

THEY LIKE OVERMAN.

Our Senator Makes Friends With the Johnston County People.

A Salem, N. C., special to the Charlotte Observer, of recent date says:

Hon. Lee S. Overman addressed two audiences in Johnston county yesterday, one at Benson in the morning, where he met the county candidates with Hon. E. W. Poirer, member of Congress from this district, and addressed a large crowd of both Democrats and Republicans; the other at this place at night, where he addressed a representative body of ladies and gentlemen who filled the opera house almost to overflowing. Senator Overman appeared at his best at this place and made a powerful speech, as is characteristic of the man. His convincing argument has done more to strengthen some of the weaker Democrats than any other event in the whole campaign.

An old-time Democrat who, on account of local conditions, had almost sworn he would vote the entire Republican ticket this year, told me after hearing this speech that it was like hearing the old-time religion preached, that while he knew the Democratic party had made some mistakes, still it was the only party he could vote for, therefore he would continue to vote the straight ticket. Besides this one incident this speech had a very soothing effect on the people of this section.

In the Grip of Snow Storms.

The entire country from the Rockies to the Missouri river has experienced a snowfall almost unprecedented in severity for this season of the year.

At many places the thermometer dropped far below freezing, and even below zero weather is reported.

Nearly all the telegraph and telephone lines in Colorado were demoralized and the train service came almost to a stop.

Various wrecks are reported in consequence of the snowfall.

In Utah 80 cars of a freight train were blown off the track.

Six inches of snow is reported from Minnesota.

The Denver and Rio Grande system is running few trains. The Oregon Short Line is blocked by a wreck. Two passenger coaches on the Salt Lake & Ogden road were blown from the track and the conductor and two passengers hurt.

In Salt Lake City 2,000 trees were uprooted and several buildings in the course of construction were wrecked.

Duel Over Corpse.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 24.—William McIntosh was brought here today from Athol, where he was desperately wounded in a fight with Moses Caudill yesterday.

Caudill was instantly killed by Robert McIntosh. The McIntosh boys had gone to the home of Caudill, who married their sister, to take away the little daughter of their sister, who had died. Caudill resented this and the fight followed.

Samuel McIntosh, a third brother, was arrested and is in jail charged with complicity in the killing.

CHEW Grape TOBACCO

"THIS IS A HORSE"

ONCE there was a small boy who wrote "This is a Horse" after trying for hours to draw a copy on his slate of a thoroughbred racer. He admired the horse, wanted it, but had neither the ability nor the experience to get him. He therefore tried to draw one. When his labors were complete, he looked first at the genuine article, then at the miserable imitation, and after long, deep study wrote THIS IS A HORSE, realizing his failure and inability to reproduce the genuine, and he knew without "This is a Horse" written below, no one would recognize what he had tried to make. Would-be competitors have tried for years to imitate Grape Tobacco. They make black plugs of similar size, but of less weight, and put in it all sorts of various concoctions, mixtures and kinds of Tobacco, but all failed (to get the business) and finally hit upon the small boy's plan, and printed on the tag "SOMEBODY'S SUN CURED." They all advertise and tell you that SOMEBODY'S SUN CURED tag is valuable. Of course it is (it cost about 15 cents per thousand) but how about the miserable imitation of Grape Tobacco the tag is on? Somebody's Sun Cured tag no more makes good Tobacco than does THIS IS A HORSE makes a valuable genuine horse.

Last Winter we sold

considerably less than 450,000 pairs of shoes.

Quite a good deal less, in fact.

But we will guarantee that every wearer of our shoes last winter will be a wearer of our shoes this winter.

Our thick-sole "storm protectors" keep the feet both warm and dry and incidentally save ever-so-many doctors' bills.

It won't cost you a cent to get a look at these shoes, and not very much more to own a pair.

They are waiting to see you just inside the door.
