FAITH.

Mrs. W. S. Sapp, of Concord, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. P. M. Stirewalt.

Passion week services commence at the Lutheran church here Wednesday and communion on Sunday.

The revival meeting commences at the Baptist church here the fourth Sunday in April.

A young lady arrived at Mr. and Mrs. Andy Casper's Sunday. An Easter present.

Rev. R. L. Brown is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Luther Fisher to see his grand twins.

Jonas Sheppard has accepted a position with D. A. Wiley to run his cabinet-shop since Mr. Wiley was so badly crippled. George H. Sifford is the apprentice for the shop.

J. W. Gardner has returned from Henderson where he went to place a pair of granite circular steps for the graded school.

There is a wedding to report next week sure, so the young people say.

John Kuckendale, of Asheville, has set in as an apprentice to learn the granite cutting trade with Peeler, Bame & Co., who are now at work on the Phillips' mountain.

D. A. Lefler is representing the Haynie cotton chopper, a labor saving machine to chop out cotton.

C. T. Bame, J. M. Wyatt and Harvey A. Wyatt have gone to Mt. Airy to cut granite.

A copper mine is being opened on James Holschouer's farm.

Bro. correspondents how would you all like to organize a newspaper correspondents' association, with the editors of the papers we write for?

Bro. Rock, you were right about the bad road in Faith, but it has since been macadamized.

Sam Snort, you will have to hustle if you beat us on the wedding reports.

Uncle Tom, we liked your piece of poetry. Come again.

Bro. Siwel you were about right, but we were not going to tell it.

We are voting here for our young lady, Miss Mamie Peeler, and she will get there or run some one a mighty close race. Watch the votes.

The first big day here this year is the old people's old time singing at the Lutheran church. Lots of young people go to see how their forefathers sang.

Walter Burrage, of Pool, lost his dry house and about two hundred dollars worth of lumber by fire Friday evening at his saw mill. By hard work the neighbors saved the saw mill and building.

VENUS.

BILTMORE.

Hello, Uncle Jack, here I am, I have crawled out on the sunny side of my hole and am ready to have a little chat with you.

Contractor J. D. Brown and his crowd of carpenters have gone to Washington, D. C., to put up a house, barn and several other buildings for Luther Brown.

Charlie Lyrelly, of China Grove, and Miss Mary Rusher, of Faith, visited A. C. Lyrelly Saturday night.

Harvey Park visited in our town Sunday evening.

Sunday school was re-organized at St. Peter's Sunday April 1st, with A. L. Kluttz, superintendent; Rev. F. M. Harr, assistance superintendent; Harvey Park, secretary; Miss Lucy Barrier, assistant secretary; Miss Roxie Trexler, organist; Miss Alpha Frick, assistant organist; and J. A. Lyrelly treasurer.

CRAB.

DUNN'S MOUNTAIN.

We hope the pretty weather has come to stay. The farmers are all late this spring, having done very little plowing for the coming crops.

We are informed that a Jr. O. U. M. lodge is to be organized near here, at Union church, (school house.) The time set for the organization being Friday, the 18th inst. We believe with proper officers and attention this should be as good a lodge as there is in the country, although it may not be as large in membership.

Any one wishing to join this new lodge can hand their names to A. L. Lyrelly, M. A. Cauble or the undersigned and proper attention will be given it. The required number has been secured for a charter. We understand that a team from No. 18, of Salisbury, will come out to institute the council and arrange everything in good shape. This is a good move in a good cause and should meet with the support of every good citizen. [Just a word of correction. In a conversation with one of the promoters Saturday, we learned there had been only 20 names secured. The State Council requires 25, also, before institution, the charter and a quantity of necessary paraphernalia must be obtained. The matter is now being looked after by a past councilor of No. 18, of Salisbury, and when everything is in readiness announcement will be made as to the date. In the meantime let the brethren interested work for the good of the order.—Ed.]

There will be Easter services at Union E. L. church on Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, April 18-16 inst. inclusive. Friday, preparatory service; Saturday, service and council meeting; Sunday, service and missionary offering; Monday, service and a congregational meeting. Everybody invited to attend. On Monday Easter eggs will be sold, the proceeds will be used for the orphan children. This is a noble work and should meet the approval of every christian and otherwise. Anything that will tend to brighten the lives of these orphan children and make them better for this and the next world is the duty of every church member as well as those not members.

