

Local News Items

Miss Mauda Pyle, of Cleveland, is here visiting Miss Nettie Plummer.

Rev. E. L. Ritchie, pastor of the Lutheran churches at Spencer, has resigned both parsonates. He has not yet decided upon his future location.

The graded schools of the city will close Friday.

The smallpox situation at Spencer has greatly improved. Those who had the disease are well on the road to recovery and those who were quarantined have been released.

H. F. Mullens, of Gold Hill, was in the city last Thursday to consult with physicians concerning the illness of his wife.

Bishop H. C. Morrison will preside at the next session of the Western North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church South, which will convene in Salisbury next November.

A white tramp, armed with a couple of sharp razors, was arrested Friday by Officer Siceloff while beating his way on a train.

The Salisbury Juniors observed Sunday as a Memorial Day. The local Councils went to the cemetery in the afternoon and decorated the graves of deceased members.

T. D. Brown, secretary of Winona Council No. 18, Jr. O. U. A. M., has paid to the family of the late D. C. Bradshaw, the amount of insurance carried by him in that order. The Juniors' order is not only patriotic, but it is among the cheapest and best insurance orders in existence.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Hennessee, of Birmingham, Ala., are visiting their son, J. E. Hennessee.

V. Wallace & Sons are getting material on the ground for the store rooms they will erect on the Lanier lot, across the railroad from the Southern passenger depot.

Richard M. Morgan and Miss Jennie Miller Betts, of Morgan township, were united in holy matrimony, by Eq. J. W. Basinger, at his residence near Garfield, on the 26th of April, 1907.

During the absence of J. M. Brown and family, at Washington, N. C., where they are visiting relatives, the collecting for the Royal Arcanum will be done by Jas. H. McKenzie. Members are requested to call at his store to make payments.

Of all the fruits there are in the land, That grow on bush or tree, I would give up the choicest ones For Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. —T. W. Grimes Drug Co.

A New Plant.

J. H. McNeely has started a plant for the manufacture of concrete building blocks, on his premises in the North Ward. The blocks are said to be much better than any cement material, and are a great deal cheaper. C. M. Bell, who has a plant near the Vance mill, has been manufacturing these or a similar block for some time, and has established quite a trade in them.

City Officials Sworn In.

Monday at noon the city officials who were elected on May 7th, were sworn in, the oath of office being administered to the mayor by Superior Court Clerk J. Frank McCubbin, and he in turn administered the oath to the aldermen. The new board held a meeting and arranged the date and time for holding regular meetings. The regular meeting nights will be on the first Thursday in each month. The hours will be 8:00 o'clock from April to October, and 7:30 o'clock from October to April. The board will meet again tomorrow night for the purpose of electing a treasurer, city tax collector, sanitary inspector, etc. There are a number of applicants for these places and there will be some struggling before the matter is settled.

Artists have no trouble in securing models. The famous beauties have discarded corsets and have become models in face and form since taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 85 cents, or Tablets. T. W. Grimes Drug Company.

MEETING OF JUNIORS.

A Large Gathering of Members of the Order to be Here Next Month.

The District meeting of the Jr. O. U. A. M., of District No. 4, will be held in this city on Tuesday, June 11th. The district embraces councils of the order in Alexander, Cabarrus, Gaston, Mecklenburg, Iredell, Rowan and Stanly counties. The local council of the Daughters of Liberty will aid the Juniors in making the occasion a pleasant and profitable one for all concerned. The following programme has been arranged for the meeting:

At 2:30 p. m., there will be a meeting in the hall on East Innis street, when the visitors will be furnished with street car tickets for a rip to Spencer and return.

At 8:00 p. m., a public meeting will be held at the court house, to which citizens generally are invited. A special invitation is extended to teachers and pupils of the graded school.

Prayer by Rev. L. W. Blackwelder. Song, America, by the Order. Address of welcome on behalf of the city by A. H. Boyden, mayor.

Address of welcome on behalf of the local councils by Hon. Whitehead Klutz.

Response to addresses of welcome by Rev. Plato Durham.

