MINISTER COWHIDED.

Rev. F. M. Hawley Whipped by Hotel Man at Fulton, Ky.

The following news item from Fulton, Ky., printed in the Louisville Times, an evening paper published at Louisville, Ky., on the 12th will interest Charlotte people:

"Rev. Frank Morton Hawley pastor of First Presbyterian church and one of the most prominent of the ministers of Fulton, was horsewhipped by W. W. Meadows, a leading capitalist and foremost citizen of this city and after being flogged until he was prostrated, was sent from the city under threats of death should he return.

"The shocking affair, which has created the most profound sensation in the history of Fulton, is an aftermath to the suit for divorce filed by Mrs. Meadows, a few days ago, her allegations of cruelty and aversion on the part of her husband being generally construed as being a direct result of her much-talked of association with young Hawley. Rev. Mr. Hawley came to this city some two years ago from Charlotte, N. C., and becoming at once a most popular member of church society through his attractive personality, was accepted as a welcome factor in religious work of all kinds. No breath of gossip was associated with his name until the denouncement of a fortnight ago when Meadows publicly denounced him in the Meadows Hotel as a wrecker of his Meadows' home, and ordered him from his hostelry and forbade him his roof. The suit for divorce by Mrs. Meadows followed at once and Hawley left town.

"When it became known Monday that the preacher would return home on the midnight train, Meadows, together with a few friends, all most prominent citizens of the city, quietly met the train, overtook Hawley as he stepped from the station platform and, securing his wrists with handcuffs, led him to a vacant lot near the depot, where he was stripped. With three buggy whips he was flogged, but despite the terribly agony he uttered no whimper of pain, but again and again declared his entire innocence of any harm. With tears streaming down his cheeks, Meadows applied the lash and upbraided the minister bitterly, but the latter displayed the most calm nerve, and told his tormentor that, though he blamed him not for his actions, he was committing a terrible mistake.

"The tragic ordeal over, Hawley was placed in a carriage and driven to Pierce, Tenn., three miles from the city, and there he was placed on an outgoing passenger train. He was made to swear that he would never return to Fulton.

"The statement of Meadows was issued in the Daily Leader, and in his statement he pleaded justification of his act, on grounds of the unwritten law. No arrests have followed.

"Frank Morton Hawley is of fine family, and an earnest young minister. Much sympathy is accorded him, and Meadows' act was construed by many to be hasty. Nothing has ever in the history of the little city caused such a shock to society as the whipping. The affair is on every tongue here today."

Rev. Mr. Hawley is a son of Dr. F. O. Hawley, of this city, and is a graduate of Davidson college, where he stood well. The Charlotte friends of the young man believe that he is innocent of the charge made against him and hope that the day will soon come when he can acquit himself. It is believed that the man who accuses him acted on a sudden impulse.—Charlotte Observer.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of hearing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

WAR ON GOVERNMENT.

Irish Parliamentary Party Will try to get Even With the Liberals.

At a meeting of the Irish parliamentary party in the House of Commons it was decided to fight the government, both in the House and in the constituencies in order to punish the Liberals for failing to give Ireland a broader measure for home rule than was contained in the rejected Irish council bill.

After the meeting had adjourned John Redmond, on behalf of the Irish party, issued a long statement, concluding as follows:

"Another proof has been afforded that home rule cannot be won by a policy of conciliation alone. It can be won only by hard fighting, vigorous agitation in Ireland, an active disciplined party in the House of Commons, a thorough organization of the Irish vote in Great Britain and its use, absolutely independent of English party interests, to push forward the cause of home rule by taking every opportunity and all means offered in Ireland and in Great Britain to force upon public attention the grievance Ireland has suffered and the ruinous effects of British rule in that country."—London dispatch.

Crops Totally Destroyed.

Huntersville, June 18.—A very severe hail and rain storm passed over this section Tuesday afternoon. In the path of the storm the crops were almost totally destroyed. Messrs. J. M. Wilson, S. G. and J. L. Deaton and Houston Cathey are the principal losers in Lemley. The downpour of rain was almost unprecedented. The upland terraces and ditches in many places overflowed and great wagon roads were swept across the cultivated fields for hundreds of yards.—Special to Charlotte Observer.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.
Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains.
Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.
Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.
One bottle of each of these five preparations cost but $1.25. For sale by James Plummer, Salisbury, and Spencer Pharmacy, Spencer, N. C.

Police Discredit the Report.

Mobile, Ala., June 14.—A dispatch from Selma, Ala., to the item says:

"A newspaper man who arrived here today from Montgomery reported to the chief of police that while at the Montgomery railway station he overheard two men of foreign descent saying that there was a plot to assassinate Vice President Fairbanks and Senator Foraker at the funeral of Senator Morgan. The police placed no faith in the story.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kenney's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by James Plummer and all druggists.

How Pabst Grows Malt

Malt is the body of beer. It is what makes beer a food, rich in health-giving qualities.

Malt is barley-grain, sprouted and partially grown. Most malsters force this process in three or four days time.

Pabst takes the full eight days as required by Nature, with the result that Pabst gets a nutritious, strength-building malt.

It takes Pabst longer and it costs Pabst more to make this perfect malt, but this Eight-Day Malting Process retains in

Pabst Blue Ribbon

The Beer of Quality
the fullest amount of tissue-building nourishment of the barley—the grain richest in food values.

The Pabst Eight-Day Malting Process is much the same in its action as the process of digestion. Pabst Malt is practically pre-digested. Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is actually ready for the system to assimilate without the necessity of first taxing the stomach to digest it.

When ordering beer, ask for Pabst Blue Ribbon.
Made by Pabst at Milwaukee
