GOLD KNOB.

The farmers are busy with their farm work, picking cotton sowing oats, etc. Cotton will not make half a crop, corn will not do as much.

Mrs. Eva Trexler fell off her piazza and broke one of her legs near the ankle. This was a painful accident, and old age may cause her to be confined for a long time.

Mrs. G. W. Park is very sick at her home.

There will be a children's day and harvest home service at St. Peter's church, on Saturday, October 27th. An interesting programme is being arranged. Remember the date. A good time is expected.

Bro. Snort, allow us to congratulate you.

Mrs. Andrew Barger is very low at her home; paralysis is thought to be the cause.

Thos. Broadway has moved his family on Cam Morgain's place, near here.

And again it seems that our R. F. Route No. 6 from Salisbury, is subject to change. We hope this is only gossip; surely our route will not be changed any more. If the proposed changes are made 14 families will be deprived of their mail, unless they make a change in boxes. Some will probably move to Gold Hill, Route 1. Now if we are going to have free delivery mail, let's have it. If the route was established for the convenience of the people let it remain where it is. Give us free delivery or give us the old star route and a postoffice to get our mail. There is some talk of circulating a petition to down this route and to petition for the old star route.

We notice in the Salisbury Post that Hon. A. L. Lingle has tendered his resignation as a service done the Republican party, his resignation to take effect at once. Sure, your resignation is accepted as heartily as you tendered it. You resigned to the wrong parties if you didn't want it accepted. We have already felt the effects of your resignation. The heavens seem to weep so that we can't make hay or pick cotton. The sun seems to be on his southward journey and the moon was first seen to shine in the west last week. All this is a token of your departure. The Republican party has been much strengthened and we rejoice with the masses. We don't blame you, Bro. Lingle, if Spencer Blackburn promised you an office and then wouldn't give it to you, don't you vote for him, try somebody else. You better get Hackett to put it in writing. Be not deceived. Be sure you are right, then go ahead. We bid you farewell. May Hackett take you and keep you. May Hackett make his money to shine on you and be loyal to you. May Hackett lift up his eyes on you and give you an office; amen.

Jewish Festival.

The greatest of the Jewish festivals, the day of atonement, began at sunset last Friday and continued until sunset on the following evening. Religious services were held all day in the Elk's Hall, and they were attended by the Jewish families of the cities. During the holiday the business places of the Jewish merchants were closed.

LYERLY.

October 1st.

This seems to be the busiest season of the year, especially with the farmers.

The good old summer time has just about passed, and the healthful season is coming on.

J. C. Goodman contemplates going to Florida, October 5th. We do not know why, but probably to make it his future home. We will regret to see him leave.

There will be several lectures at the Jr. O. U. A. M., meeting next Saturday night. Every member should be present. Ice cold lemonade will be served.

M. A. Goodman and family visited at A. L. Lyerly's last Sunday night. Come again, welcome.

Our farmers are not near through making their meadow hay yet. It seems very late to make hay in October. So much rain has done the work for them.

Geo. F. Blackwell, is quite sick. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Many of Union's congregation attended services at St. Matthew's last Sunday.

Some will laugh and some will scorn, some will get married, if they have a chance to run.

We hope to report a wedding some of these sweet days. We will be pleased to know who, when they join hands.

G. L. Lyerly and family visited S. A. Earnhart's last Sunday evening.

Pleasant Wise, of Chestnut Hill, visited in the neighborhood last Sunday. Some good prospects. Look out ladies.

A change in the weather today. What, the North pole getting closer? If it continues, we will need some shoes by next spring.

Lewis D. Earnhart and family, of Spencer, visited their parents last Sunday. We all love to get out in the county breeze.

There is much cotton to pick yet. It seems as if the price don't encourage the farmers.

By all accounts, the indications for a cold winter are very good.

It seems as if our mill has run empty, so the Hustler will crawl off for this time, but hope to appear again in the near future.

THE HUSTLER.

TRADING FORD.

And still it rains.

The health of the community is some better, but there is still sickness.

Mrs. M. A. Cornelson, who has been sick for quite a while, is yet in a serious condition.

A little boy of Frank Edwards, who lives near Spencer, died, and was buried at Trading Ford cemetery last Friday.

Venus, how are weddings coming on in your town? It seems that the young people wedding struck around here of late. We expect another one soon.

We are glad to hear from Stanley Boy and to read the news from Stanley county. That's right bud, give us the news every week.

