Last Wednesday night a meeting was held in the opera house for the purpose of obtaining an expression of opinion, from the citizens of Salisbury, as to where they desire the government building to be located. G. D. Ellsworth, of the Treasury Department, was here, and it was partly his suggestion that this meeting was held. L. Ed. Heilig presided as chairman of the meeting. Mr. Ellsworth made a brief address on the matter of the building, the site, etc., and requested the citizens to give their views as to the most suitable site offered.

John Curd Killed.

John H. Curd, of this city, and a fireman on the Southern, was killed at Charlotte last Saturday afternoon. When Curd's train reached Charlotte he went to the pilot to set the green lights on either side. The engine, it is said, had no front rod or step, and Curd stepped off on the track. The engine was moving, and it and several cars ran over him. As soon as the train could be stopped the conductor went to his assistance, and he was taken to the hospital. He died two hours afterwards. The remains were brought to Salisbury and taken to the home of the deceased on West Horah street. After Grant Creek.

At a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners Monday, a committee was appointed to examine Grant creek and to select a place at which a canal shall be dug, for the purpose of drainage. The physicians of the city have recommended this work, as in their opinion much of the malaria here and at Spencer, is due to the poisons arising from the creek and from the stagnant pools near it. The committee consists of County Surveyor Miller, J. M. Maupin, A. W. Winecoff and D. J. Gaskill, and they will decide upon all matters connected with the work.

GRIMES SAYS:

SALISBURY, N. C., September 30th, 1906.

DEAR FRIENDS:

Two and one-half years ago we commenced business in Salisbury. In that time our business has increased almost four-fold and we cannot pass by this date without thanking you for the share you have taken in contributing to our success. We want to assure you that your confidence and patronage given us have not been misplaced. We are strictly an independent drug store and we ask for your trade on no other grounds than that we give you good goods, good service and good value. We buy the best goods we can get, purest drugs and medicines and dependable toilet articles and sick room supplies. We sell these to you at prices that afford us a just profit and enable you to see that you are getting your money's worth. We believe heartily in the "Square deal" doctrine and base all our transactions on this policy.

We always keep uppermost in mind that the liues of the globe's residents are often placed in our care when we are asked to fill prescriptions. Consequently our store is never left in charge of an incompetent man who cannot be depended upon to compound difficult prescriptions accurately. We do a larger prescription business than any other store in Salisbury, a fact that certainly attests our professional ability.

We respectfully solicit your patronage for the coming year and we know we can give you a larger measure of good honest drugs and drug-store service than any other store in Salisbury. We depend for our future success on your good will and patronage. Hence we are going to exert every effort to satisfy you. May we see you frequently?

Yours very truly,

GRIMES,
The Druggist,
126 North Main Street,
SALISBURY, N. C.
