MISS GOBLE'S BODY FOUND.

Remains of Last of Victims of Sunday's Accident Recovered.

The body of Miss Eliza Jane Goble, who was drowned in the Catawba river at Lookout Shoals Sunday afternoon with Mith Miss Sallie Fullbright, was recovered Tuesday afternoon about 8 o'clock. The search for the bodies of the unfortunate young women was begun immediately after they were drowned and was kept up almost continuously until Miss Goble's body was found. Miss Fullbright's body was recovered about 9:30 Monday morning, as stated, and the remains were buried at Sharon Lutheran church Tuesday at 11 o'clock. Miss Goble's remains were buried at Sharon on Wednesday at 11 o'clock beside those of Miss Fullbright, and the graves of both were covered with flowers. Rev. W. A. Lutz, of Statesville, who went to the scene of the accident Monday morning, conducted the funeral services of both the young ladies, they being members at Sharon. A large number of people were present at Sharon Tuesday and Wednesday. The community is deeply stirred on account of the tragedy and there is much sympathy for the distressed families.

Miss Goble's body was found by her brother, George Goble, about half a mile below the point where Miss Fullbright's body was found. Hundreds of people had participated in the search for the missing bodies, and after almost two days of continuous search were about ready to despair of finding Miss Goble's body. Her brother, however, was determined that his sister's remains should be found and he was on the river in a canoe when he saw her clothes floating in the water.—Statesville Landmark, May 3rd.

Attempts Self-Destruction.

Asheville, May 2.—This morning about 10 o'clock, while visiting his brother in the Hominy section of the county, eight miles from Asheville, Tom Jones, a well-to-do young farmer, of Buncombe, secured the possession of a .38-calibre pistol, and walking a short distance from the house, placed the muzzle of the weapon against his left breast and fired. The bullet entered just above the heart and ranged upwards. When found Jones was lying on the ground, bleeding profusely and in a serious condition. He was driven to Asheville and Dr. E. B. Glenn was summoned. Dr. Glenn found that the bullet had made a ghastly wound; that the man's condition was grave, and gave instructions that he be taken at once to the hospital. While being driven to Asheville Jones told his brother that he had simply wearied of life; that he was tired and thought that he would like to die. It is probable that he will. The injury is extremely serious, with the chances against the would-be-suicide. —Special to Charlotte Observer.

Trouble Purely Individual.

Washington, May 3.—The difficulty between the police in Santiago, Cuba, and the seaman from the cruiser Tacoma was discussed at the cabinet meeting today. Governor Magoon has reported to Secretary Taft that he has dispatched Lieutenant Robert L. Bullard, Eighth Infantry, to the scene of the trouble, and pending his investigation of the trouble nothing will be done. The Governor reports that in his opinion the trouble between the police and sailors at Santiago was purely individual and not in any sense the result of any general ill-feeling between the Americans and Cubans.

Relief From Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Roland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by James Plummer, Salisbury, and Spencer Pharmacy, Spencer, N. C.

WAS THE FATHER WRONG?

Miss Loving Defends Estes. Declares he Did not Mistreat Her.

Miss Elizabeth Loving, in a letter a few days ago to a girl friend fully exonerates Theodore Estes, who was killed by her father. She expresses amazement at her father's act. Miss Loving, it is said, defends the memory of the victim, and says that he had always treated her with courtesy and consideration.

Since the tragedy Judge Loving and his family have lived in seclusion, and no statement from them or about them has reached the outside world until this letter, which discloses the extreme unhappiness of the entire family circle. It is alleged that Miss Loving used the word "crazed" as descriptive of their mental and nervous condition.

It is an open secret in the social life of Nelson county that Judge Loving had always been opposed to social amenities between his family and that of Sheriff Estes, and that the mere fact of his daughter's having gone for a drive with Theodore Estes was sufficient to excite him greatly. Judge Loving is not noted for an even temper, and it is said that his daughter was the only one who had the courage to oppose his will.

A Nelson county man familiar with all the political and social currents there, this morning expressed the belief that it would be impossible to try the case at Lovington. Feeling is running high in that county, and is emphasized by clannish and political antipathies.—Charlotteville, Va., dispatch.

Four-Burned to Death.

West Branch, Mich., May 4.—Four small children were burned to death in the home of Martin Campbell, eight miles from here. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell had gone to a dance a mile from their home, leaving their little ones locked in the house. They left a big fire in the stove and in some manner this ignited the house, which was destroyed. The children were awakened by the flames and the two oldest, aged 8 and 10 years, managed to escape. The four smaller ones perished.

Glover Defies the Hangman.

Augusta, Ga., May 4.—"I'll be damned if they will hang me. When I get out of this trouble I will horsewhip those fellows in there." These are some of the statements made today by Arthur Glover, after being sentenced for the second time to be hanged on May 24 for the murder of Maud Dean, his paramour. Glover, who was a detective, shot the woman dead without a moment's warning. Not long before that he had shot a negro, but got clear. His defense at the second trial included brain storm, paranoia, etc. The judge's arraignment of him in passing sentence was the most severe ever heard in Richmond county.

Malt is barley, with its life-germ artificially grown. Malt gives body, strength and quality to beer.

The better the malt, the more satisfying the beer.

The Pabst Eight-Day Malt-fermenting process follows Nature—it grows the barley slowly, thus preserving all of the nutritious food properties of the grain, and transmitting them to

GRIMES', Prescriptionist.

This man bought a supply of tobacco without acquainting himself with the distinctive taste of SCHNAPPS Tobacco, which has the cheering qualities that gratify his desire to chew, and at less expense than cheap tobacco.

SCHNAPPS has been advertised in this paper so that every chewer has had an opportunity to get acquainted with the facts and know that drugs are not used to produce the cheering quality found in the famous Piedmont country flue-cured tobaccos, and that SCHNAPPS is what he ought to chew. Still there are chewers who accept other and cheaper tobaccos that do not give the same pleasure.

Some day they'll get a taste of the real Schnapps—they'll realize what enjoyment they've missed by not getting SCHNAPPS long ago—then they'll feel like kicking themselves.

SCHNAPPS is sold everywhere in 5 cent cuts, and 10 and 15 cent plugs. Be sure you get the genuine.
