DEATH OF A BRAVE MAN AND TRUE.

Wild Engine Crashes into a Freight Train Mess. Bullock and Freeman were Making Up, Killing the Former.

Monday night about 10 o'clock, while Horatio Bullock, engineer, and Ray Freeman, fireman, were engaged in making up a freight train on the double track near Henderson's crossing, a wild engine came from the yards at Spencer, travelling at a rapid rate and without engineer or fireman, and crashed into the train, killing Mr. Bullock, slightly wounding Mr. Freeman and wrecking the two engines and two or three freight cars loaded with goods.

Mr. Freeman saw the wild engine first, called Mr. Bullock's attention to it, and jumped out of the cab, escaping with a slight contusion on his forehead, a few bruises and scratches. Mr. Bullock, in attempting to escape, was caught between the engine and tender, and the life was crushed out of him instantly.

It is thought Mr. Bullock's life might have been saved had he not attempted to escape, as the cab, in some inconceivable way, escaped destruction.

No one can account for the action of No. 1341, the wild engine; but the general impression is, owing to its running backward and forward a time or two before starting on its deadly mission, that it was tampered with. The story of its being the work of some would-be strikers, however, is without a particle of foundation, as there is not even the whispering of such a thing among the shop or yard men. The fact, however, that another wild engine started from the yards at Spencer for Salisbury about a half hour afterward, together with the necessary use of the reversing lever on the first wild engine to make it run back and forth, gives color to the theory that the runaways were tampered with, possibly by some drunken man. No sane person, save an incarnate fiend, could do such dastardly work.

Mr. Bullock was a man of generous mind, noble impulses and great moral courage. Being a Socialist, he labored for the emancipation of his class from what he termed wage-slavery and the establishment of the co-operative commonwealth, to eventuate in the brotherhood of man.

Mr. Bullock was 37 years old—in the prime of life and full vigor of a splendid physical manhood. The writer knew him, and loved him for his worth. True men are so rare one cannot but appreciate those we meet. He leaves a loving wife to mourn his untimely death, but no children.

Mrs. Bullock, who has heart trouble, was so overcome by the terrible news that her life was almost despaired of. Two doctors gave her their attention the entire night, and but for their good treatment she would have died.

Mr. Bullock was a Mason and a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, and these two orders have charge of the funeral ceremonies, which take place at his home in East Spencer today. His remains will be buried in Christ Church cemetery.

Four hoboes were yesterday sent to the chain gang for 30 days each.

Richard Morgan and a Mr. Brady, of Gold Hill, were in Salisbury the first of the week assisting the Holy Jumpers in their meetings which are being pulled off every evening and night in East Salisbury.

Saturday was the birthday of J. W. Clark, carrier on R. F. D. route No. 8, and he was pleasantly surprised on returning to his home to find a large number of friends there with baskets filled with good things for a big dinner in his honor and many handsome and useful presents.

War has been declared by the city officials on the demi-monds, owing to some exhibitions of notorious Chassie Knox, and as a result 32 such characters were summoned to appear before the mayor this morning. Chassie was sent to jail.

DEATH OF ALBERT SIDNEY HEILIG.

Another Good Man Passes From Among Us After a Month of Sickness.

Yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, after a month's illness with typhoid fever, Albert Sidney Heilig, in the fortieth year of his age, died at the residence of his mother on South Fulton street.

A few days ago a change set in, apparently for the better, and his numerous relatives and friends took hope for his restoration to health; but this hope was short-lived. Tuesday morning another change occurred, which terminated in death.

Mr. Heilig was born and reared in Salisbury, and his life is an open book, and so far as we know, without blot. His love for his widowed mother, with and for whom he seemed to live, approached the sublime.

The funeral ceremony, conducted by Dr. Wilson, will take place at the Lutheran church at 3 p. m. Friday, and the interment will be made in Chestnut Hill cemetery.

Crump Gets Eight Years, and No True Bill Against Davis and the Leonards.

Judge Long, in his court at Lexington last Friday, sentenced Nat Crump to imprisonment in the penitentiary eight years for attempting to murder H. C. Grubb. The jury were but few minutes in coming to the conclusion he was guilty.

Frank Hairston, negro, accused of complicity, has not been found by the officers.

Lester Davis, brother-in-law of H. Clay Grubb, and Henry C. and Dave Leonard, charged with conspiring to kill Grubb, were also tried, but the evidence was not strong enough to convict them, and resulted in acquittal.

Suspicious Case.

A South Carolina negro, sailing under the name of Will Demerick, who was shot at Spencer, he says, in the fleshy part of the leg by an unknown enemy about two weeks ago, has returned to Salisbury in bad shape. He has a bullet in his groin which passed through his back. He says that he was approached from behind and shot while in Greensboro, and he thinks by the same party who shot him in Spencer. His story is not believed, and the officers suspect he was shot while endeavoring to enter somebody's house.

Marriages.

WILSON-HURLEY.—Mr. J. T. Wilson, of Mocksville, and Miss Alice Hurley, of Immer, Montgomery county, were married in Salisbury last Wednesday afternoon at the residence of James Summers on North Long street, Squire Miller officiating.

LYERLY-LENTZ.—On the 13th of August 1905, by Rev. R. L. Brown and at his residence, Mr. Sidney A. Lyerly and Miss Emma M. Lentz were united in holy matrimony. Our best wishes go with the happy couple.

Rowan Superior Court.

On the 28th the Rowan Superior Court will convene, Judge Long presiding. About twenty prisoners will come before this court—two of the cases being for murder (Cal. Cowan, colored, accused of murdering John Watson, also colored, and two young negroes for killing William McKethan), beside 114 cases on the civil docket. This is Judge Peebles' term; but as he is "courting" in the eastern part of the State, Judge Long takes his place.

Car Makes Successful Trial Trips.

Last Friday afternoon car No. 2 of the Salisbury-Spencer line carried a full load of passengers half way to Spencer and back, and on Thursday morning it made the entire trip. The car is of the large summer pattern, and will carry 50 people. The second car arrived yesterday and a regular schedule will be put in operation today.

Colored Boy Fatally Hurt in Washington.

Chief Frank Miller received the following telegram from Washington last Wednesday evening: "Joseph Brown, 16 years old, a colored boy, was struck by a donkey engine at 1.30 today. Will likely die. Notify his father, David Brown, who lives in Salisbury."

Joe is the son of "Date" Brown, a blacksmith, who lives at Union Hill and works at Granite Quarry. His mother was notified, who sent word to her husband.

Mr. Dickert Hurt.

Earl Dickert, a young man in the employ of the Southern at Spencer, suffered a severe injury Monday morning. Mr. Dickert works in the pipe department of the shops and was handling hot flues, when both hands were mangled and severely scalded.

DEATHS
ELLIS—Mrs. Margaret Ellis died Sunday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Julius Hartman, on Fisher street. The funeral services were conducted from Calvary Baptist church, near Franklin, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. J. C. Rowe. Mrs. Ellis was about 35 years old.

Arrested for Shoplifting.

A man and his wife from the country were arrested last Saturday just a short time after the woman had taken a pair of small pants from a clothing store and put them in a basket. Besides these the man carried a sack, containing calico and other merchandise, which had been lifted from three different stores. They were placed under bonds of $25 each for their appearance at court.
