DUNN'S MOUNTAIN.

Nov. 11.—The weather for a few days past has been all that could be desired by the farmer.

So far as we can learn everybody in our city is enjoying good health.

Lewis I. Cauble has been working on his new farm near Lower Stone.

What is about all sown in our community.

Calvin Keeler and son, David, have left home. Gone to parts unknown to us—some where up in the mountains. Guess we can have apple pies for Christmas.

Seems as if their might be some trouble in store for some one when it comes time for moving. Certain parties have been advised to hold certain property and others have been, (so they say) advised to move said property. Well we are expecting some lively times at an early date.

Hubbard Klutz, John Lyerly and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Trexler were pleasant visitors at the humble abode of Bartlette Saturday and Sunday last. Come again.

Jr. O. U. A. M., meeting Saturday evening, the 16th instant, at 7:30 o'clock. All the members are requested to be present as there is business of importance and interest to all concerned. Come out Bros, one and all.

Mrs. Murray Trexler has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Earnhardt.

We, like others, put on our "Sundays" and went to the Fair one day. We have been in several small towns in our life and seen several fairs, etc. We think, as do a good many, the Fair was all O. K., but the unfair (games of chance) were a black eye to the whole affair. The weather was fair, the people were fair (the ladies), but the gambling schemes were everywhere. We saw one man, an old acquaintance, lose between $80 and $40 of hard-earned money. A brother Odd Fellow told us he was out $15. If two negroes play cards for so little as a one-cent jack-pot they surely get a job for 80 to 60 days. Compare the two. Still it was a big fair. Well so be it.

Brantly Barringer lost a valuable horse Thursday night of acute colic, caused by feeding frosted green corn.

The Jr. O. U. A. M., sermon we spoke of in our last items will be preached by Rev. Fisher, of Faith, at Union E. L. church, the 24th, instant, or the 1st Sunday in December. We can state nothing definite at present, but will give particulars at an early date. We expect to have a good, strong sermon on Juniorism, as Rev. Fisher is a Junior of the first water.

School at this place will open November 18th. Mr. Hoffner, of Faith, has been employed to teach the school. BARTLETTE.

A Missionary Sale.—Making Brick for the Barringer Mill.

Rockwell, Nov. 11.—The people are about done sowing wheat in this community.

Rev. Rowe, pastor of the Reformed church, preached a very eloquent sermon on mission work last Sunday afternoon.

There will be a missionary sale at the Reformed church next Saturday, 16th instant. Everybody is cordially invited to come.

Geo. E. Brown has begun work on his new house at Rockwell.

William R. Misenheimer will soon have his new house done and will move to Rockwell.

Sides & Lentz are building a new shop in which they will make flooring, ceiling and other building material.

Robert McAlister is getting along nicely with the brick work of the Barringer Manufacturing Company.

Frank R. Sifford has been visiting Paul Miller's quite often.

The Rockwell Furniture Company stopped last Saturday to do some repair work on their boiler. UNCLE BILL.

NEWS ITEMS FROM FAITH.

Mr. and Mrs. Stymson Carn moved in their new residence November 7th. We went to see them and took a part in the first meal at their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Anse Redwine moved in Faith and commenced keeping house November 5th.

J. W. Fiuk is at home on a visit from Hendersonville, where he has been for his health. The doctor advised him to go there.

Charley Lentz has left J. T. Julian's farm and has moved to G. W. Julian's farm and Charley Stirewalt, of Faith, will move on J. T. Julian's place where Mr. Lentz left.

Mrs. Evan Wyatt, a Confederate pensioner, is very sick at her granddaughter's.

The contract for the granite that goes in the new Y. M. C. A. building at Danville, Va., was awarded to J. T. Wyatt, of Faith, and the granite cutters are now at work on it.

J. T. Artz is running a big quarry near here and loading cars every day.

The best way to educate your children is to take your home paper and let them get interested in the items and other news.

Adam Basinger, an old soldier of the civil war, who lived here for many years, but recently moved near Mt. Pleasant, is here cutting nine hearth stones for different ones near Mt. Pleasant. This industry gives him some extra change which every one likes to have.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hess gave a big "possum dinner" to their friends last week and were among the number and enjoyed it very much.

