Subscription Price $1 per year strictly cash in advance

Entered as second-class matter Jan. 19th, 1905, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SALISBURY, N. C., April 11th, 1906.

It is the weakminded who cannot see the hand of the political boss in the selecting of two of the candidates for the next legislature.

The man who votes for the good of his country is as much a patriot as the man who fights her battles. Demagogues and hirelings get into public office because the people fail to appreciate this very important duty.

We are glad to learn that W. D. Pethel, of Spencer, a candidate for the lower house of the legislature, is a man upon whom the people can rely for representation, that he does not wear the livery of the boss, he is free and uncolored and would rather stay at home than to serve in any other capacity. Now let's have another such and defeat the boss, bonds, immigration and other schemes.

Are the good people, the old soldiers who placed their lives on the altar of their country, and the veteran Democrats of Rowan going to submit to a vile, tyrannical bossism? That is the keynote of the campaign in Rowan this year. We want to see this matter settled once for all and before the primaries, or else let every man who loves his home, his native land, uprightiness, equal rights to all and the right to say whether bonds and taxes shall be piled upon them year after year, as it has been for the last few years, stay out of the Democratic primaries and join any respectable element that will pledge itself to the welfare of the people. We need no boss.

ST. LUKE'S.

After being absent for quite a while I will try and write a few lines again.

The health of the community is not so good at present.

David T. Peeler has been quite sick for the last week, but is some better now.

A good many children around here have the whooping cough, but it hasn't hurt any one very much yet.

There will be communion services at St. Luke's Reformed church on Easter Sunday, April 15th, at 10:30 o'clock a. m.

Luther Miller and family visited his father-in-law, Jacob Ribelin, last Sunday.

Sidney Lyerly and wife, from near Granite Quarry, visited Joseph Lentz, his father-in-law, over Sunday.

Narvey Trexler, of Gold Knob, visited Miss Jennie Frick last Sunday night.

Junius Lyerly, who is clerking at Granite Quarry, was at home over Sunday.

John Peeler, who is attending school at Crescent, was at home over Sunday.

Sunday school was organized at St. Luke's last Sunday and John H. C. Peeler was elected superintendent for the ensuing year.

Charlie Lyerly, who has been working with Contractor J. D. Brown, went with Mr. Brown and others to Washington to build a house for Luther Brown.

A number of people are taking advantage of the late offer and subscribing for THE WATCHMAN. With best wishes.

LYERLY.

April 9th. We don't need to get excited, because it has quit raining and we have to go to work.

Most of the farmers planted their Irish potatoes last week. "We-enzes is gointo have something to eat."

Most of the corn crop will be planted this week, according to plans.

A. L. Lyerly, has sold his entire lot of fertilizers and will not get in any more this season.

C. A. Boger has been sick for the past week, but is convalescing.

We seem to think that if a merchant buys goods for $75 and gains $25 on same his profit is 33 1/3%. Isn't that correct, Bro. Bartlette? Now if a man sells two houses for $2400 each and on one gains 25% and on the other loses 25%, how much is his gain or loss if any?

One more to join our P. P.'s association. We think he should change his name, or our other brother, Uncle Josh, may get ashamed and quit the business. We would rather have different names for each correspondent.

Ha! Our Lyerly merchant sells more than a four-horse load to one customer. Come again Bro. Josh. Of course the Hustler is very busy, but you may expect to hear from him just the same.

C. M. Lyerly, our quarryman contemplates working for the Dunn's Mountain Granite Co. this summer. We wish him success.

Easter is coming on, so little ones you must prepare your rabbit nests and see if the rabbit comes to see you.

We are glad to see the names of so many new subscribers to the WATCHMAN. We wish to see many more. Success be to them and the editor.