The Godman, Arey Sawmill Co. have moved their plant up near Barber's Junction, where they have purchased a large body of timber lands which, we are informed, will take 12 or 14 months to saw up.

D. Stokes Eller, who has been doing the smelting at the American Co. works, has secured a position with Capt. J. C. McCannless.

Everybody is busy plowing, preparing for corn and cotton. Wheat in this section is showing up fine.

Quite a number were disappointed at the school house last Monday night, the 2nd inst., as the show either stalled or failed to get transportation and did not carry out the programme as was billed. However, it will be tonight and we will report on same later.

The stork paid William Sink a visit and presented him with a daughter. 10 lbs net.

A few days since the Rev. N. D. Bodie paid us a visit. He had promised we were told, to stop on his way home and baptize the little daughter of Henry Barnhardt. By some means he failed to stop, and as we ate informed, he "just went flying down the road." We say again, who is the joke on? The Rev. Bodie or Mr. Barnhart?

Guess the phonograph has talked Uncle Josh to death. Report at headquarters.

The new Baptist church near here is nearing completion. The steeple is finished. This building will look very nice when it is painted. Rev. Davis will, we are informed, hold his first service in the new church the first Sunday in May, when a protracted meeting will be started.

BARTLETTE.

GOLD KNOB.

The farmers are getting busy with their work. Some few have planted corn and others are far behind.

We still have plenty of peaches not frozen and hope that we have plenty of fruit.

Miss Josie Poole, of Crescent, visited her aunt, Mrs. S. E. Kluttz, Saturday night and Sunday.

W. Mex Stoner sold a fine lot of pine lumber to E. A. Goodman & Co. The consideration being $500.

Clarence E. Phillips, of Trinity College, spent a few days at home last week.

The coo of the turtle dove, the song of the whippoorwill and the sweet notes of the martin can be heard. This indicates that spring is near, but keep your cotton seed in the box.

Rev. Amos Proctor, of Tennessee, is visiting his son, J. M. Proctor, of this place. Rev. Proctor visited here before and made many friends during his stay with us.

Wheat and oats can't be beat for the time of year. All prospects point towards a good harvest.

R. M. Nobles & Co., who have been mining for gold at this place, are stopping with P. C. J. Barger.

We could get along with less mourning for our sins if we had a few more real funerals over their remains. LEE.

TRADING FORD.

Spring has opened. Did you know it?

The farmers are busy hauling fertilizer for cotton. A great amount of the stuff will be used again this year. What if a hail storm comes this summer?

The infant child of Thos. Beck, of High Point, was interred in the Trading Ford cemetery last Friday.

The infant child of T. W. Watkins, of the Calvary neighborhood, which was buried here 10 years ago was taken up last week and removed to Calvary cemetery.

Miss Josie Cornelison, who has been visiting her uncle at Linwood for several days, returned home this week. Glad to see her again.

We are not seriously afflicted with spasmodic toothache after reading the poetic reply to our statement of recent date concerning the price of land here by our brother at Yadkin Ripples. Sorry that our brother seems to think that we are cynical and that we think the price of land is exorbitant. Possibly you are a little mistaken. Bud and have taken the wrong view of the consideration. True, no doubt you can raise lassen cane, corn, wheat, chickens, etc., as your poet says, but you see we don't have to do that. We trade on land, then buy of your produce and you see what a prosperous world we all live in. We don't deny being a bachelor and that is a good reason why we should not think land high. Golly old Bud you just ought to come down here and look around awhile, we believe you would open your eyes. We don't know what kind of land you have up there in the Yadkin Ripples valley. Perhaps it's not so valuable as the land down here along the turn pike. (Can't say about that, of course.) Now you see we bachelors have no family and no children to inherit our estates or inhabit our country, and glory be to Jerusalem we sell our land away up yonder and have got money plenty. If you want to buy some land just step down. We have got it to sell. Believing you to be a good fellow and a standby of THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN and its entire force we have let you down as lightly as one old batch could another. We remain
