WM. H. STEWART, Ed. and Pub.
Published Every Wednesday at 130 West Innis Street
Subscription Price $1 per year strictly cash in advance
Entered as second-class matter Jan. 19th, 1905, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.
SALISBURY, N. C., FEB. 14th, 1906.

The fellow who would withhold something that belongs to another would also pick up something that does not belong to him should the opportunity present itself.

Miss Anna Gould, who married a ten cent French Count, one Boni Castellane, has had lots of fun counting out about eight million dollars for his royal highness to squander, and now having become weary of counting for the Count, she has concluded the Count is no count and insists on a divorce. If she gets it the Count may have the pleasure of teaching some other girl something.

W. Thos. Bost, the Salisbury correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, is now quite busily engaged making appointments to the legislature for Rowan county. His latest selection, Whitehead Klutz for the senate, is a good one and is in every way worthy as he is fully capable to assume the responsibilities of the position. We hope, however, Mr. Bost will at least permit the good people of the county to bow in humble submission to his appointments.

Maj. W. E. Brees, who has been convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary on several occasions, for stealing only $117,000 from the First National Bank of Asheville, has finally succeeded in cheating justice. The U. S. district court of appeals, at Richmond, has dismissed his case on the ground that two of the jurymen who found the bill of indictment had not paid their taxes according to law. This is a very frivolous pretense and there should be no time lost in "passing a law," or correcting the present one so as to close this "eyes of a needle" through which criminals escape.

SOME THINGS WANTED AT FAITH.

A Two-Mile Railroad, and a Cotton Mill to Change the Course of Waste Water.

We are having the third sheet here today within the past few weeks

J. D. A. Fisher shipped 15 mill stones in one day to one man last week.

A paying investment would be a company to organize and build two miles of railroad to connect the granite quarries to the main line of the Southern railroad. It cost the granite contractors from 15 to 20 dollars for every car load to haul the granite to the railroad. A railroad company could haul it for half of that and make a fortune at the business.

Miss Lizzie Gobble, of Spencer, is visiting relatives and friends in Faith.

Faith wants a cotton factory built on the east side of the granite belt. On George Peeler's plantation is a beautiful site for the mill. There the waste water would not run into crane creek, but would go in another direction.

William Foil has added horse-shoeing to his shop work.

Charlie A. Clark has opened up a store at his father's residence and having a good trade. The new store-house is built just across the road from the residence.

In Self Defense.

Major Hamm, editor and manager of the Constitutionalist, Eminence, Ky., when he was fiercely attacked, four years ago, by Piles, bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of which he says: "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Quickest healer of burns, sores, cuts and wounds. 25c at all druggists.
