bury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SALISBURY, N. C., JUNE 27th, 1906.

The thieving speculator always hates an unsubsidized press.

Our Desert of Sahara Main Street is now a good thing to keep off of during the hot summer days. It has a dozen sunstrokes to the block if you manage it right.

Roosevelt says there is only one man in the Republican party that can beat Bryan for President.
This is not in accord with the popularity of Ice Cold Fairbanks in the good old summer time.

No one who is honest in his convictions need ever be disturbed by some one's attempt to ostracise him. Such efforts only serve to prove that those who do such things are snobs. Everybody knows how contemptible a snob is.

Miss Pearl Jones, of Selma, who shot and killed the negro Bud Richardson, comes to the front again with her revolver.
This time she shoots at some one who attempts to enter her father's house, but she failed to hit the mark. We hope Miss Jones will not have any more trouble.

We have received another communication from a person who does not give his or her name.
There are some good news items in it which we would be glad to publish, but cannot do so as we do not know who wrote it. We would be glad if our friends would remember this, and stop sending us unsigned communications.

Chas. T. Welker, a flagman on the Southern Railway, has just been found guilty, at Greensboro, of manslaughter for causing the wreck of a train and the death of five persons. We know a very little of the points in controversy, but to us it seems about time for reckless and careless railroad employees to be taught that their responsibility does not cease with the company by which they are employed. The public is still entitled to some consideration.

If the Italians who were brought to this State to work in the vicinity of Littleton, and who are said to have resolved themselves into a band of thieves, is a sample of what the South is to get when it bids for immigrants, we had best do without foreigners for the present, at least.—Charlotte Observer.

Every posted person has known for years the general character of Italians and the sought immigrant. There is no need to expect gourd blossoms to give forth the odor of roses.

There is a very pretty story going the rounds to the effect that the South should keep silence in regard to the packing house disclosures. We agree the South should raise, pack and eat her own meat, but if she prefers to buy Chicago foods, it is no reason why she should be willing to keep quiet when unclean and impure products are handed out to her. Her money is as good as any in the country and when the fault lies with the packing houses, whether the customer is a citizen of Chicago, the Southern States, Japan, England, Germany, Siberia, New Zealand, or elsewhere, he is not only entitled to register all the kicks he may wish, but should make it his business to see that the register is gotten busy.

Another Escape From Chain Gang.

Monday morning, Jas. Carruthers, one of the brothers convicted of attempting to murder Walter Crump, and sentenced to the county roads for two years, made his escape. From the account given of his leaving, he did not overpower any of the guards, or steal the dogs, but he simply took advantage of a favorable chance and made himself scarce. It is since-ly hoped that he will be re-captured and made to serve his full term.

Dr. Kinard Accepts.

It was stated in our last issue that the congregation of St. John's Lutheran church of this city, had extended a call to Rev. M. M.
Kinard, of Knoxville, Tenn., to become pastor of the church.
Prof. R. G. Kizer, who is secretary of the church council, has received a letter from Dr. Kinard, in which that gentleman accepts the call. He states that he has some business matters on hand and cannot assume charge of the church here before September 1st.

Boy Missing.

Frank Page, of this city, is much worried over the disappearance of his son, a lad of 8 years.
He has been missing since Tuesday of last week. Mr. Page can form no conjecture as to the cause of the boy's disappearance, and he does not know whether he was persuaded to leave home, or whether he went away of his own accord.
Mr. Page would be very grateful for any information as to the boy's whereabouts. The officers are endeavoring to locate the boy.

Bitten by Mad Cat.

B. F. Weant, of Franklin township, had a disagreeable encounter Sunday night with a cat he believes had rabies. A number of cats were raising an uproar on his porch and he went out to quiet them. One of the cats jumped on him and sank her teeth in his right foot. Then she turned to the other foot and left her mark on that also. Mr. Weant got his gun and killed the animal. He went to Lexington Monday to have a mad stone applied to his wounds.

Superior Court Adjourns.

