

UNIONS' THIRD CELEBRATION.

From 12,000 to 15,000 Visitors in Salisbury. Gov. Glenn and Mr. Hawkins the Orators of the Day.

The third annual celebration of Labor Day by the unionists of Salisbury and Spencer Monday eclipsed its predecessors. The crowd, as predicted, was a record breaker, and a conservative estimate placed the number of visitors at 12,000. Every incoming train brought out of town folks, many of whom are unfailing on these occasions and others attracted by the State-wide praise of the way the Salisbury-Spencer unions have of doing things.

The morning dawned threateningly. The clouds were heavy and low, a reputation of the deluge of Labor Day 1904 would not have been a surprise. But there was a rift in the clouds at 9 o'clock and when the parade started at 9:50 weather conditions were ideal for a long march.

Governor Glenn arrived from Raleigh on No. 11 at 8:30 yesterday morning and was escorted to his carriage by Mayor Boyden and Messrs. R. M. Pendleton and G. W. Farmer and driven to the Central hotel.

An eager and expectant mass of humanity lined the sidewalks as early as 7:30, in their anxiety to secure a good position for the parade.

The parade, as it went up Main street was composed of representatives, of organizations, businesses and individuals as follows:

- First division—Pages in front, Chief Marshal.
- Assistant Chief, Mounted Police.
- Carriage of Speakers and Invited Guests.
- Board of Aldermen.
- Carriage Invited Guests of Spencer.
- Forest Hill Band.
- Second Division—Locals.
- Railway Carmen.
- Sheet Metal Workers.
- Retail Clerks.
- Machinists.
- Typographical Union.
- Electrical Workers.
- Carriage and Wagon Workers.
- Bartenders.
- Brotherhood of Boilermakers.
- Band—Chestnut Hill.
- Third Division—Tournament Riders.
- Baseball Teams.
- Fourth Division.
- Salisbury Hardware Company.
- M. L. Jackson.
- Maupin Bros.
- A. B. Saleeby.
- W. B. Summersett.
- J. K. Link.
- Salisbury Steam Laundry.
- G. W. Wright.
- Fire Companies, Etc.

The parade formed on North Main street and proceeded up Main to Inniss, Inniss to Fulton, to Council, Council to Main, Main to Inniss, Inniss to Long, to Henderson's Park, where it disbanded, when the exercises of the day were opened with prayer by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Rowe, of the First Methodist church. Mr. R. E. Lufsey in well chosen words made introductory remarks and presented Mayor Boyden who extended, in a happy vein, a welcome to all the city's guests.

The address of Mr. J. B. Hawkins, a native North Carolinian, for years a prominent figure in the public life of Tennessee, and now with the Southern at Spencer, was the effort of a thinker. It is worth reading in full and but for the lack of space would be presented in these columns. Mr. Hawkins, just now in the prime of manhood, has given the best years of his life to the study of economics and is conversant with every phase of the labor question. He traced from its source the development and tribulations of organized labor and declared that the solution which gives to all their Divinely-ordained rights is the concentration of interests on the part of the wealth producers. The speech was as instructive as interesting.

GOVERNOR GLENN SPEAKS.

Gov. Glenn followed Mr. Hawkins in a speech of an hour. The Governor was in his best vein and was frequently applauded. He was particularly earnest when he referred to the wanton extravagance of our national government. "Let us," he exclaimed, "substitute school houses for saloons and books for bottles." The desecration of the Sabbath was deplored as a sign of degeneration and the same regard for the rights of one's neighbor as self was emphasized. In fact, the most telling feature of the speech were the admonitions and conclusions based upon the Fifth Commandment.

The peroration was a scathing denunciation of the idler and a splendid tribute to the toiler. The speech commanded the closest attention of the audience and the Governor was time and again applauded. Among others who heard His Excellency was Senator Overman.

THE ATHLETICS.

At 3:30 o'clock, with the grand stand comfortably filled, the tournament was called. Five entries were announced, and this feature of the exercises was pulled off with such zest and snap as to keep interest at a high pitch. Mr. John Robinson, who rode a fiery, branded Western steed easily took first honors. In the three runs he took nine—the highest possible number of rings. The knights and the number of ring made:

- Knight of Apprentice Boys, John B. Krider, 3.
- Knight of Machinists, John Robinson, 9.
- Knight of Boilermakers, C. R. Bird, 6.
- Knight of the Black Star, Walter McCanles, 5.
- Knight of the Iron Cross, E. J. Chilson, 5.

In the foot race Bentley, Salisbury-Spencer's former catcher, won first prize with Shaw a close second.