Short addresses on the principles of the Order by Z. P. Smith, of Raleigh, N. C.

Closing ode by the Order.

All invited to take car ride and visit the shops.

Evening session will begin at the hall at 8 o'clock P. M.

TOPICS FOR DISCUSSION.

1st. Qualifications for membership. Nos. 25, 10, 89, 56, 90, 18, 94 and 12.

2nd. How to increase membership. Nos. 82, 158, 195, 46, 22, 49, 88, 52 and 69.

3rd. How to hold membership. Nos. 188, 187, 68, 87, 47, 169, 205 and 214.

4th. Why should we have a council in every community? Nos. 26, 88, 65 and 74.

Refreshments will be served by the Daughters of Liberty at 10 o'clock.

5th. What should be the daily life of a true Junior? by Rev. Plato Durham.

6th. What has the Order accomplished for our country? Nos. 100, 170, 184, 196.

General discussion for the good of the Order.

Recommendations.

Victim of Robbery.

An unfortunate man who had lost both legs in a railroad accident, reported to the officers Monday that on Sunday he had been robbed by a negro. The robbery was said to have taken place in the East Ward near the old base ball ground. The man claimed to have been robbed of $37. The officers endeavored to locate the thief but without success.

Drowned in a Georgia Canal.

Augusta, Ga., May 21.—Harold T. Anderson and his wife, Louise, were drowned in the canal locks seven miles above the city to-day. The bodies have not been recovered. The couple were with a party who were riding down the canal in a small steam launch. Just before entering the Savannah river they undertook to make a short turn up stream, when the boat was capsized by the swift current. The four other occupants, including one woman, swam to the shore.

Ten Indictments Against President Hegeman.

New York, May 21.—Ten indictments, three charging perjury and seven forgery, were found by the grand jury to-day against John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, of this city. The charges grew out of the year-end statements of the company, in which it is alleged that items were improperly charged off. Mr. Hegeman did not appear in court to answer to the indictments, but is expected to appear to-morrow.

Cascasweet for babies is the best remedy for colic, summer complaint, diarrhoea and sour stomach. It is especially good in cases of teething when irritation affects the stomach and intestines. Cascasweet is a pleasant, safe remedy, containing neither opiates nor narcotics; all the ingredients are printed plainly on the wrapper, endorsed by mothers because it acts so quickly. Sold by James Plummer and all druggists.

OUR VOTING CONTEST.

Burrage Still Leads But Watkins has Made Some Gains

The voting goes merrily on and Walter Burrage is away in the lead. He has worked hard and has earned his place in the race. The race evidently lies between Mr. Burrage and Mr. Watkins, and those interested in these candidates can form their own idea as to which one has the better chance of winning. Mr. Watkins may have some cards concealed up his sleeve, we can't tell. But whatever is done for any of the candidates must be done within the next few days as the contest closes June 1st.

Table with columns for candidate names and vote counts. Includes names like Walter Burrage, T. W. Watkins, Rev. H. A. Trexler, etc.

The Safe Factory

L. Schwak, of Toledo, Ohio, who has met with the citizens several times with reference to the removal to this city of his safe factory, returned home, while here he met with much encouragement and succeeded in getting a number of citizens to take stock in his enterprise. It is probable that the deal may go through and the plant be located here.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both of the lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

JACKSON, CLYDE.—The 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jackson, who was accidentally shot in the leg on the 8th inst., died at the sanitarium here last Wednesday evening. The remains were taken to Hillsboro where the interment took place. The little fellow was out on Town creek gathering flowers. A party of boys was there shooting frogs, and one of the boys accidentally shot Clyde in the leg. The family has the sympathy of the entire community in its bereavement.

WILCOX, REDDING.—Died on the night of the 14th at the Spencer Inn in Spencer. Pneumonia was the cause of death. The deceased was employed as a fireman on the Southern Railway. The remains were shipped to Lumberton where the interment took place.

