DUNN'S MOUNTAIN CITY.

Sept. 21st, 1906.
Owing to the great dissatisfaction among the inhabitants of our flourishing community, they have decided to rearrange the name of this place. It shall hereafter, until further notice at least, be known as Dunn's Mountain City, and if nothing unusually disastrous occurs we shall endeavor to live up to all the name implies. This city is situated on the Stoke's Ferry road, about 2 1/2 miles from Salisbury, just West of Dunn's Mountain. It is well located, and as healthy as any community in the State. There is no sickness here now and we seldom have to call a physician.

Rev. W. R. Davis, assisted by Rev. Summy, has been holding a series of meetings at the Baptist church here for the last ten days. The meetings have been well attended and two members, Misses Mammie and Jonas Dry, were added to the church. They were baptised at the close of the meeting on the 20th instant, in a new pool near by.

The farmers of our community have about finished cutting tops and making fodder and are now engaged sowing oats, making hay and preparing to pick cotton. The cotton is rapidly opening and will make about 50 per cent of a full crop.

The weather is still with us. We have hoped for a change, but it still rains occasionally.

T. J. Loflin has been assisting Geo. W. Miller to erect a barn on the Henry Peeler place. Mr. Miller recently purchased this farm and will make his home on it.

Geo. W. Miller has just been appointed road overseer for our section of the road. Mr. Miller is proud of his position and will no doubt see that the road is kept in a first-class condition.

There is considerable building going on in our community. Several parties are waiting to get lumber to build with. A new school house will be erected and is to be completed by the first of the year. W. S. Earnhardt, of Faith, has the contract.

D. C. Trexler is still busy holding down his job over at the Rowan Granite Quarry, and R. C. Ellum has made a change, he is now with the Markley & McCanness quarry.

L. A. Trexler has rented the old Hartman place and is now getting in his winter oats.

James Dry our merchant and farmer has decided to make a change on November 15th. He will then give all of his time to his farm and T. J. Loflin will take charge of the store.

What has become of Bartlett? We hear he has gone to Spence to work and we wish him well, but regret to lose him.

This being an election year, and hoping to see only good men put in public office, we ask that all of a similar desire go to the polls on election day and cast their vote for the best men, according to your judgment, regardless of former political affiliations. This is the only hope of making our government a truly good one, for and by the people.

Torture by Savages.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the Kidneys," says W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Blood disorders and Malaria, and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

MISENHEIMER.

We are all glad to see cool weather come, it seems to help them that are in bed with typhoid fever. We have several cases of typhoid fever in our community at present.

Homer Wagoner, son of W. A. Wagoner, who has been down in bed with typhoid fever for about two weeks, has taken slight hemorrhages. Dr. Allen, of New London, was called in at once and his hemorrhages are being checked.

David Fraley and wife visited kinfolks last week at Trading Ford.

Chas. W. Wagoner's little girl two years old, is laying low with typhoid fever. Hope she will recover.

Our best carpenter, G. W. Culp, is building a new house for David Casper, of Richfield.

Farmers of our community are preparing to sow oats, and are making tops, fodder, etc.

Stanly Boy visited the Whitney works last week and everything seems to be pretty lively. Bro. Sam Snort, we would all like to see you and Mrs. Sam Snort. Come down some Saturday and pay us a visit.

STANLY BOY.

FAITH.

Mrs. F. A. Bolich, of Salisbury, is visiting her parents this week.

A young doctor at Doctor Goodman's.

A young blacksmith at John Rinehardt's.

G. W. Gardner is hauling granite to the James Ritchie hill, to be used to make the road good, it needs work bad.

Peeler-Bame and Co., got the contract for the building stones for the new school house building at Mooresville, N. C., and are at work on it.

J. D. A. Fisher, Esq., is having a solid granite foundation built under his residence.

A great many cows in this section have sore mouths and sore feet. To cure them, put them in a clean, dry stable at night with a box of salt and a bucket of fresh water. Put in their cut feed, two spoonfulls of sugar, one of cattle powders and rub sweet or castor oil on their feet to kill the poison. Do this five days and your cow will get all right.

J. T. Wyatt received the contract to furnish the granite under the big tank going up in High Point, N. C.

Rev. J. M. L. Lyerly will preach a special sermon at the Reformed church in Faith the fifth Sunday in September, to the Odd Fellows of Granite Quarry, who will attend in a body. It is free for every one and a large crowd is expected. Preaching to commence at 11 o'clock a. m.

VENUS.

Who Remembers Him?

We have just received the following communication which is self explanatory and interesting:
Deport, Texas,
Sept. 17th, '06.

CAROLINA WATCHMAN,
Salisbury, N. C.
Dear sir:

Please send me a sample copy of your paper. Salisbury is my native home, but have been in Texas since 1852, and have never seen the good old state of North Carolina since.

May give you a short letter from Texas soon.
Please send the paper and oblige.

