LYERLY.

September 17th.
The weather has made quite a change, looks very much like it may give us a snow.

M. A. Goodman has been very sick, but is much better.

Mrs. C. L. Walton is not yet able to be out. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Our merchant, A. L. Lyerly, has received his car of fertilizer at last.

H. P. Lyerly will move to Granite Quarry in the near future. We regret to see him go, but wish him much success in his undertakings.

Some of our boys have quit working for the Southern R. R. Co., at Spencer. Don't know why they give them the goodbye. Boys you shouldn't leave a place where there is plenty of work to do. They will make a man of you, but remember it takes a "man" too.

A big time is expected at the Jr. O. U. A. M., here next Saturday night. Several lectures will be made and ice cold lemonade will be served. Good.

A. L. Lyerly has sold the first bale of new cotton in this neighborhood this year. He is a sooner.

Cicero Earnhart, lost a horse last week, a very nice and valuable animal.

Quite a lot of visiting last Sunday evening more than we have space to give.

An error to correct, we are informed by the committeemen of this district, that they have not yet employed any teachers for Union Academy. Trust no one has been offended or misrepresented.

Misses Ellen and Mary Barringer will teach school at Ellis school house this winter, above Salisbury. We wish them much success.

A. M. Eller has purchased the store house and entire stock of merchandise from G. W. Bringle, also the track of land and dwelling house. Mr. Eller is a young man and will continue the business. May he have a great success.

Our young people are still attending the series of meetings at Dunn's Mountain now. Probably they will turn a new leaf and all to the good, if not it's getting time.

Wild grapes are getting ripe now. Now for the o'possum he will grin, but when the dogs begin to talk, the o'possum takes a walk.

Jno. H. Barringer and Charlie J. H. Lyerly, visited at S. A. Earnhardt's last Sunday evening.

H. P. Lyerly sold his horse last week. Good bye old farm.

A very large congregation was present last Sunday at Union. Rev. Bodie preached a very excellent sermon.

The series of meetings will begin at St. Matthew's next Monday night. Rev. Bodie will conduct the same till Wednesday, after which Rev. Strichler, will take charge of the meeting.

We will stop for this time, but if we had a dollar, we would give it for the WATCHMAN, but as we have one cent we will have to go to the bank for change. Yours,
THE HUSTLER.

Notice to Advertisers.
Changes of advertisements, to receive proper attention, should be received at the office on Monday. This is very important and we hope our friends will observe it as near as possible

FAITH.

The series of meetings will convene at the Baptist church here the first Sunday in October at 8 p. m.

The big road between Faith and Salisbury ought to be worked by the county force and the road overseer ought to be instructed to take his force and work the bad places. We saw a buggy in a mudhole, broken down at the Jim Richey hill, when we were all coming from the speaking Monday night.

Peeler Bame & Co., loaded a car with nothing but window sills today.

There is seven derricks at the Faith loading place and there is a car at every derrick being loaded today with street curbing, etc., by the different people who deal in granite, they are Faith Granite Co., Peeler Bame & Co., M. G. M. Fisher & Co., J. T. Artz, J. T. Wyatt, D. A. Hodge, M. L. Parker, E. A. Brown & Co., Henry Barger & Co., B. A. Fesperman & Co., J. D. A. Fisher & Co., Archie Klutz & Co., G. W. Gardner & Co., William Laffer & Co., Balfour Quarry Co., and T. E. Sharpe. All these men and companies are as busy as they can be nearly all the time with their men, and all together would make a little army.

Mrs. Swain is down with malarial fever.

Will McCombs is confined to his bed by sickness this week.

A young farmer at Mr. Charlie Earnhardt's.

A young lady at John Wilkerson's.

Several people were out from Salisbury Tuesday night to enjoy the ice cream and refreshments and assist in initiating some new members in the hall of the Daughters of Liberty. The order is growing very fast and will soon be the largest one in the country.

We are invited to a big o'possum dinner at Tom Hess'. He caught a big one Saturday night.

Several members of the Daughters of Liberty visited the lodge at Concord Saturday night and report a fine time.

VENUS.

Ladies, read this catalogue of charms. Bright eyes, glowing cheeks, red lips, a smooth skin without a blemish, in short, perfect health. For sale with every package Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents. T. W. Grimes Drug Co.

Sothorn Still Living.

Watt O. Sothorn, the young white man who was reported to have been found dead near Reidsville Monday with a bullet in his baain, is alive and in Danville. He was shocked when he read the story of his suicide and cannot account for how it got out. Sothorn left his home in Greensboro Sunday on account of some trouble with his wife and came to Danville. He did not tell his wife where he was going.

While here Sothorn has been employed as a carpenter, but at present is confined to his bed as the result of a fall sustained Monday. He knows nothing of the dead man and cannot explain how it happened that he came in possession of his letters.—Danville, Va., special to Observer.

It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by James Plummer, Salisbury, N. C., and Spencer Pharmacy, Spencer, N. C.

YADKIN VALLEY RIPPLES.

September 17.

We have had comparatively good weather for saving feed since the first of the month.

Lane Bros. and Monger have completed two concrete abutments one on each side of the river for the railroad bridge. They are now making coffer dams out in the river. Capt. Monger hopes to finish the masonry work by the last of the year.

J. T. Yarbrough thinks that he can corner the sweet potato market this winter.

Miss Gladys Hackett has returned from a month's sojourn at Mill Bridge.

Miss Annie Fitt from Glasgow, Va., is visiting the Hackett settlement.

The family of R. R. Lockart, our chief farmer, has returned from an extended visit to Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee.

During the thunder storm of Thursday evening the lightning played queer pranks with the pump house telephone. It injured it in such a manner that it will not work only one way and the night pumper is grieving himself to death because he cannot ring central at unearthly hours between midnight and daylight to see the moon rise. One night he unavailingly rang a cow bell in front of the transmitter for a half an hour. The neighborhood songsters are now singing, "cow bells faintly tinkling in the pump house instead of on the lea."

The night hawk is a queer genius, any way he attended his first political primary last spring and pronounced it a cross between a Mexican Fandango and an Indian war dance. Bill Nye was probably not far wrong when he said that the county was healthy on account of the ozone and unrestricted influence of the ballot. Honest Indian what we need is an Australian system of voting. Shut the voters one at a time in a tent to make out their ticket, and imprison, no matter how prominent, whoever undertakes to peek in and offer advice.

UNCLE TOM.

Three Years For Kincaid.

The attorneys in the Kincaid murder case agreed last night that John Y. Kincaid be convicted of manslaughter and that, without further trial, his sentence be heard. Soon after court opened this morning, Judge Peebles gave his decision, Kincaid goes to the penitentiary for three years. Kincaid was charged with killing Will Brown at Bessemer City August 1st.

The prosecution was dissatisfied with the verdict, but of course could not make an appeal. The father of Will Brown, who is here from Spartanburg, thinks the sentence was entirely too light. He says that his boy was not as mean as the people here believe. He denies the report that his son was married four or five times.

It was thought yesterday that this case would continue through the remainder of the week and the jury was discharged. Consequently, when the case was settled this morning, the court had nothing to do for the remainder of the week.

Welcome to the Pastor.

Rev. M. M. Kinard and family were tendered a formal welcome Friday night by the congregation of St. John's Lutheran church. The visit of the members of the church was a pleasing surprise to Dr. Kinard. He made a brief, but warm address in which he pledged his best efforts in behalf of the congregation.