DAVIS, MRS. J. R.—Died suddenly at her home at Mill Bridge on Monday morning. She had been in her usual health, so far as known by her family and was taken ill only a short while before her death. The deceased was a daughter of Paul Bost, of Statesville, and she leaves a husband, one son, Luther Davis, of Virginia, and a daughter, Mrs. Wiley Sifford, of this city. Mrs. Davis had been for years a member of Thyatira—Presbyterian church and was a Christian woman and a devoted wife and mother.

KINARD, MRS. GEO. M.—Died Monday morning at the boarding house of Mr. Ellington, on Long street. The deceased was a Miss Crowell, of Lenoir, and was the wife of Geo. M. Kinard, an employe of the WATCHMAN, who recently came here from Lexington. The remains were taken to Lenoir for interment.

For a cold or a cough take Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is BETTER than any other cough remedy because its laxative principle assures a healthy, copious action of the bowels and at the same time it heals irritation of the throat, strengthens the bronchial tubes and allays inflammation of the mucous membrane. Contains Honey and Tar, pleasant to take. Children like it. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by James Plummer and all druggists.

Our reduced subscription price lasts only 10 days longer.

For Sale.—One 8x10 View Camera, complete. Also few cards, etc. W. V. Eller, Gold Hill, N. C. 8c

Wanted.—At once, 10,000 bushels of good wheat at Rothrock Bros. mills. Highest price paid. 8c.

For Sale.—An extra fine gray horse, colt, 14 months, in splendid condition. Write to or call on W. G. Honeycutt, Route 2, Gold Hill, N. C. 2t. pd

Strayed.—One bay horse colt supposed to be two years old, the owner can have same by proving property and paying for maintenance and this advertisement. Call on John S. Beaver, Rockwell, N. C., Route 1. tf.

Strayed.—On last Thursday or Friday a blue-spotted hound-slug left my premises. When spoken to she raises her upper lip and exposes the teeth. I will pay $2.00 for her return. W. C. FRALRY, corner Fisher and Shaver streets. *

Strayed.—One bay horse colt pony, about two years old, long tail, light weight, never shod. Any information concerning same will be appreciated and reward paid by C. E. Foxworth, car switch North Main, between Salisbury and Spencer. 1 t. pd.

For Sale at a Bargain.—1 dining room sideboard, 1 oval glass bookcase and desk, combination, 1 Morris Chair, 1 lounge, 2 iron beds, 1 spring and mattress, 8 dining room chairs, 2 rockers, 1 fine dresser and washstand, 1 extra washstand, dishes, pictures, etc. Come quick they must go. F. J. LEBEN, 115 E. Steele St. 1 t. pd.

ROLLER MILL FOR SALE.

This is a first-class three-stand Case roller-mill, equipped with modern cleaning machinery, full roller process, 25-horse power Liddell engine, 30-horse power boiler, good mill house built for the purpose. One acre of land and tenant's house go with it. It is located right on the railroad at Rockwell. This mill has made good money in the past and can now be made a first-class financial investment in the hands of the right party. It is of 40-barrel capacity and has a splendid surrounding community for which to draw patronage.

The sale will take place MONDAY, MAY 27TH, at 1 p. m., on the property. It will be auctioned off to the highest bidder for cash. For further information apply to JULIUS FRICK, Sec. and Treas. Rockwell Roller Mill Co., Rockwell, N. C. 5-1-4t. pd.

Advertisement for Salisbury-Spencer Directory, Piedmont Directory Co., Inc., E. H. MILLER, Sec. and Mgr.

In Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer you will find muscle-building and blood-making foods in the most favorable form for easy digestion. The Pabst Eight-Day Malting Process changes all the possible food-values of the barley-grain into actual food-values.

Advertisement for Pabst Blue Ribbon The Beer of Quality. Includes image of a man sitting in a chair and text about the beer's benefits and availability.

Advertisement for Woodward & Lothrop, Washington, D. C. Spring Special Sale of Women's Muslin Undergarments. Lists various items like Petticoats, Chemises, Drawers, Corset Covers, Gowns with prices.

Advertisement for Belk-Harry Co. "The Trading Home of Thousands". Always Something Doing at the Big Cheap Store. Lists various goods like shoes, men's suits, boys' wash suits, and miscellaneous items with prices.