Capt. Fisher's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Captain J. A. Fisher was held at the Grace Lutheran church, last Wednesday afternoon, and among the friends of the deceased present were a number from Salisbury. Rev. H. A. Trexler spoke very feelingly and tenderly of the deceased, and said among other things: "Capt. Fisher was a truly great and noble Christian man. In many ways he was an extraordinary man. He is generally regarded as the father and founder of Grace E. L. church, and up to the time of his death was one among the best supporters of Grace church. His love, devotion and faithfulness to his church never waxed less but became greater as the years passed by. He has erected for himself a monument more lasting and more imperishable than monuments of stone. His influence for good will continue to go on until years shall cease to move."

Former Salisburyman Loses His Mind.

A special from San Diego, Cal., to the Charlotte Observer, of recent date, says: "J. B. Myrick, a citizen of Salisbury, N. C., was arrested last night in Los Angeles by officers, on a charge of insanity. Myrick was found wandering about the streets acting in a peculiar way. His identity was disclosed by letters found upon him, showing his home to be in Salisbury. His relatives were at once notified. He declared to the officers that he had left Los Angeles and denied being there still. This proved him insane at once. He came here five weeks ago to enter into business. He is held, pending an examination and information from his relatives."

Returned to Salisbury.

Dr. L. J. Meroney has returned to Salisbury for the purpose of making his home here. He expects to undertake the management of Meroney's theater, which is the property of his sister, Miss Lena Meroney, and himself. Dr. Meroney has given up the practice of dentistry. Miss Meroney will be in Salisbury shortly.

Public Hospital for Salisbury.

The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens to be held at the opera house tomorrow night. The object of the meeting is to discuss the establishment of a public hospital. A citizen whose name has not been made public, has already made a donation to a fund for the purpose in view.

Dined Major Hale.

Major E. J. Hale, editor of the Fayetteville Observer, and a citizen of prominence in the State, and his wife, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Overman. Thursday night Mr. Overman gave a dinner in honor of Major Hale at which several prominent citizens of Salisbury were present, Major and Mrs. Hale returned to Fayetteville Friday morning.

Negro Horribly Burned.

Tom Johnson, colored, an employe of the Southern Railway Company at this place, was seriously burned here this afternoon by falling into a pool of nitric acid. Johnson dropped a water bucket on a jar containing a quantity of the acid which was broken and the fluid ran around his feet burning them slightly. In his efforts to escape danger from the acid Johnson fell bodily into the fiery fluid, cutting his arm on the glass and sustaining frightful burns from the same. The flesh on one arm was almost burned from the bone before help could be rendered. The injured man was treated by Dr. J. W. Younghere, after which he was sent to a sanitarium in Salisbury.—Spencer, N. C., special to Charlotte Observer.

B. V. Hedrick, of Gold Hill, lost a valuable horse last week from an attack of colic.

A City of Law-Breakers.

Chicago is a city of law-breakers. When the 2,000,000 people of the town collide with the 2,499 sections of the municipal code, it is the code that gives way. Chicago people are not wicked, but they take a contemptuous whack at the statutes and ordinances.

It is estimated that Chicago's 2,000,000 citizens violate the law 92,000,000 times a day. Everybody breaks the law some time. Most people break it every day, and not a few reputable citizens manage to criminally violate the code hundreds of times daily and yet keep out of the clutches of the police. It is not merely the water waste law, the garbage removal law, the tax law, or the dog license law, all of which were made to be broken, and are ignored or violated by the flower of the town, but there are hundreds of other laws broken, bent and twisted in every conceivable way.—Chicago Tribune.

His Conscience Troubled Him.

Troubled in conscience for 19 intervening years because he ran away with $200 belonging to John Brockett, a farmer, of Montowas, Conn., a former farm hand returned several days ago and paid the money.

Mr. Brockett says that while seated in his yard a few days ago, a stranger came in and introduced himself, offered the money relating the circumstances of the theft, adding that after many hard experiences he had drifted westward. In Chicago he came under the influence of the Salvation Army and through that organization secured employment with a big dry goods firm. He rose step by step to become a department manager, but was always troubled by his past. On his vacation this summer he determined to find Mr. Brockett and repay the money to him personally.—New Haven, Conn., dispatch.

Quality Did It!

The fact that SCHNAPPS is so widely imitated only proves that it is the best chew—the standard flat plug. Other plugs are made to imitate the size and shape and color of SCHNAPPS—other tags are made to look like SCHNAPPS tags—yet there are more pounds of SCHNAPPS chewed annually than all other similar tobaccos.

Schnapps

SCHNAPPS is made of only choice selections of well matured, thoroughly cured leaf, and in factories as clean as the cleanest kitchen, situated in the very heart of the greatest chewing tobacco growing country, by men of life-long experience in tobacco manufacturing, and who have directed the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company since 1875. SCHNAPPS has the pleasing, appetizing aroma which created and popularized the fondness for chewing. Expert tests prove that it requires and takes a smaller amount of sweetening than any other kind—and has a wholesome, stimulating and satisfying effect on chewers. Internal revenue statistics show that SCHNAPPS and other of the Reynolds brands won enough chewers in one fiscal year to make a net gain of six and a quarter million pounds, or one-third of the entire increased consumption in the United States on chewing and smoking tobacco. Be sure the letters on the tag and under the tag spell S-C-H-N-A-P-P-S, and you will have the genuine.
