseases, Prof. Ludwig, is earnestly advocating the employment of women physicians in lunatic asylums. After years of investigation he has come to the conclusion that the insane are peculiarly susceptible to a woman's presence and influence, not only the women, but the men as well. He says he has been instrumental in obtaining the admission of one woman physician to an asylum for women in South Germany, and the results are simply phenomenal. The women are more tractable. Ludwig is certain that in a short time no men physicians will be employed in female lunatic asylums. His opinion is supported in large measare by another eminent authority, Dr. Krapelin .- New York World.

Raising Geese by Thousands. On a goose farm in the middle west there is an incubator with a capacity for 10,000 eggs. These eggs are not, however, placed in the incubator at one time, but are so arranged that one section will hatch each day, being refilled as soon as the goslings are taken out. The geese are raised on this farm for their feathers alone, which are used in the upholstering business.

Naturally, under the conditions, the question of food is very prominent. A young man states that he had suffered for nine years from stomach and bowel trouble, had two operations which did not cure, and was at last him perfectly. After the second day he began to sleep peacefully at night, different than he had for years. The perfect digestion of the food quieted his nervous system and made sleep possible.

He says: "The next morning I was astonished to find my condition of constipation had disappeared. I could not believe it true after suffering for so many years; then I took more interest in the food, read the little book 'The Road to Wellville,' and started following the simple directions.