A fast game of ball ending at 6:30 was played between Spencer and McAdenville resulting in a score of 2 to 0 in favor of the visitors.

NOTES.

For the number of visitors the crowd was the best behaved ever seen in Salisbury. So far as any need for their services were concerned the policemen may as well have been off duty.

While all the floats were attrac-

SUGAR SPRINGS SHOOTING AFFAIR

Zeke Young, a Railroad Negro was Killed and Two Other Negroes Wounded. The Murderer Captured and is Now in Jail.

Ezekiel Young, a negro man 25 years old, was shot Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock by Whitman Hardy, a desperate mulatto from Yorkville, S. C., and died a few hours later at the Whitehead-Stokes sanatorium. Joe Ross, another negro and a friend of Young, was also shot though not seriously hurt by Hardy, and Hardy himself received the contents of a loaded shot gun in his back and right leg. His hurt is very slight.

There are conflicting stories about the carping leading up to the shooting but it is fairly established that Hardy was the aggressor.

Esquire Joseph Kesler went to the Whitehead-Stokes sanatorium to take an ante-mortem declaration from Young, but he was too far gone to give a detailed story of the shooting. He did say, however, that Hardy was drinking and that he deliberately shot without any provocation. Hardy says he shot in self-defense and was running when he hit the two men. The grand jury having adjourned he will remain in jail until the next term of court.

Hardy recently escaped from the Yorkville, S. C., jail, where he was imprisoned for shooting two white men.

Dogs, Folks Etc.

The newspapers are having a good deal of fun out of chapter 754 of the acts of the last Legislature, which is entitled "An Act to Prevent Dangerous Dogs From Running at Large," and which reads as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or dog or bitch known to be dangerous or vicious to run at large: Provided, however, this section shall not be construed to prevent turning such dogs loose from 8 p. m. to 6 a. m. on the premises of the owner.

Section 2. That any person violating this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

If this act applied to dangerous dogs only it would be a good one for the entire State, but inasmuch as it is made a misdemeanor for "any person" or "firm" known to be dangerous" to run at large, it is probably just as well that the act applies to Mitchell county only, for the courts might have trouble in determining just when a person or firm is dangerous. In Mitchell they doubtless have some established rule to determine such matters.—Statesville Landmark.

Norfolk Visitors.

Mrs. E. O. Atwell and daughter, Miss Evelyn, of Norfolk, Va., arrived in Salisbury Saturday night and are the guests of Mrs. A. W. Cornelison.

That of the barendner was unanimously voted the prize winner. It was constructed at a little cost and was one of the most unique floats ever seen in a parade. The clerks were awarded second prize.

That there was some eating in Salisbury is proven by the fact that the supply of bread at every bakery was exhausted last night before 7 o'clock.

The Chestnut Hill and Forest Hill bands furnished music and it was of the stirring variety, too. Both are excellent bands.

CHARLOTTE MAN CUT

Three Kesler Mill Boys Arrested for the Assault.

Mr. J. E. Murphy, of Charlotte, was painfully cut about the head Monday afternoon and three young men from the Kesler mill—Ham Kepley, J. W. Dent and E. L. McCall—are to be tried this afternoon for the assault. The trouble occurred at the Henderson spring, just across the public road from the park and there are conflicting stories about it. Mr. Murphy's wounds are not considered serious.

Passing of the Campmeeting.

A venerable American institution, the campmeeting, is on the wane. It is still far from dead but those who know it best perceive most clearly that its sunset hour has come. As the old preachers of today recount in the past tense the experiences of the circuit rider, that pioneering apostle of Christianity to new communities, so the preachers of tomorrow will tell on occasions of reminiscences of the former glories of the hilarious camp meeting, when people "got religion" and were not afraid to make a noise about it. Fewer and fewer of the strongest preachers attend the camp meetings. The more cultivated church members become the less taste they appear to have for this sort of "old time religion." Plainly, the camp meeting is on the decline.—Philadelphia Press.

Mr. Conrad Operated Upon.

J. Ed. Conrad, who was taken sick last Saturday with appendicitis, was carried to Salisbury Monday where he was operated on at the Whitehead-Stokes sanatorium. The operation was performed Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock and it was successful, we are glad to say.—Lexington North State.

Microbe Weather

These warm, balmy days make fine growing weather for myriads of microbes. They are laying in wait for your health. The thing to do is to destroy them with a good germicide before they have an opportunity of harming you. Smallpox, diphtheria, typhus, scarlet fever and all infectious diseases are germ diseases. Disinfectants should be used freely in every dark spot or damp place, in cellars, drains, etc., and the sooner used the less liability to disease. We have every disinfectant of known value. Cost almost nothing in comparison with good they do