The special term of the Rowan Superior Court adjourned Friday afternoon, and Judge Justice left for his home in Rutherford. One of the most important cases which came before the court, was one in which the administrator of the estate of W. P. Thaxton sued the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for payment of a policy of $2,000. Thaxton, who was a conductor on the Southern road, was insured in the Metropolitan for $2,000. He died at his home in Spencer some months ago, and the insurance company declined to pay the amount of the policy on the ground that the deceased had committed suicide. The jury gave judgment in favor of the administrator. The case will be appealed by the company.

Is This a "Fish" Story?

Word reached here yesterday that a negro named Ed Davis was shot and killed at Danville, Va., Monday night while attempting to burglarize a residence there.
Another negro, Monroe Richardson, was with the one who was killed, and he is now under arrest.
The latter states that the Ed Davis, who was killed, is the man who murdered Conductor Wiggins Richardson claims that he was on the car when the shooting occurred, and that he remained in his seat after the fatal shot was fired. This story may or may not be true, but unless it is strongly corroborated, it is not probable that the officers of this and adjoining states will cease their efforts to locate Davis, for awhile at least. The story has rather a fishy flavor.

DEATHS.

CARTER, Robert F., a resident of Franklin township, died at the home of his brother, Lawson Carter, six miles south of Concord, Sunday morning. Mr. Carter was in Salisbury Saturday, and left for Concord on the evening train in answer to a letter from his brother telling of his illness. It seems the letter was delayed in some way and when Mr. Carter arrived he found that his brother was dead and had been buried for several days. Sunday morning Mr. Carter attended church, returned to the house, sat down in a chair and died, the effect of heart disease, it is supposed. Mr.
Carter served throughout the war and was a brave soldier. He was wounded and was kept in hospital at Richmond for some time. He never fully recovered and has since been a cripple. The death of his wife about six months ago was a great shock to him and he seemed to lose interest in the affairs of this world since, as no children blessed his home. He owns a farm in Franklin township where he made his home. Mr.
Carter was about 67 years of age.
His remains were brought to Salisbury and conveyed from here to Franklin where the interment took place. The deceased was a member of the First Methodist church, of this city, and the funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. C. Rowe.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilhelm died last Friday night. The funeral was held at the residence Saturday morning. The remains were taken to the country for interment.

Rev. David Brown, a pioneer preacher of the Methodist church in North Carolina, died last Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Williamson, of Enochville.
Mr. Brown spent a great portion of his life working among the people of Rowan county. The old veteran was in his 92nd year.
The interment was at the Edwards' burying ground.

New Advertisements.

Burt's Boston Specialty Co., has a big sale on and it will pay you, if in need of shoes, to give him a call.

Dave Oestreicher is now in Europe, but his business is in good hands and the bargains being offered are about as good as can be found anywhere.

The Nicholas Grocery Co., is selling out at and below cost.
Now is a good opportunity to get things at your own price.

Gorman & Green, the jewelers, are giving you something about facts that may be of interest to you. Read their ad.

Attention is called to the Notice of execution in this paper in the case of News Publishing Co. vs.
C. C. Somerville.

The Globe Department Store, the people who do things and sell goods, have an interesting ad in today's paper. See it.

FAITH.

The nine-months-old daughter of C. C. Wyatt died Tuesday morning. Mr. Wyatt's wife died a few months ago.

A young lady at Mr. and Mrs.
Monroe Fesperman's.

A young granite cutter at Mr. and Mrs. Will Stirewalt's.

On the night of the Fourth of July the Junior Order at Crescent will have speaking, by well known speakers. There will be fireworks. Everything is free and a big time is expected.

VENUS.

To Move Office to Salisbury.

An effort is being made by citizens here to have the office of the revenue collector for this district, moved to Salisbury. The office was located here when the late Hon. Kerr Craigs held the office of collector. Salisbury being the principal point in the district and the center of the business done, it is the opinion that this city is the most suitable place for the headquarters of the collector.

Cow Causes Excitement.

A frightened cow caused considerable excitement on Innis street Thursday. The animal, with several others, had been brought to town and sold to a butcher.
While the bunch was standing on the street, this particular cow became frightened at the conduct of some boys, went wild at once, chased around over town for awhile, scaring women and children almost out of their senses, when she was finally corralled on a lot in the rear of the telephone exchange and shot by Chief Miller.

James Workman, who was painfully injured at the Spence shops last week, is able to be out.
