Their business record is clean, pure and healthy and every person who has patronized them is a friend. Their instruments are artistic in every sense of the word and are recognized as one of the world's standard pianos. It is the only artistic piano sold direct.

A Brutal Deed.

A deed which calls for the most severe punishment the law can inflict, was committed on Council street Saturday night. Miss Sadie Jenkins, her little sister, together with an escort were walking on Council street near Lee, when suddenly Miss Jenkins was struck over the right eye with a pair of brass knuckles, and a painful wound inflicted. Earnest Mooney, of Lineolnton, who is a lineman for the Bell Telephone Company, was placed under arrest, he having been charged with the deed. Mooney denied being guilty, but placed the blame on another lineman named Joe Graham, who was arrested later. Mooney stated that he and Graham were both drunk and were striking at each other as they walked along the street, but he did not know that either of them had struck Miss Jenkins. Graham gave bond for his appearance at the next term of the Superior court, and was released.

Yesterday the case was tried in the Mayor's court. There was no direct evidence to show that either Graham or Mooney struck Miss Jenkins, but things were somewhat reversed, as the case against Graham was dismissed, while Mooney was bound over to the Superior court in the sum of $50. Mooney's father made the bond.

Lowenthal being held for the Superior Court in the sum of $50 each, both men putting up cost bonds. These two men and George Fink have been interested in a business venture. Josephy was accused by Fink of appropriating some of the firm's cash, to which he had no title. Monday afternoon there was an alteration in the store which resulted in Mr. Fink being assaulted by the two others. According to the evidence Mr. Fink was beaten with a bill, stones, fists and also a knife is said to have played a part in the assault. The business relations between Lowenthal and Fink are alleged to have been severed some time before the fight took place. Both defendants are strangers here.

Mr. Rogers, who was the front brakeman was instantly killed. He hung suspended in the wreck for some time before the wreck could be cleaned and his body reached.

The negro Mitchell, who is also in jail at Charlotte, adheres to his story that Dillingham did confess to him as he stated. Court will meet next Monday and then the whole matter will be well sifted.

Don't Agree With "Saw."

Editor WATCHMAN: We notice in a recent issue of your paper that the mail by the rural carrier is from 9 to 80 hours later than the star routes. We fail to see the point, as the mail by the star route always reached Rock office at 4 p. m., whereas it now arrives about 1:30 p. m., each day. Your correspondent, "Saw," must have lost his bearings. Hope he will soon get right and rejoice with the rest of us. CRITIC.

An Unpleasant Plight.

Winston papers tell of a narrow escape of two Salisbury young men, a few days ago. Walter Crump and Julian McKenzie were driving through the country near Winston. In trying to cross a stream that was very high, they were washed away by the flood and came very near being drowned. Mr. McKenzie was unable to swim, but was fortunate enough to grab the limb of a tree, and climbing up to a safe place he made it his resting place for the night. Mr. Crump managed to swim ashore and went to a nearby residence for help. The people gathered at the creek and soon rescued Mr. McKenzie from his uncomfortable position in the tree. The young men will not care to have this experience repeated.

CHEW Grape TOBACCO

"THIS IS A HORSE"

ONCE there was a small boy who wrote "This is a Horse" after trying for hours to draw a copy on his slate of a thoroughbred racer. He admired the horse, wanted it, but had neither the ability nor the experience to get him. He therefore tried to draw one. When his labors were complete, he looked first at the genuine article, then at the miserable imitation, and after long, deep study wrote THIS IS A HORSE, realizing his failure and inability to reproduce the genuine, and he knew without "This is a Horse" written below, no one would recognize what he had tried to make. Would-be competitors have tried for years to imitate Grape Tobacco. They make blue k plus of similar size, but of less weight, and put in it all sorts of various concoctions, mixtures and kinds of Tobacco, but all failed (to get the business) and finally hit upon the small boy's plan, and printed on the tag "SOMEBODY'S SUN CURED." They all advertise and tell you that SOMEBODY'S SUN CURED tag is valuable. Of course it is (it cost about 10 cents per thousand) but how about the miserable imitation of Grape Tobacco the tag is on? Somebody's Sun Cured tag no more makes good Tobacco than does THIS IS A HORSE makes a valuable genuine horse. MORAL: CHEW GRAPE TOBACCO—MADE IN RICHMOND
