SALISBURY, N. C., JUNE 5th, 1907

One reason our lock-up and jail doors stand ajar is because the criminals are not where they belong.

Jno. B. Sherrill, of the Concord Times, is a candidate for the position of Commissioner of Labor and Printing, now held by H.
B. Varner. Mr. Sherrill is a capable and prudent man and would make an efficient official. We hope he will be the successful candidate.

The Law and Order League organized here during the past week deserves the hearty co-operation and support of every good citizen.
It stands for the moral welfare of the community, especially the removal of dens of vice within the city to other parts, for respect of law and its enforcement. There are many things in this and other lines that are greatly in need of attention wherein the League will be a great help in the way of strengthening and upholding the hands of the town and county officials in the discharge of their duties.

Physician's Tragic Death.

Columbia, S. C., June 2.— News reached the city late last night of the tragic death of Dr.
J. D. F. Lever, a well-known physician of the county, 78 years old, who was drowned at Cedar creek ford, near his residence, while attempting to cross the creek in a swollen condition in a buggy with his sister, Mrs. John Edwards, of Florence, who had an infant in her arms. He was on his way home with her from Bookman station. Mrs. Edwards and her child were rescued by Dr. Lever's son-in-law, Capers Lever, who had just had a narrow escape from drowning at the same point. His own buggy had been overturned and he had just gotten it out when he was called back by the cries for help of Dr. Lever and Mrs. Edwards. Dr. Lever was crippled from a wound he received in the civil war, and for this reason and because of his age, he was not able to extricate himself from the current. He had been fording the creek at this point for 60 years, but on this occasion the trace broke in midstream.
Dr. Lever was a native of Fairfield county.—Columbia, S. C., correspondent Charlotte Observer.

Another Decision on Whiskey.

Another U. S. Supreme Court decision on the liquor traffic is interesting. The case went up from Kentucky, and the facts are as follows: Cincinnati liquor dealers secured the names of all the booze artists in a dry county. Then they shipped quantities of whiskey to an express office, consigned to these men, whose names they had. C. O. D.
The artists were notified and all they had to do was to walk up and pay for what they wanted of their special shipment and take it out. The effect of this was to make a saloon out of the express office in prohibition territory.
The State courts ruled that the express company was a vendor of liquor contrary to law, but the Supreme court reversed this and said it was inter-state commerce.
This is as unfavorable to the right of a State to control the traffic as the South Dakota decision was favorable.—Ex.

Here's Good Advice.

O. S. Woolver, one of the best known merchants of Le Raysville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago." Cures every sore, wound, burn or abrasion. 25c at all druggists.

Strayed.—On last Thursday or Friday a blue-speckled bound-sled left my premises. When spoken to she raises her upper lip and exposes the teeth. I will pay $2.00 for her return. W. C. FRALEY, corner Fisher and Shaver streets.

OUR HONOR ROLL.

Actual Names That Prove the Great Increase in the Watchman's Circulation.

With only a desire to present facts, in the way of shop-talk, we have habitually published a list of the good people who subscribe for and pay for the Watchman. This is a very poor time of the year to secure subscriptions, but as will be noticed by the subjoined list our efforts in this direction have not been entirely fruitless. With these, and other recent additions to our list, we feel perfectly safe in saying that our list is now something like three to one as compared with any other paper published here or circulated in this town or county.
But the majority of our names are those of our rural population, among our very best people, people who have sufficient ability to know their wants and means to pay for what they purchase. The attached names, in a sense, tell their own story much more elo-quently than any mere array of words, however nicely they may be arranged, can. The wide awake business man will easily see the merit in this and will not be slow to take advantage of the opportunities to increase his business which a liberal use of THE WATCHMAN's columns is sure to produce. THE WATCHMAN is Salis-bury's oldest, largest and most widely circulated newspaper.

BECK, HENRY, of Jerusalem, Davie county, age 76, one of the best of Davie's citizens, died Monday morning, May 17th, and the funeral and interment took place at Jerusalem, Tuesday, May 28th.
Mr. Beck was a substantial farmer, scrupulously honest and was held in high esteem by a large circle of friends. He raised a family of ten children and his was the first death in the family.
He was a descendant of the same family as the Miss Cathrine Beck who supplied George Washington with a breakfast, at the old Beck homestead near Tyro, after he left Salisbury in 1792, just as Miss Priscilla Brandon did just before the General's arrival here.
Miss Beck was then 18 years of age.

KLUTZ, MRS. NANCY, better known as "Aunt" Nancy Klutz, died at her home in Steele township May 21st. She was stricken with palsy on May 26th and remained in an unconscious condition until her death. She was born in Rowan county and was confirmed in old Organ church about 1810. She was married to George Klutz, her husband dying some years ago. After his death she made her home with a daughter. She was never out of the State, and probably never out of her native county. She never rode on a railroad train or saw a street car. For a number of years she had been nearly deaf.

The interment took place at St.
Luke's E. L. church, the funeral service being conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. T. Parker.

Pre-Inventory Sale!

Only two weeks until we have to take inventory and our counters and shelves are filled with goods that should have been traveling at least four weeks ago. Some of them have over-stayed their welcome and we have decided to give them almost a FREE PASS.

Now don't wait until the goods are all picked over and then come expecting to find goods advertised a month ago. We can't keep them at these prices.