Faith has stone masons, granite cutters, quarry bosses, truck farmers, carpenters, millers, blacksmiths, cabinet makers and lots of other hustlers.

Miss Mamie Peeler has returned to Newton to take up her studies. She likes the school very much.

P. A. Peeler, of the firm of Peeler Brothers, runs the ginning department of the various businesses of the firm and crowded with cotton this week. L. M. Peeler is busy looking after the roller mill, saw mill and planing mill, and John A. Peeler is busy looking after the store and his farm, and Wm. Bame is busy as superintendent of the big crowd of granite cutters. VENUS.

B. A. ELLER'S ARM BROKEN.

Rev. Fisher, of Faith, to Preach to the Juniors on the 4th Sunday.

Union Church, Nov. 11.—We had a very nice rain in our vicinity just at the right time for wheat and oats to come up.

On account of the rain last Sunday there was no Sunday school at Union church.

Most of our farmers are through seeding their wheat.

Cotton has been very near all picked and most of the staple sold.

Some of our farmers have been turning their land for next year's crop. That's right always be on time.

Wm. Ruffy, J. H. Tippet and W. A. Agner visited A. C. Earnhardt last Sunday.

Mrs. Catherine Wise visited at G. A. Boger's last Saturday night and had a very nice time.

R. A. Eller had the misfortune to get his arm broken last Thursday by a cow.

There will be a Jr. O. U. A. M. sermon preached at Union church on the 4th Sunday in November at 8 o'clock p. m. by Rev. C. P. Fisher, of Faith. We hope there will be a large congregation out on that day to hear Rev. Fisher.

School at Union Academy opened up with a very good attendance. That's right, parents, send your children regularly. THE HUSTLER.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM TEDDY.

St. Paul Refuses to Longer Sit in Darkness. A Good, Live Neighborhood.

St. Paul, Nov. 11.—Not seeing any communications from this neighborhood in our good friend, THE WATCHMAN, for some time, we have decided to let the people know that we are not dead, for this is really a live, wide-awake neighborhood, and everything is going along nicely. The farmers are studying their work and are prosperous, many of our young people are away at school and some of them are teaching schools. This community has furnished more public school teachers, ministers, professional and business men, probably than any other part of the county, and it is proud of this fact.

Some of the local items of interest are as follows:

The public school at Mulberry Academy opened on the first Monday in November with Prof. J. R. Ervin, of Concord, in charge, assisted by Miss Bessie Heilig, of the neighborhood. The school opened under auspicious circumstances. The committee and many of the patrons of the school came out and participated in same.

Miss Bessie Julian, one of our bright young women, left last week for New London, N. C., where she enters school, having won a scholarship in the school, same being a mark of remard for the advancement made at Mulberry Academy.

William Ritchie, one of our best young men, is sick with fever. His many friends hope for his early restoration to health.

The Sunday school at St. Paul's decided Sunday to have appropriate Christmas exercises with presents for the pupils. This is one of the largest Sunday schools in the county, and a splendid program will be arranged for the occasion.

Frank M. Glover is beautifying his house by several coats of paint. This is what many farmers should do. It is a mark of progress.

An effort is being made to have this community put into communication with the outside world by the installation of a 'phone system. Here is hoping that it will come.

Continued success to THE WATCHMAN. May it watch and hammer out justice.

A Horse Does a Stunt.

One day last week a horse belonging to Mack Honbarrier began running at the corner of Lee and East Innis streets. It ran west and took to the side walk, being hitched to a buggy which was occupied by Mr. Honbarrier and D. A. Hodges, of Faith, things looked rather ominous. The jolting threw Mr. Honbarrier out and the hitting of a tree started Mr. Hodges through space, both were somewhat bruised and shaken up, but not seriously injured. The horse continued up the street until he struck the cement pavement in front of C. S. Minor's store. Here he slipped, fell and stirred some glass ware, toy wagons and other things which happened to be on the pavement. Getting a foothold again he crossed the street and seemed to have no idea of stopping, but suddenly changed his mind upon being confronted with Sabon's variety store. Here he turned over a box of oranges, a barrel of apples, broke loose from the buggy, broke up the shafts and stuck the end of a shaft in his front right shoulder, making a bad flesh wound.
