

The Weekly Paper's Problem.

In discussing the increasingly serious problem which now confront newspaper publishers all over the country. The Fourth Estate, whose name sufficiently indicates its nature a publication, expresses the opinion that the worst sufferers will be those weeklies and semi-weeklies which several years ago reduced subscriptions from $2 and $1.50; to $1. "This unfortunate cut in price," says our contemporary, "occurred when the country was in the clutches of hard times, and the people were not able to pay their bills. Now every subscription taken at that price is well-nigh a financial loss. It will be at a loss when the new price of paper goes into effect. There is but one thing to do, and that is to increase the price of their papers. They should expect to make the advance not less than fifty cents on $1 subscriptions, and the same amount on $1.50 rates. * * * No subscriber ought to expect to get a paper nowadays for such a sum as $1. The print paper alone will be worth nearly that." That's the way it looks to us, is looking to more and more weekly and semi-weekly publishers, and should shortly look to all the subscribers concerned. If the laborer is worthy of his hire and these particular laborers are to receive any hire at all, no other course remains.—Charlotte Observer.

No Site Is Selected.

Greensboro, Oct. 8.—The board of trustees of the Stonewall Jackson Manual Training and Industrial School were in session here tonight from 8:30 o'clock until after midnight for the purpose of adopting a set of by-laws and selecting a site for the proposed reformatory for North Carolina. Nine out of the fourteen members of the board were present. Propositions were heard from a number of towns in the State, seeking to induce the board to locate with them, among them Concord, Statesville, and Greensboro. After carefully considering the propositions, it was decided to leave the matter to the acting and auditing committees with power to act. It is thought the site will be located within the next 60 days.

The Ends of Justice Demands Severe Punishment.

At Waynesville last week one Davis was on trial for murder, the jury could not agree and was discharged. After a mistrial had been ordered the solicitor produced evidence that one of the jurors had during the trial talked with a brother-in-law of Davis and that the juror had been furnished cigars and liquor. In fact, a bold and open attempt to tamper with the jury had been made and the failure of the jury to agree would indicate that the attempt was successful. Judge Cook was justly indignant and denounced the affair an outrage. He ordered the case moved to Jackson county, it being evident that a fair trial could not be had in Haywood. Then the juror and the men who talked with him were fined $10 each. It's a pity Judge Cook did not let his righteous indignation extend to the punishment in this case. What is a $10 fine for so serious an offense? If both men had been sent to jail, or better still, to the chain gang, thus reserving punishment that would mark them for the balance of their days, not only would it teach them a lesson that would be effective but a warning that would give pause to others inclined to commit similar offences.—Statesville Landmark.

The Gentlemanly Autoist.

There are autoists who, if they meet a horse manifestly frightened, will slow down or stop their machine entirely until the team passes; or, if they see approaching them a vehicle containing only women, will at once stop and lead the horse safely by the bugaboo. Such courtesy should be the rule rather than the exception, as it is now. In time, country horses will doubtless become as fearless of automobiles and traction engines as the horses in the cities have become oblivious of the many disturbing sights and sounds; but while this equine education is going on in the country districts, gentlemen will not, and others must not, crowd the farmer and his family off the public roads, which belonged to them before the first auto was incubated.—Exchange.

Afflicted with Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back.—P. O. Earls, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by James Plummer, Salisbury, and Spencer Pharmacy, Spencer, N. C.

Gamblers Driven Out.

Winston-Salem, Oct. 9.—At the request of several ministers of the city, who were probably spurred to action by a communication of Prof. C. L. Padgett in this morning's Journal, Sheriff J. E. Zigar this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock ordered the fakirs to vacate the fair grounds. The order was given by the sheriff in a quiet manner, and the operators of the many games of chance immediately pulled the covers over their machines and stopped all gambling. There was a protest from a number of citizens of the city who had been playing at some of the machines, but this was of no avail.

The fakirs reaped a harvest yesterday. There were great crowds around the gambling tables all day. Many a poor fellow lost all he had and borrowed from a friend in a vain endeavor to gain back what he had spent. The fair management is in hearty sympathy with the move made by the sheriff at the request of the ministers, and the people of the city will endorse the action.

How to Cure Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by James Plummer, Salisbury, and Spencer Pharmacy, Spencer, N. C.