Our town is in a hustle now; going to pea pickings nearly every night.

We agree with Venus as to his birthday presents among the correspondents of THE WATCHMAN, but we do not agree to any one else joining our society. Now suppose a hundred or more would join our order, it would take all our time and money sending out presents, therefore we oppose any outside THE WATCHMAN force. Let us hear from others on this subject.

SALEM ACADEMY.

We are glad to see cool weather has come. It seems to be a great comfort for the sick, but we are glad to see all the sick are better.

We have no fever in this community at present.

P. S. Klutz has rolled back his old house to give place for a new, two-story house which he will erect in a few weeks.

Farmers in our community are preparing to sow oats and wheat.

Cotton picking is in order. New cotton will be about one-third short in this section.

Our fall communion will be at Salem on the second Sunday in October, at 11 o'clock. Preparatory services Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m.

H. A. Trexler has a peach tree that bears gourds. The bloom is a peach bloom but the fruit is gourds in shape.

The ex-postmaster at Manning has a fine patch of pumpkins.

Salem church will soon have a new tower and a bell in it.

The old Burkhead place has been divided into two shares between Mrs. Meroney, of Davie county and Mrs. Davidson, of Rowan.

Well, I guess the county candidates will soon be on the stump looking for a warm place.

P. S. Klutz sold three bales of cotton some weeks ago. He has seven more to pick out.

SNIFE.

FAITH.

Rev. J. A. J. Farrington, of Salisbury, preached a fine sermon to the members of Stone Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 278, at the Reformed church here Sunday. A large number of people were present. About 40 or 50 members came over from Granite Quarry and much was done for the good of the order.

The following young people are off for Mt. Pleasant College: Ivey Hoffner, Myron Fisher, Joseph Ritchie, Arthur Ritchie, Edgar and Robert Agner.

Miss Pearl Lingle has returned home from Salisbury to live with her parents, and she will, with her sister, Miss Ida, run a millinery store. Their dress goods have already arrived. The ladies' hats are on the way.

Andy Casper is visiting Allie Seaford.

Miss Jennie Lewis, of Salisbury, has come to Faith to make her home with her sister, Milton Hoffner.

At Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barger's, a young granite cutter.

At Mr. and Mrs. Lawson McComb's, a young house-keeper.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilhelm were thrown from a wagon of hay. Mr. Wilhelm broke his arm and Mrs. Wilhelm's ankle was broken. The doctor replaced them and they are getting along all right.

Mrs. Shive is visiting her daughter Mrs. Baxter McCombs.

C. A. Peeler, of the Globe store, has returned from the north with his new stock of goods.

The postoffice address and the date of the birthday of all the members was mailed last week to the members of the birthday association. We hope it will be a great success, and that every one will be pleased with what they receive.

D. A. Hodges little boy (the youngest child) died Monday morning.

ST. PAUL PICK-UPS.

G. A. Goodman bought a colt from Bill Cline the other week.

I heard John Shuping say that he was going to cut wheat on the first day of October.

We have had a lot of sickness in our community and plenty of rain.

The people are getting ready to sow wheat and gather their corn.

Allen Heilig wants to get a reuter on his farm next year.

They are making molasses at the molasses factory.

The Cleanest Chew Made!

Schnapps

If you could see how SCHNAPPS is made and sniff the delightful appetizing aroma of the thoroughly cured, well-made which it is cover the reat-tured tobacco of made, you would dis-sons for the big difference between SCHNAPPS and its imitators. SCHNAPPS is clean! The Reynolds factories are as clean as the cleanest kitchen—the tobacco in manufacture is scarcely touched by human hands—with special machinery to cleanse the leaf and produce clean chewing tobacco. When such scrupulous care is taken with the choicest selections of tobacco from America's finest chewing tobacco districts, can you wonder that SCHNAPPS is so satisfying, so pure, so appetizing and wholesome—so different from chews that pretend to be as good? Expert tests prove that this superior tobacco requires and takes a smaller amount of sweetening than any other kind—and has a wholesome, stimulating and satisfying effect on chewers. Be sure the letters on the tag and under the tag spell S-c-h-n-a-p-p-s. The Reynolds Company is under the direction of the same men who have managed it since 1875, and who have made the chewing tobacco business a life-study. There are plenty of plugs that look like Schnapps, without the same satisfying chewing qualities.
