1905, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of Mar. 3rd, 1879.

SALISBURY, N. C., APRIL 12, 1905.

If last week's storm is a sample of the gentle advances of spring, we will take a few more months of winter in ours.

The way spring has broken in upon us, we suppose this year's spring poetry will be written with meat axes.

The Charlotte drug stores are doing their best to injure the express company's and railroad's business between there and Salisbury.

Spring slippers are all right, but when they get busy slipping spring chickens it becomes a slippery subject, but we suppose it is the best slipper who gets the most pullets.

If Gus Hull will run for Mayor of Charlotte we will send down a half dozen of our automobiles and give him a lift. If elected, we will write a six-line editorial congratulating Charlotte on its good sense and fine judgment.

If the United States Supreme Court, according to Judge Emory Speer, of Georgia, amounts to anything down here, there would be some suits for damage against the town of Salisbury for peonage.
He says the placing of men on a county chain gang for offenses not amounting to crime is peonage with the city ordinances and courts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Judge Boyd, during last week's session of Federal Court at Greensboro, fined a young man of Kernersville $250 for selling common curs for $20 to $60, having advertised them as dogs of superior pedigrees. The pedigree part of the transaction is what got him into trouble, the price of the cur being of no consideration.
Judging by the neighborhood rows, newspaper space given and the great time devoted to discussing dog-laws by the legislature, any old cur ought to bring several times the price asked by the Kernersville man. Judge Boyd should be careful, there are some smoking volcanoes in existence yet.

The Opening Services of the New Baptist Church.

The first services, and probably the largest that may be held there for some time, was held in the new Baptist church Sunday. The morning service was held by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Rich. The afternoon service began at 2:30 and was participated in by all Protestant denominations in the city and a number of ex-pastors of the church, consisting of Revs.
N. S. Jones and M. E. Parrish.
Revs. J. H. Wilson, of St. John's Lutheran church, Rowe, of the First Methodist church, and Dut-tera, of Faith Reform church participated in the exercises.
Between $1,200 and $1,500 were raised to reduce the church debt.
The services were a success in every respect, and great enthusiasm was aroused. The building is one of the handsomest in the city and the Baptists deserves great credit for the perseverance with which they have worked and the success attained.

The Salisbury fire department intends to send a team to the next State tournament which will be held in Winston this year.

Tall Prices for Tall Pines.

Wash Honeycutt and Buck Kester, of Franklin township, have just recently sold to the Whitney Company twenty extra tall pines, some as high as 90 feet. These gentlemen were paid $15 a piece for the standing trees. They are being cut and hauled to the railroad near Shober's bridge and will be carried from there by rail to the Narrows where they will do service as derricks in building the great dam.

New Jersey Claims $8,000.

Among the numerous claims against the Gold Hill Copper Co., of which W. G. Newman is president, is one of $8,000 held by the state of New Jersey for franchise tax. This account was filed with Receiver B. B. Miller and was allowed by the Superior court, but as it was not given a preference over other claims an appeal to the Supreme court was taken and it is expected to be argued this week.

Inspection of Rowan Rifles.

Col. T. H. Bain, Inspector General N. C. National Guards, accompanied by Brig. Gen. C. A.
Woodruff, U. S. A., were in the city Tuesday night for the purpose of inspecting the Rowan Rifles. The inspection took place in the armory Tuesday night. The boys did much practicing for the occasion.

Hickory Camp, No. 29, Woodmen of the World was visited last Monday night by Sovereign G. F. Wise, of Virginia. The annual sermon of this order will be preached next Sunday by Rev.
W. H. Rich in the Baptist church.

Dr. R. M. Eames has sold his residence in the South Ward to W. R. Lyerly. Dr. Eames expects to rebuild in the West Ward.

The big sale at Jacob Feldman's began today with a rush. Hundreds of people are visiting his store and making purchases.

The lumber used in building the tabernacle, which was blown down last week, has been sold to E. R. Overman for $225

WEDDINGS.

BROWN-HARRISON.—Miss Rosa
Brown, of Woodleaf, and Mr.
Baxter Harrison, of this city, were married at the home of the bride's mother, at Woodleaf, last Wednesday, Rev. T. C. Lenning officiating. Mr. Harrison, who clerks at W. H. Huff's, brought his bride to the city and they are boarding at the man's father's,
H. L. Harrison.

New Superintendent at Spencer Shops.

E. C. Sasser, of Richmond, Va., has been appointed superintendent of the Southern's shops at Spencer. Mr. Sasser worked here several years ago and is said to be a man thoroughly competent to fill the important position to which he has been appointed by the Southern's officials.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Having qualified as administrator of J. R. Silliman, deceased, late of Rowan County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned on or before the 10th day of April, 1905, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery.
This 10th day of April, 1905.

and healthful by using

Alabastine

THE SANITARY WALL COATING

A Rock Cement in white and beautiful tint. Does not rub or scale. Destroys disease germs and vermin. No washing of walls after once applied. Any one can brush it on—mix with cold water. Plain tinting and whitening, and the most elaborate relief, stencil work and frescoing may be done with it. Other finishes (bearing fanciful names and mixed with hot water) do not have the cementing property of Alabastine. They are stuck on with glue or other animal matter, which rots, feeding disease germs, rubbing, scaling and spoiling walls, clothing, etc. Such finishes must be washed off every year—costly, filthy work. Buy Alabastine only in five-pound packages, properly labeled.
Tint card, pretty wall and ceiling design.

vices in making color plans, free.
