

MILLERTOWN NEWS.

Oscar Coggin Dies of Consumption. A Riddle Solved.

We have been having some more cold, sleety weather.

Oscar Coggin of this community died Saturday of consumption. He was a young man of 28 years. The family has our deepest sympathy.

Miss Bertie Miller visited relatives and friends at Richfield a few days last week.

Tom Stokes, of Jackson Hill, spent Sunday night at Jos. A. Miller's.

The school at Oak Grove school house closed Friday.

Miss Stella Stokes visited at H. C. Vanhoy's Tuesday night.

Mack Kirk, who has been afflicted with the measles, is recovering we are glad to note.

Success to The Watchman and its readers. BETSY.

The health of our community is generally good, excepting a few colds.

Miss Freda Miller visited at H. C. Vanhoy's last Wednesday night.

W. F. Fraley sold some very large molasses to J. G. Fraley a few days ago. It took a two-inch hole for them to run out of. Very good the for molasses.

The saw mills of this section are doing a great deal of work along now.

In regard to Bartlett's question, "Why is man's laughter a crime, a penitentiary offense?" We would suggest the answer to be because it is manslaughter. See!

With best wishes to the editor and readers of The Watchman. UNCLE JOSH.

For Sale.—A nice, small farm, near Faith, Crescent, and Granite Quarry; good water. Also a good brood mare, good worker. See ROLAND KIRK, Salisbury, N. C.
