Characteristics of Animals.
The animal of least intelligence in a circus menagerie is the beautiful giraffe; the most intelligent, the monkey; the most timid, yet the most dangerous, the elephant; most untrustworthy, the cat, including all those animals belonging to the feline family; most affectionate, the seals; most ill-tempered, the hippopotamus, who is never in a pleasant frame of mind from the day of his birth until he is ready to be skinned and placed in a natural history museum.—Spare Moments.

Tetter Cured.
A lady customer of ours had suffered with tetter for two or three years. It got so bad on her hands that she could not attend to her household duties. One box of Chamberlain's Salve cured her. Chamberlain's medicines give splendid satisfaction in this community.—Mr. M. H. Rodney & Co., Almond, Ala. Chamberlain's medicines are for sale by James Plummer, Salisbury, and Spencer Pharmacy, Spencer, N. C.

Rheumatism
I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. This is impossible, but I can now supply the pain and cause of this deplorable disease.
In Germany—a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made—a powerful, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism, but as at least formerly cured all curable cases of this heretofore fatal disease. These sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to disperse and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes really pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

UNION CHURCH.
June 10.
Much harvesting of wheat and oats will be done this week and a general wind the ball next week.

If we notice any kind of a machine pass by our town, it's a new harvester and a mower. If the spring oats are too small for the harvester of course the mower will be right on the spot.

The health of the community is very good except chills.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Linebarrier were visitors in Tippet Town last Saturday night.

On May 29th, Mrs. Jane C. Hartman, the mother of James Canup, was called by the death angel to her eternal home. She leaves four sons, twelve grandchildren and a number of near relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was a mother to them all.

Jno. F. Blackwell, Sr., visited W. A. Agner's Sunday last.

Don't forget, there will be services at Tippet Town, (formerly known as Hartman's shop's) the fourth Sunday of this month at 8:00 p. m. by Rev. P. W. Tucker, of Granite Quarry, all are welcome.

A Junior Order sermon will be preached at the Dunn's Mountain Baptist church, the fifth Sunday of June, at 8 p. m. by Rev. Davis. Everybody invited to attend.

We are informed that F. G. Goodman and J. H. Barringer, will be transferred to the standing army. They will leave about the 21st inst. for Charlotte where they will stand the recruiting examination and thence to New York for a two week's drill. From there they expect to go to California where they will be on duty.

The oratorical contest of Rowan Council No. 196 will be public, same to be held on the last Saturday night of this month at 8 p. m., in the school building at Union Academy. All are invited to come out.

T. C. Kerns returned home last week from Chapel Hill where he finished his course.

Rowan Council 196, J. O. U. A. M., elected officers for next term as follows:

T. C. Eller, C.; N. B. Drury, V. C.; J. H. Tippet, A. R. S.; L. D. Earnhardt, Con.; W. F. Ruffy, War.; C. J. H. Lyserly, O. S.; H. W. Connor, I. S.; G. W. Miller, Chap.; A. L. Lyserly, trustee.

The Sunday School at Union numbers about 170 now. We feel quite assured that there are others who should attend Sunday School. Come out and let us make this a banner year.
CHUR.

The Child Marriage Evil.

In some respects the North Carolina counties bordering on South Carolina have reason to consider the Palmetto State and inhospitable neighbor if not a menace. In South Carolina the marriage laws are very loose, the legislature of that State persisting in refusing to pass a marriage license act. That State as persistently refuses to pass a divorce act, and while it is impossible to dissolve the marriage tie in South Carolina, the ease and laxness with which couples can get married is a reflection in the opposite direction. The loose marriage system in our neighbor Carolina is a great and grievous temptation to North Carolina couples to go over the line to get married, many of the couples being minors who find it impossible to get marriage license in North Carolina without the consent of their parents. There is an inter-state line of about 850 miles between the two Carolinas and the child marriages along the border have grown into an evil that is justly complained of.—Wilmington Star.

FAITH.
Rev. O. B. Miller has accepted an invitation to preach the sermon here for the Jr. O. U. A. M., on Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m., June 16th, on the occasion of the decoration of the graves of the deceased brothers of this order who have been laid to rest in the cemetery here.

We hear that Ernest Ritchie has enlisted in the United States army.

We visited the Empire block in Salisbury the other day. It is occupied by three different firms. We met our old friend D. R. Shields, who was one of the first street car conductors in Salisbury and the one who secured the first passenger on his car and collected the first nickel. He is holding a position in the large furniture store of T. E. Witherspoon & Co.

The Reformed church people will give a big ice cream supper on Saturday night, June 22nd, to raise money for their parsonage.

The head of the right hand steam chest blew out on the passenger train just as it got in front of Mr. Brown's store at Granite Quarry, Monday, about 4:30 p. m. Another engine was sent for.

MUSE CONVICTED.
Rowan Man Goes to Prison for Passing Counterfeit Money.

James J. Muse, of Salisbury, was convicted in the Federal Court at Asheville yesterday of passing counterfeit money and sentenced to the United States prison at Atlanta for thirteen months. An Asheville dispatch says that several months ago he was arrested charged with passing the "queer." He was given a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner McCall and held in $1,000 bond. The bond was made and while some persons familiar with the case held to the opinion that the accused would not present himself for trial they reasoned wrong. When court convened here this week Muse was on hand. He had employed to represent him ex-Judge Thomas A. Jones and Eugene Way, and a hard fight was made for the man's acquittal. The two principal witnesses for the prosecution were negro women who alleged that Muse had given them counterfeit money.

The case was concluded yesterday about noon and given to the jury. From that hour until 10 this morning the jury deliberated and finally returned a verdict of guilty. Muse had confidently expected acquittal and the verdict of guilty completely upset him. He broke down in the court room and wept. In passing sentence Judge Boyd at first instructed that the convicted man be confined in the United States prison at Atlanta for a term of 15 months. Judge Jones interceded in behalf of his client and urged the court to reduce the sentence, arguing that 15 months was a pretty long time to deprive a man of his liberty. In his efforts Judge Jones was partially successful. Judge Boyd finally reducing sentence to thirteen months.

A Horrible Death.

High Point, June 7.—Charles Hayworth, night watchman for the Myrtle Furniture Company, fell into a vat of boiling water last night, and died in awful agony this morning. Hayworth was making his rounds on the outside of the building where the vats for veneering purposes are located, when he stumbled into what proved to be his death trap.—Special to Charlotte Observer.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either the Dyspepsia, The Heart or the Kidneys. Trembles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Grimes Drug Store.
