

BOSTAIN'S X ROADS.
August 19th.
We had a very good rain Saturday evening for late Irish potatoes and corn.

Mrs. Orilla Patterson and family, of Concord, visited her aunt, Mrs. Mary L. Roseman, Saturday and Sunday.

A. M. Basiuger, who has been sick for two weeks, is improving very slowly.

Lee Andrew Howell, who has been on the sick list for a few days, is out again.

We hear that several families in our community are talking of going to town this fall. We have not learned their reasons, but probably on account of the bad roads, poor educational facilities that we have and the lack of a base ball team. What are we going to do to keep them on the farm?

Mrs. John Eddleman, of Mississippi, is visiting at Mrs. J. A. Eddleman's for a few days.

We learn that Geo. Bostain is preparing to build a new store house soon. Success to him in his new business.

Milo Klutz is preparing to move his saw mill on Bill Cline's land to saw timber for his new dwelling. He moved his old house away last week to make a place for the new one.

Our progressive road overseer has graded each end of his section of the road very nicely. He has not as yet been appointed and does not know who is supervisor, but has proceeded right along with the work. Overseers on the other sections of the road would do well to see ours and take pattern.

AJAX.

Those who have stomach trouble, no matter how slight, should give every possible help to the digestive organs, so that the food may be digested with the least effort. This may be done by taking something that contains natural digestive properties—something like Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Kodol is a preparation of vegetable acids and contains the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It digests what you eat. Sold by James Plummer and all druggists.

60,000 North Carolinians at Jamestown
It remained for North Carolina to arise in her patriotism and give the Jamestown Exposition the heartiest support that it has yet had. Great is North Carolina!

The Carolinians made good their boast that North Carolina Day would be the biggest day in point of attendance at the Exposition to date. There was no booming of cannon, parade and illumination of a great international fleet of warships or the presence of National officials or foreign potentates to attract the crowds. The people of the old North State just came to the Jamestown Exposition, thousands and thousands of them, as many as the railroads could bring. Those getting in this morning report that other thousands were left standing on the depot platforms by trains already loaded to their capacity.

There have been days when more soldiers and sailors have been seen marching on Lee Parade, when the United States and foreign nations have united there, but never before today has such a lot of plain, substantial-looking American citizens gathered in the Exposition grounds as were here for North Carolina today. Had the trains been able to bring all who wanted to come there is no telling how many people would have been here. Governor Glenn was proud of the showing of his State. Exposition President Tucker acknowledged that North Carolina had outdone all other States in observing her day at Jamestown Exposition.

The Most Economical Man.

The most economical man in the State lives near Concord. He is more saving than the man who climbed the lot fence to keep from wearing out the gate hinger and got up off the bed to turn over to keep from wearing out the bed clothes. When that Cabarrus man goes to town and begins to feel sick at the stomach he leaps on his mule and gallops home to vomit in the back yard so the ducks can get it. (If this makes any of you sick, you can just step around to the back yard and be relieved.)—Marshallville Home.

Everybody loves our baby, rosy, sweet and warm, With kissy places on her neck and dimples on her arms. Once she was so thin and cross, used to cry with pain— Mothe gave her CASCASWEET, now she's well again. Sold by James Plummer and all druggists.

A Remedy for Political Evils.
"I don't mind tell'n you fellers what the remedy is—of you'll not let it go any further; just consider that it's betwixt you an' me an' the bed post," said Mr. Billy Sanders of Shady Dale.

Well, the reel remedy for all the develment you hear talk on, an' for all the truble that keep the politicians from gwine home to dinner, is jest this: Let all the honest voters of the country (ef we've got eney left sence the late epidemic) git to gether an' put none but honest men in office— an' when I say honest men, I mean the old-fashion kind that can't be bribed, fooled nor persuaded."

"But if my remedy, cheap an' simple as it is, was to be tried, the politicians wouldn't do much of the laughin'. Thar'd be the biggest row on ever laid eyes on; they'd paw the yeth, an' foam at the mouth, an' raise a dust that it'd take a month for the sun to shine out. They'd sw'ar the nominations want reg'lar, an they'd try to steal or stuff the ballot boxes, an they'd vow that all honest men was independent—an' this last'd be mighty nigh the truth."

—Joel Chandler Harris in Uncle Remus's Magazine for September.

Has Learned Some Things.

Yes, we have belived in the ownership of railroads. During the Cleveland hard times we were made to believe we never would have better times until the national banks were put out of business and we had free silver and the government owned the railroads.

But with the gold standard, the banks still running and the corporations borrowing money and building and running the railroads the country has never seen as prosperous times as we have and are enjoying. Hence we have and learned that the cause of the hard times under Cleveland was not because of the gold standard the banks or the railroads.

Besides, in this State we have had an object lesson of railroad ownership.—Hickory Mercury, Populist.

DUTCH CREEK.
August 19th.
We have had a good rain and crops are looking better.

We had a good meeting last week at St. Matthew's, conducted by Rev. W. P. Huddle, of Virginia.

W. M. Yonnoe and family visited M. L. Agner Saturday night.

There was no preaching at St. Matthews Saturday night on account of rain.

L. D. Carter has set himself up to a new rubber-tire buggy. I guess he will ride now.

Protracted meeting is going on this week at Providence church.

Adam Boger is visiting his friend, W. M. Yonnoe, for a few days.

M. L. Agner has a corn stalk that has four ears on it and a sunflower head that measures fourteen inches in diameter.

A. W. Hill left Sunday for Salisbury where he will make his future home. Sorry to see him leave.
