Another fortunate provision is that the bonds shall not be sold for less than par. This should be watched.

Upon application of the inde pendent telephone company for a charter to place phones in Salisbury, made before the Board of Aldermen last week, E. C. Gregory, Esq., attorney for the Southern Bell Company, protested on the ground that in granting such a privilege it would mean two systems for Salisbury. Protested! Isn't that a strange act in this day of progress? Have the citizens of Salisbury been used as mere chattels and are hereafter to consider themselves the naked and helpless prey of the Southern Bell corporation?
