At the inspection of the Rowan Rifles last week a record of 98 out of a possible 100 was made.

The place for the annual picnic of the employees of the Southern shops at Spencer has been changed from Danville to Winston-Salem. The date May 5th, remains the same.

St. John's Lutheran church, of Cabarrus county, which was to entertain the Lutheran Synod, but had found it inconvenient to do so, has reconsidered the matter and now desires the Synod to meet with that congregation, and it has been decided to accept the invitation. The meeting will be held Wednesday, May 2nd.

Whitehead Klutz, Esq., has accepted an invitation to deliver a literary address at the commencement exercise of Lenoir College in May. Mr. Klutz is much in demand as an orator. Our people will have an opportunity to hear him quite often during the coming campaign.

Fine Corn.

J. M. Proctor was in the city Monday and had with him some samples of his extra large and prolific corn. He had four stalks from two hills, on each stalk was three large ears. Mr. Proctor is selling the seed from this corn and gives special directions for raising it.

MILLERTOWN.

April 7.

The farmers around here are kicking on every side along now.

We are informed that there will be a picnic at Bringle's ferry on Easter Monday. Every body is invited to come.

On Saturday night, March 31st, there was a candy supper given at Jos. A. Miller's. A very large crowd was present and a nice time is reported by all. Wasn't it Mat?

Munford Parker, who has a position at Granite Quarry, spent a few days at home the other week, but has now returned to work.

The Sunday School of Luther's E. L. church was re-organized on Sunday of the 1st. A very large crowd was present. Uncle Josh hopes they will continue the good work.

Mrs. Betty Kirk had a wood sawing and barn raising a few days ago.

Mrs. L. W. Miller is still improving.

Mrs. Betsy Taylor, of this community, died last Tuesday night after a long illness of dropsy. She was about 71 years of age. Mrs. Taylor leaves a number of children, grandchildren and friends to mourn her departure. She joined the Lutheran church in early life and remained a member of the same to the last. The remains were interred in Luther's E. L. church cemetery, Rev. C. R. Pless officiating. Rev. Pless preached a very touching and beautiful sermon over the remains.

C. J. Miller and C. M. Crowell attended the M. E. Conference at Concord a few weeks ago. We hope they enjoyed their trip very much.

There will be communion services held at Luther's church on the fourth Sunday of April, at eleven o'clock, and also preparatory services on Saturday before at eleven o'clock.

With best wishes to the editor and THE WATCHMAN and its readers.
