

One on Bossism.

Of all the isms known to man,
There's one that takes the lead,
It has its source from those that plan,
To be a Boss indeed.

They twist about in many ways,
And keep their point in view, And spend their months, their weeks, their days,
In planning to boss you.

They would not have some means they use,
To be made known to man,
For if they did they'd surely lose,
And not be boss again.

This thing of having some big job,
And sitting in the chair,
It makes their hearts with joy to throb,
A big boss' crown to wear.

They get the place by any means,
For you they do not care,
They deal with what they call machines.

Big bosses they're not rare.
They deal out pie just as they please,
In slices large and small,
And after while you'll get your piece,
When boss sees fit to call.

You need not kick or raise a yell.
Your taxes you must pay,
He'll tell you you can go to h—l,
For he is boss today.

I'll give this pie to whom I please,
You just get out and stay,
For on this job I have a lease, I'm boss, you must obey.

I'll use your money where I please,
And you can just stand back.
My hungry efforts will not cease,
A big boss' job to track.

To give account of what I do,
Or where your money goes,
Would make my prospects look too blue,
As all the bosses know.

I know the people need a man
To fill each place of trust, Who for the public good will stand,
And all this bossism bust.

There are some men, and plenty too,
If they my job would get, They'd turn things round and find out who,
Should be the boss, you bet.

To keep these men from getting in,
I work from morn till night,
And by the use of ram and gin,
I'll still be boss all right.

The votes of some I know I'll get,
Because I give them pie, But some are men who will not let,
The people's welfare die.

The big boss sits upon the chair,
And lays the plans, and then,
The little bosses allegiance swear,
And cry aloud, amen!

And now good people warning take,
And do not cast your vote,
For men who will their promise break.

To keep the ring afloat,
UNION.

TIPPETT'S TOWN.

April 30, 1906.

Well Brothers I have crawled out on the sunny side to have a little chat with you.

We are glad to know that the farmers around Tippett's Town are through planting their corn and cotton and are ready to do business right now.

Don't forget that Cheap John hasn't gone out of the mercantile business nor is he likely to.

We had a nice rain through our section yesterday.

Guess Uncle Josh went snipe hunting and they got him to hold the sack, because we haven't heard anything from him lately.

If you want to know what is going on read THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN, don't borrow your neighbor's paper, but subscribe for it yourself and live happy, so good bye.

JOLLY UNCLE BILL.

Marriage in Lincoln County.

On Tuesday, May 1st, at the home of the bride, in Lincoln county, Miss Louise Davis Morrison, and Frank E. Lloyd, of Salisbury, were united in marriage by Rev. William H. Davis, an uncle of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd left for a visit to Northern cities. They will make Salisbury their home.

New School Building for Spencer.

Spencer, April 25.—The board of aldermen of Spencer have closed a contract for the erection of a handsome new brick graded school building to cost about $12,000, the contractor being L. R. Brickenstine, of Winston-Salem. The building is to be erected at once and to be ready for occupancy at the opening of school in September.

A contract has also been closed with Brickenstine for the construction of the entire sewer system for Spencer which is to cost approximately $18,000. The material for the system has already been shipped and work begun on the plans. The town will also make extensive street improvements this season which makes a long list of public improvements secured by Spencer within a year, for all of which bonds have been sold. A splendid water-works system has just been completed and is now in operation. Last year the town, by vote, authorized an issuance of $70,000 of bonds for the above purposes, one half of the issue having already been disposed of to the Wachovia Loan & Trust Co.—Spencer correspon-

Mr. Young Celebrates his Birthday.

Jubilee, N. C., May 5th, 1906.
Mr. Editor:

I will try to tell you about my birthday. I am 66 years old today. My children came and had a barbecue and all kinds of refreshments. If I had had this forty years ago, I would have died, I can't miss the refreshments, I have eaten too much. I have six living children, 3 dead; 22 grandchildren, 4 dead, and one great grandchild. My children are all married. Sometimes I feel lonesome-but not to day, the yard is full and the woods too. John Sowers and family are here and you bet we had a good time.
A. J. Young.
