The Southern's through freight, No. 74, ran into some loose box cars near Blacksburg, S. C., Saturday morning, besides wrecking the engine and cars, killed N. F. Wooten, engineer; Mr. Lucas, fireman; and Mr. Kain, brakeman. These men were well known in Salisbury and Spencer.

In regard to the money recently found on the old Jesse Beaver place, near the Cabarrus line, in Litake township, we learn consisted of gold and silver and the latest date on any one piece found was 1862. The find was made by a member of the Carter family while digging in the chimney corner preparatory to the planting of some flowers. James Carter recently bought this place and is now making his home on it.

Last Wednesday a car load of Italians were taken down the Yadin road to be put to work at Whitney. If the people thereabouts are "up-to-snuff" they will put in a large crop of garlic and onions this year.

G. W. Garland, Esq., who has occupied a room in the wooden building, adjoining THE WATCHMAN office, for several years, has moved to room 7 in the Washington building. The frame building is to be torn away and a modern business block will be built on the lot.

Adam and L. A. Wensil, of No. 5, township, Cabarrus county, were in the city Monday.

Z. A. Klutz, of Organ Church, was in the city Monday. He brought his little daughter up for treatment. Sunday evening she fell and cut her lip open on an old wagon tire. Doctors Brawley and West dressed her wound and it is hoped she will soon be well.

President G. C. Moore Speaks.

President G. C. Moore, of the North Carolina Cotton Association, addressed a number of farmers in the grand jury room at the court house last Thursday afternoon. Owing to the inclement weather only a few were out to hear him. His main plea is that the farmers should get together for their mutual protection and welfare. He claims that 11 cents would have never been realized if it had not been for the cotton association. No doubt he is right and the farmers will do well to heed his advice. An executive committee, consisting of the following gentlemen, was appointed to look after the association's interest in Rowan, to-wit: Messrs. L. E. Fisher, J. C. Miller, R. A. Raney, S. A. Earnhardt and J. H. Frick, and organizer, W. T. Bost.

Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers
Increase Your Cotton Values Yields Per Acre Above Par

It is a well known fact that cotton, or any other crop, produced with Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers will bring the highest possible price on the market. Make healthy, strong, well-developed, early cotton, with full grown bolls on the fruit limbs at the base as well as all the way up to the very top and tip ends of the branches of the cotton plants, by liberally using Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers. They contain all the materials necessary to supply to your land the elements which have been taken from it by repeated cultivation year after year. These fertilizers will greatly increase your yields per acre. Accept no substitute from your dealer.
