FAITH.

Lots of corn shucking is going on now. L. M. and J. P. Peeler had their shucking Friday night. A big crowd was there and they had a fine supper. There was also a big crowd of "Johns" there who had a reunion, and counted up 12, as follows: Lingle, Wyatt, McNairy, Peeler, Taylor, Arey, Waller, Rainey, Holler, Miller, Ludwig, Peeler and Nance. One shuck had three ears of corn in it and was given to Venus as a curiosity.

Rev. R. L. Brown is visiting this week at P. A. Peeler's.

Lewis Ward's big o'possum will be killed Saturday. We are invited.

We went to Pool's sale Friday and bought all the curiosities we could get. Among them were an old-time flail and two wooden pitchforks.

To the members of the association: Venus' birthday comes October 31st, two others have already and we sent our presents on by mail. There are only eight members and the rules will interest them all. If you only get a little brass monkey tell it or keep it a secret, just as you please.

Adolphus Gant offers to give a one-acre lot to any person or company who will put up a building on it and run some kind of an industry. Here is a good chance for some one. The people will build up the town by offering inducements to all kinds of enterprises.

Mrs. David Peeler had a slight stroke of paralysis Friday evening and was taken to her bed. She is the oldest lady in Faith, and has always enjoyed good health.

J. W. Gardner shipped a fine load of building stone, and Peeler & Co., a car of fine lumber today.

John Taylor will commence to paint Organ Church next week. VENUS.

10,000 More Rifles Into Sea.

Havana, Oct. 25.—Carrying out further the policy under which the arms surrendered by the insurgents have been destroyed, orders have been given that a great quantity of arms, the accumulation of the last 40 years, now stored in the case of Morro Castle here, be thrown from the battlements of the castle into the sea. This work is being done by the present garrison of Morro Castle, under the supervision of American officers. Most of the guns are of obsolete pattern. About 10,000 stands of arms are thus to be rendered useless. It is intended to do away with similar accumulations of arms in all the other fortresses of the island. This destruction of weapons is entirely a precautionary measure.

Murder Mystery Cleared.

Asheville, Oct. 25.—After a lapse of more than three months the mystery surrounding the murder of Sidney York, of Madison county, in the red-light district of Asheville and Buncombe county and the alleged murderer is now in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury at the next term of Superior Court for the trial of the criminal cases. Evidence sufficient to cause the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of Clifford Fowler, a negro, believed to be guilty of the crime, was recently secured by the police officers and last evening Patrolman James Ayers out the warrant and shortly afterwards Fowler was in the toils of the law.—Special to Charlotte Observer.

WORK FOR THE ORPHANS.

Rev. Sam Jones was the Friend of the Little Ones and Aided Them.

The death of Rev. Sam Jones will be profoundly regretted by the Decatur Orphans' home. While Mr. Jones did not found the home, he stated to the Methodist conference some years ago, when the home had become overwhelmed with debt, that he would take charge of it, provided the trustees all resigned, and a new board be formed, to be named by him and consisting of three members.

The proposition was accepted, and Mr. Jones at once entered upon the fulfillment of his promise. How well he succeeded is attested by the fact that he paid every debt, constructed by his efforts what is known as the administration building, and turned the home over a few years ago, to a new board of trustees, with more than 100 little ones under its hospitable roof. The home now has about 125 orphans, who are receiving; thanks to the work of Mr. Jones, the highest kind of moral and home training.

In no field of his vast work will his memory be more revered than by the inmates, trustees and friends of the Decatur Orphans' home.—Thomasville Times.

A New Lease on Life.

Greensboro, Oct. 25.—Frank Bohannon, convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged today, has been given a new lease on life by an appeal to the Supreme Court. The appeal will not be heard until the end of the present term of the State's highest court, which will be in December, and it is possible that it may not be heard before next spring. Bohannon is now in Guilford county jail, where he has been since his trial in September. A history of his life has been written by John Strong, a white man, who is in jail pending an appeal to the Supreme Court on a charge of having obtained money under false pretences. Several attempts to secure photographs of Bohannon have been made, but all have resulted in failure. He refuses to be photographed. Both he and his attorneys believe that a new trial will be granted him.—Special to Charlotte Observer.

Pythians bar all Liquor men.

New Orleans, Oct. 25.—A sweeping anti-liquor statute was passed today by the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias. The new statute is expected to bar from entry all wholesale liquor dealers and hotel keepers who run bars in connection with their hotels. With the exception of these classes, all other liquor dealers were excluded by the old statute which was superseded today. The new statute included "professional gamblers, saloon keepers, bar tenders or dealers in spirituous, vinos or malt liquors." The most important changes in the new reading are the substitution of the word "dealers" where formerly "retail dealers" stood, and the dropping of the classes "bona fide hotel keepers," which the old law specifically mentioned as eligible. The new statute does not affect any who are already members of the order.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years, and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by James Plummer, Salisbury, and Spencer Pharmacy, Spencer, N. C.

HIGH GRADE REPAIRING.

We can safely assert that the public in general know who does the most difficult watch, clock and jewelry repairing in the best possible manner, and it is done at our three stores.

We started business three years ago with only one workman, and we now have seven. Our repair trade has grown to such proportions that we cannot turn it out fast enough. We will add one more first-class watch maker and engraver at our Salisbury store, making four watch makers for the one store, and will then be able to deliver all work promptly, and at time promised, so continue to crowd us with work as we are prepared for it.
