

FROM EVERYWHERE.

Brief Mention of Events Occurring in Various Localities.

While a heavy snow was falling recently in New York city, a wandering evangelist exhorted people after this style: "There'll be a warm time coming for you sinners. I'm standing here in the cold to tell you that you'd better enjoy the snow while you have a chance. When it begins to rain red hot gobs of phosphorus on your poor blistered backs, you'll remember the man who stood out in the snow and tried to save you."

A number of travelers gathered the other day in a Pennsylvania town, and in course of conversation discovered that each had been in every state in the union. All claimed there was a general feeling among the people that Roosevelt should be a candidate for a third term. One of them wrote to the President about it and Secretary Loeb replied, that the President had nothing to add to the statement made on the night of his last election, when he said he would not be a candidate again.

There was a commotion on Wall street last week. A broker was sued for telling a lie, (a very unusual thing on Wall street.) The broker is accused of lying about a piece of property he sold to some Massachusetts men. Matters are coming to a nice pass when brokers are not allowed to lie about the property they sell.

Here is the best story of the season. A pair of five-inch surgeon's scissors were taken from the thigh of Mrs. W. R. White, of Braman, Okla., at the Wichita Hospital, in Wichita, Kan., last week. She was operated upon for a tumor four years ago and the scissors were left in the abdominal cavity. They worked through her body to her thigh causing great pain, and were finally discovered by means of the X ray.

A French scientist has been experimenting with fish. He says they make a sort of humming sound in different tones, which enable them to communicate with each other.

Detroit, Mich, March 21.—William Jennings Bryan, in an interview here tonight denied the report that Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, had been chosen to manage his next Presidential campaign. Col. Bryan said that the only reason he could see for the starting of such a rumor was the fact that he recently visited Mayor Johnson over night. Col. Bryan said he had not decided whether he would be a candidate.

Speaking of the railroad situation, Col. Bryan expressed the opinion that the first step toward reform was to ascertain the value of the railroads, since a reasonable rate would be one that would give a reasonable return on a legitimate investment, and at present no one knew what the railroads were really worth. Col. Bryan said that the La Follette resolution providing for an appraising of the railroads of the country and which was voted down in Congress, ought to be re-introduced in the form of a bill and enacted into law.

"When the present value of the railroads is ascertained," he said, "steps should be taken to prevent any more watering of stocks. No stocks or bonds should be issued except for full value."

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste closely matches old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing and satisfying. It's nice even for the youngest child. Sold by N. P. Murphy.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

Happenings of Interest Which Have Taken Place in North Carolina Recently.

It is stated that the president of a cotton mill in Burlington, has instituted 87 penalty suits against the Southern Railway Company, and has a number in soak.

Col. Hardie, of Guilford county, recently lost six fine horses from a peculiar disease. The animal's throats would swell up and stop them from drinking. The State veterinarian made an investigation and concluded the trouble was caused by a parasite of some description in the corn. It is said the cows on the farm have been eating the same corn and they have not been affected by it.

A negro convict on the State farm near the coast attempted to escape. He was swimming across a body of deep water when he was shot and killed by a guard.

The board of aldermen of Fayetteville, will pay the hospital expenses of the officers who were shot some time ago by the negro, Tom Walker. The salaries of the two policemen who were killed will be continued to their families during the balance of the term of the present board.

A little child was playing on the railroad track at Rocky Mount the other day, when it was knocked down and run over by a passing engine. The mother witnessed the accident and thought her child was killed. There was rejoicing when it was found that the little one was not seriously hurt. The child lay between the rails and the engine passed over without touching it.

The citizens of Asheville have raised $2,500 for the families of the policemen who were killed in that city four years ago, by a negro, while trying to arrest him.

A young man named Holder was killed last week, in an unusual way, near Lumberton. He was trying to load a log on a cart. The tongue of the cart suddenly flew up and struck him on the head, killing him instantly.

Shot to Death.

Florence, Ala., March 24.—Cleveland Harding, the negro who attempted to assault Mrs. Ben F. Rice, near here Friday and who was driven off by Mrs. Rice's shepherd dog, was summarily executed today by a mob of about 800 persons. Tied to a tree with his arms up, the negro was riddled with bullets, the first shot, it is said, being fired by Rice, following which every man in the crowd emptied his revolver at the prisoner. Over 1000 shots were fired. The negro was captured today half a mile below town and was taken before Mrs. Rice who fainted at the sight of him. Upon recovering she fully identified her assailant and on being asked what she wanted done with him, told the negro's captors to do as they thought best. Harding was taken a short distance from the Rice home where a conference of the mob leaders was held. Some said burn him, but shooting was decided on.

