FAITH.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Beaver's little girl died Tuesday.

A few days ago a woman with a three-year-old girl was wanting to cook, wash and iron for some family, where she could keep her little girl with her.

J. T. Wyatt shipped a car load of building stones to Gela, N. C., today.

Operator Howard has left the railroad company and gone with the American Stone Co., where he gets more wages. We want him back at the depot at Granite Quarry.

The granite shippers have a lot of trouble in getting flat cars to ship off their granite. It has been impossible to get any cars for the past several days, and it is a great hardship on the people in and around Faith who have thousands of feet of granite cut and waiting to be shipped.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bean moved today near Faith where he can send his little girl to school.

Miss Lillie Lefler is spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Dora Tolbert, at Granite Quarry.

A young lady at Mr. and Mrs. John R. Ludwick's.

A young lady at Mr. and Mrs. George Parker's.

Yes, "Lee" you are exactly right.

Burl Hopkins moved to Granite Quarry today where he has just built himself a new house on his lot.

Hog killing is on in our town now. Goffner, Albert Brown, Heddy Hess and a good many others are now killing and we know where to go to board. "See."

The Christmas tree at the Baptist church here will be on Monday night, Dec. the 24th, and not on the 25th as stated in last issue.

Venus wishes all the correspondents and readers a happy Christmas.

VENUS.

A Pastor Remembered on His Birthday.

On Dec. 6, 1906, the Organ and Ebenezer congregations gave their pastor, the writer, a most bountiful birthday dinner at the parsonage at Organ Church. The occasion was a most delightful and pleasant one. More than a hundred of the kind and thoughtful members, together with Rev. N. D. Bodie, pastor of the Union charge, gathered to spend the day with us and make glad our hearts. Besides their kindly presence and bountiful dinner of which all present participated to their entire satisfaction, the members left for our future use wheat, corn, oats, flour, etc., aggregating an amount, at a low estimate of not less than $85. Recently at a meeting of the council of the two congregations they increased our salary $100. These tangible evidences of appreciation on the part of these people whom we serve in spiritual things greatly encourage us. May this mutual, helpful and pleasant relation continue indefinitely. May the Lord greatly bless the kind and thoughtful donors.

C. A. BROWN.

Succeeded at Last.

Landis N. C., Dec. 3rd. Sherman Walter and Mis Effie Sechler were married at Mooresville this (Monday) morning, between 1 and 5 o'clock. It was a run-away. They had tried on October 28th, got as far as Charlotte and the young man's father brought him back. We are informed that the young man is 16 years old and the lady is 22 years old. We wish them a long and happy life.

ROWAN ACADEMY.

December 15th.

It will soon be Christmas. hope Santa Claus will visit us all.

B. F. Eller and little daughter, of Craven, visited at C. L. Frick's last Sunday.

There will be a Christmas tree at St. Luke's Christmas day at 2 p. m., instead of on Saturday before as was stated in the last issue of this paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Cauble visited Mr. Cauble's sister, of Rockwell, last Saturday night and Sunday.

Don't forget the missionary sale at St. Luke's Saturday, December 22nd. Everybody is invited to come. Don't forget to bring your pocket books along.

Geo. D. Peeler visited his grandmother, Mrs. Cornilla Peeler, who is the oldest lady in our community.

PATSEY.

Christmas will soon be here, look for old Santa Claus children.

There was a spelling bee at Rowan Academy last Thursday night. There was a large crowd present. Misses Sophie Lyerly and Vinnie Johnson were the contestants. The score stood 49 to 68 in favor of Miss Vinnie.

There will be a Christmas tree at Shiloh M. E. church, South, Granite Quarry, N. C., Christmas morning at 10 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited.

Misses Pearle and Vinnie Johnson visited their sister, Mrs. Juo. C. Holschouer Sunday last.

Chas. Safrin purchased a fine young mule from A. D. Thomas right out the plow Saturday evening, hitched up and took a trip.

Mr. Safrin has his lot cleared off for his new dwelling house.

Ray, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Thomas was quite ill with pneumonia, but is gradually recovering, we are glad to note.

There will be preaching at Granite Quarry, Shiloh M. E. church the 6th of January. Sunday morning at eleven o'clock and seven at night.

Mr. Ross and family visited at Mr. Adam Cauble's Sunday last.

I wish you all a merry Christmas and a happy new year.

RUTH.

Maccabees Pay Policy.

E. E. Proctor and N. S. Poteet, as Record Keeper and Com. of Salisbury Tent No. 10 Maccabees, have paid to Mrs. Martha Fraley $1,000 insurance carried by her son, the late Wm. Walker, who recently died from injuries received in a fall from a building in Greensboro.

This is the first claim paid in North Carolina by the Maccabees and was watched by all Maccabees and other secret societies. Some time was consumed on account of the papers being fixed up here and in Greensboro. The business of the Maccabees is conducted on a strictly business basis. A deputy is expected here at any time to promote the interests of the order.

District Stewards Meeting.

On last Wednesday the district stewards of the Salisbury district held their annual meeting in the First Methodist church. A pastor's conference was held in the afternoon at which a number of questions pertaining to church work were discussed. At night, the Rev. Moore, a missionary of the church in Korea, delivered an interesting sermon. He told of much of his work in the east, and exhibited to the congregation a number of native articles he had brought home with him from Korea.
