STATE NEWS.

The industrial South is marching to the front in almost all lines. Recently the Elkin Manufacturing Company, of Elkin, which is noted for its fine blankets, shipped eight car loads of them to northern cities. Elkin blankets have a wide reputation.

The carelessness of a negro fireman caused the death of B. F. Cross, at a saw mill in Onslow county the other day. The fireman turned on a valve, drenching Cross with steam and hot water. The latter lingered in great pain for a couple of days and then died. Cross had been married only a few weeks.

A woman named Rosa Johnston is in jail in Raleigh charged with infanticide. She is said to have given birth to a child in a livery stable, stuffing straw in its mouth to prevent crying and then dashing its brains out against a rock.

Edward Nelson, the mail clerk who recently stole $10,000 that was in transit through the mails and restored it, was sentenced to 18 months in the penitentiary by the court in Wilmington.

A Greensboro negro was arrested in Charlotte recently for putting used stamps on letters.

When your food has not been properly digested the entire system is impaired in the same proportion. Your stomach needs help. Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia not only digests what you eat, it tones the stomach and adds strength to the whole body. Makes rich, pure blood. Kodol conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by James Plummer and all druggists.

Our reduced subscription price lasts only 10 days longer.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve disease—nothing else. It is this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, head-ache, breath and salivary complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

Man.
A man's life is full of crosses and temptations. He cometh into the world without his consent, and goes out of it against his will, and the trip between the two is exceedingly rocky. The rule of the contraries is one of the important features of the trip. When he is little, the big girls kiss him, but when he is grown the little girls kiss him. If he is poor, he is a bad manager, if he is rich, he is dishonest. If he needs credit he don't get it; if he is prosperous every one wants to do him a favor. If he is in politics it's for pie. If he is out of politics you can't place him and he is no good to the country. If he doesn't give to charity, he is a stingy cuss; if he does, it is for show. If he is actively religious he is a hypocrite; if he takes no interest in religion he is a hardened sinner. If he shows affection he is a soft specimen; if he seems to care for no one he is cold-blooded. If he dies young there was a great future ahead of him; if he lives to an old age he has missed his calling.—Life.

A Specimen of the Factional Rot That has Ruined the Democratic Party.

The chances are eight to ten that Bryan will be nominated by Democrats, and, if he be nominated, the chances are ninety-nine to one hundred that he will be defeated. The man who broke up the Democratic party is not the man to save the Democratic party. But for his crazy leadership the party would be in power to-day; that is to say, but for the criminal opposition of the Democratic marplots to the sound policies of Mr. Cleveland the Democratic party would have retained its control of the Government at Washington for half a century.

A dreamer, and idealist, a speculator on the weakness and folly of the sort of men who have obtained control of the Democratic organization. Mr. Bryan has proved to be the most successful political fakir this country has ever known. Gifted with uncommon powers of oratory and possessing a charming personality he came very near taking the country over the precipice in his first great campaign; but having failed twice to win when he was fresh and a vast majority of his party believed in him, it is worse than folly to say that he is the logical man for 1908. When free silver died, died also Bryan as a practical political actor.—Charleston News and Courier.

Mother's Reason Restored by Baby.

The sight of her baby, the touch of its little hand and the sound of its voice have been the means of curing Mrs. Mae Collins, a beautiful young woman of this town, of a violent attack of insanity.

Six months ago Mrs. Collins' husband died suddenly. Within a few days she had entirely lost her reason, and her infant child was sent to the home of her husband's parents.

Physicians finally pronounced the woman incurable and were making preparations to send her to an asylum. Yesterday her child was brought here, and the moment it was placed in her arms her mother recognized it and wept for the first time since she lost her reason. Within five minutes the mental cloud was dispelled, and the physicians say that a permanent cure has been effected.—Central City, Neb., dispatch.

Relief From Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Roland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by James Plummer, Salisbury, and Spencer Pharmacy, Spencer, N. C.

A Hearst Conference.

Announcement was made here tonight, following a visit of Max Ihmsen to spy out the prospect of the recent bill's passage, that a national conference of the independent leagues of the various States had been called to meet in New York city in September.

This is taken to be the first formal announcement of the Hearst intentions as to the presidency. No official edict on that subject was forthcoming.

The Hearst people now have fairly well organized political machines in New York, Illinois, California and Massachusetts, a nucleus in Texas, and a fond hope in many other States which enthusiastic Hearstites say will blossom into excellent organizations between now and the time for the presidential campaign.—Albany dispatch to New York World.

Crazy Man Jumps From Train.

A man appeared at E. M. Hargett's, who lives on the Wadesboro road, six miles east of Monroe, this morning and reported that he was from Atlanta, that he came from that city on the Seaboard Air Line yesterday and that he had been badly treated on the train, had been robbed of his purse and watch and was thrown off the train near Wingate last night. The man was well dressed and his face was bruised. He stated that he had made his bed in the woods last night and that he was afraid to go to any one's house. It is learned that the man is crazy and that he jumped from the train last night as it was leaving Wingate. The man says his name is Jones. He left Mr. Hargett's and stated that he was going to Wadesboro. Later—the man was arrested by Constable Moore and H. J. Bivens about noon today and was brought here to await instructions from his relatives.—Monroe Inquirer.

The Largest, Best-Equipped and Cleanest Flat Plug Tobacco Manufacturing Plant in the World

The Reynolds factories, equipped with every modern appliance for producing the best chewing tobacco by a clean, sanitary and healthful process, under the direction of men who have made the business a life study, are located in the centre of the Piedmont tobacco belt, known to the world as the best productive soil for tobacco with an aroma so delightful, pleasing and appetizing that it created and popularized the fondness for chewing tobacco. Only choice selections of this well-matured, thoroughly cured leaf are used in SCHNAPPS and others of the high-grade Reynolds brands, and expert tests prove that this tobacco requires and takes a smaller amount of sweetening than any other kind, and has a wholesome, stimulating and satisfying effect on chewers. SCHNAPPS is the brand that made the Reynolds factories famous as the manufacturers of the best and most popular brands of chewing tobacco, and made necessary the enormous growth from a small factory in 1875 to the largest flat-plug factory in the world. The men who started the Reynolds Co., in 1875, are directing it to-day. There are a greater number of manufacturers making imitations claimed to be just as good as SCHNAPPS than any commodity manufactured; yet there are more pounds of SCHNAPPS chewed than the total amount of all imitative brands, or tobacco of similar appearance. Be sure the letters on the tag and under the tag spell S-C-H-N-A-P-P-S, and you will have the genuine. R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.