Beyond confessing his guilt the negro had nothing to say, and was stolidly indifferent to his fate. The body was left tied to the tree by the mob, members of which made no effort to shield their identity. The sheriff overtook the crowd before the lynching but his appeals were unavailing.

Lost and Found.

Lost, between 9:30 p. m. yesterday and noon today, a bilious attack, with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by finding at a drug store a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills, the guaranteed cure for biliousness, malaria and jaundice. 25c.

To be Moved to Statesville.

The office of the commissioner of internal revenue for the western district of North Carolina, is to be moved from Asheville to Statesville. This decision was today announced by Mr. Yerkes, commissioner of internal revenue, after having the matter of locating the office under consideration for a year or more.

This office has been located in a number of towns in western North Carolina in times past, but for 15 years it has been located at Asheville. When it became known a little over a year ago that the commissioner of internal revenue was thinking of making a change on account of Asheville, not being centrally located, a number of towns, among them Statesville, Winston-Salem and Salisbury, sent delegations here to press their several claims. The commissioner has had the case under consideration since then. The home of the present collector, Mr. Brown, is at Statesville, and he recommended that the office be removed to Statesville. Mr. Yerkes states that the removal is for good business reasons. Statesville is much more conveniently located, being a center of the revenue producing territory. The two principal revenue towns, Salisbury and Winston-Salem are especially convenient.

This removal will be a considerable advantage to Statesville and a loss to Asheville. The office at present employs 12 clerks. —Washington correspondence Charlotte Observer.

A Hindrance to the Cause of Christ.

The cause of Christ is a great sufferer by much of the modern evangelism which good men are forced to tolerate in great pain. The coarse jokes, the boorish anecdotes, the vulgar witicism, and the general air of levity one hears, sees and reads about in evangelistic meetings, are distressing. The sanctity of the House of God is degraded, the reverence for the Word of God is diminished, and the needed high respect for the office of the ministry is sorely impaired. It is not surprising that many of our wisest and most consecrated pastors and best and most religiously developed churches are conducting their own protracted meetings.—Presbyterian Standard.

Barley, Bread and Beer

These three words are derived from the same Anglo-Saxon root—brewan.

All three are foods. Barley, a grain that makes both bread and beer. Bread, a solid food. Beer, a liquid food.

In making bread, flour and yeast are used; in making beer, barley-malt, hops and yeast are used. The same principle is in each—both are wholesome foods.

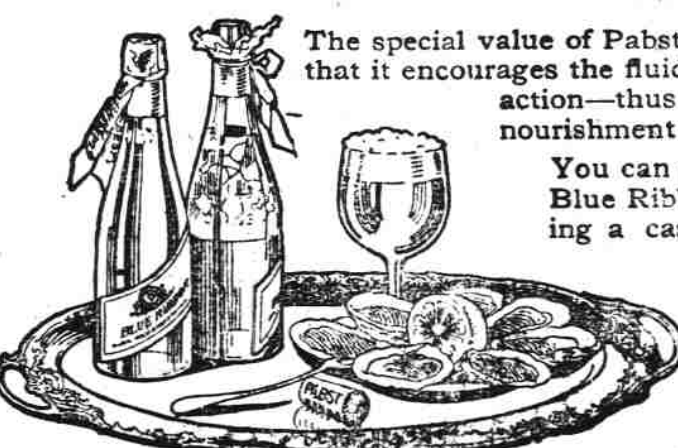

In Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer the Pabst Eight-Day Malting Process matures the malt slowly and uniformly, thus transforming every particle of nutriment in the barley into perfect food substances.

To these are added the invigorating properties of the choicest hops, by the Pabst brewing process, which insures absolute purity.

Your system requires a liquid. Why not use one that is both food and drink—

Pabst Blue Ribbon The Beer of Quality

The special value of Pabst Blue Ribbon at meals is that it encourages the fluids of the stomach to readier action—thus aiding you to get the fullest nourishment from your food.
