

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

Local News Items

To-day is being observed by the graded schools as Arbor Day and a number of trees are to be planted and some songs will be sung. The pupils will have holidays the rest of the week.

The old story that the Southern will enlarge the shops at Spencer is again going the rounds notwithstanding the force at Spencer has been greatly reduced and there is room for many more than is generally employed. But let her build the more the better.

Rowan's three high schools at Granite Quarry, Mt. Ulla and Woodleaf, have been apportioned $250 each by the State Superintendent of Instruction.

The pension warrants for the old soldiers are now being prepared by the State Auditor and they are expected to be ready for distribution between the 15th and 20th of December.

Conductor R. L. Miller, of Spencer, who has been ill since last April and who has been operated on several times at the sanatorium, has been improved sufficiently to return to his home.

This district, 13th, of Independent Order of Odd Fellows will hold a meeting in Lexington Tuesday, December 3rd. A splendid programme has been arranged and a number of Odd Fellows from Salisbury and Spencer will attend.

John Upchurch, of Raleigh, state game warden, was in the city last week. He is making every effort in his power to see that there are no violations of the game laws in the county.

The salary of F. H. Coapman, the new manager of transportation of the northern and eastern districts of the Southern, amounts to $800 per month. We suppose he will have turkey to eat tomorrow.

James Belk, the young man spoken of in THE WATCHMAN last week as having been jailed for robbing freight cars on the Southern in South Carolina, has been released from custody under a $200 bond. Mr. Belk and his friends deny any criminality on his part, but say the stolen articles found in his room were the property of another who has escaped to parts unknown.

About two weeks ago some small boys sent up a number of paper balloons, and as they rose and floated over the city they were watched with great interest. Some uninformed person said "it" was an airship and straight way some of our ever sensational reporters sent out the statement that "Salisbury Folks See Air Ships." It is a specimen of the fake reports published here and sent from here.

Bailey & Grubb, who have been supplying Salisbury and Spencer with milk on a small scale, contemplate doing so on a larger scale and may move their dairy from near Linwood to near Salisbury. They expect to keep 80 or 90 cows.

The Thanksgiving services by the Jr. O. U. A. M. councils in the city will be conducted at the South Main Street Methodist church Sunday evening at 4 o'clock, Rev. C. P. Fisher, of Faith, preaching.

Pastor to be Installed. Juniors Elect Officers.

Gold Knob, N. C.—Nov. 27th.—Rev. J. A. Lime will be installed as pastor of St. Peter's church in St. Peter's church on the first Sunday in December. Rev. M. K. Minard, of Salisbury, and Rev. C. P. Fisher, of Faith, will officiate. Rev. Kinard will deliver the sermon to the pastors at 11 o'clock a. m., and Rev. Fisher will deliver the sermon to the people at 2:30 p. m.

DEATHS.

Howard, Joseph, died at his home near Bixby, Davie county, last Wednesday and the funeral was held Thursday. His remains were interred at the family burying ground. Mr. Howard was one of the oldest citizens of Davie county, being 87 years old. He served through the entire four years of the civil war and was a brave and faithful Confederate soldier as he was also a splendid citizen and consistent christian. Mr. Howard leaves two unmarried daughters and one married, Mrs. Jno. Taylor, of Yadkin College, and two sons, Samuel Howard, of Greensboro, and Thomas Howard, of Salisbury; also three brothers, Samuel Howard, of Alexandria, Indiana; B. S., and W. M. Howard, of Redland, Davie county. A peculiarity about the Howard family is that of five brothers, three of them living in the South joined the forces of the Confederacy, and of the two who were living in the North, one joined the Federal forces, the other furnishing a substitute.

Mrs. R. L. Simmerson died at her home in this city last Wednesday night, the result of typhoid pneumonia. She was a daughter of Henderson Barnes, of Davidson county and her remains were carried to Piney church, where the funeral was held and the interment took place. She was about 29 years of age and leaves a husband and four children. She was much loved by those who knew her.

Owing to the lack of space we make brief mention of the following deaths:

Long, Mrs. Fannie M., of Trading Ford, died at her son's Charles, at Fairmont, Davidson county, Saturday night. Cause, pneumonia; age 86.

Infant of B. H. Revelle, of Concord, died Friday at Sanatorium by getting a piece of apple in wind pipe.

Ross, Mrs. A. L., died Saturday night from the effects of pneumonia.

COWAN, MRS. MARY, relict of the late Col. Richard H. Cowan, died Sunday morning. Cause pneumonia, age, 68.

LOFLIN HOWARD, died Sunday night. Cause, pneumonia.

BAME, JOHN, of Morgan township, died last Friday. Cause, old age; age 80.

MOORE, CRARLEY C., deputy sheriff at Whitney, died in sanatorium here Saturday morning. Cause, lockjaw; age 38.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, two more a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Proceedings of Court.

Our account of the proceedings of the Rowan Superior court last week covered the work done on the criminal docket for the term and the court adjourned Wednesday evening. Evidently a great many cases were postponed till the February term. The case of John Anderson for stabbing his wife did not come up as Mrs. Anderson is still unable to be out. Court re-convened Monday and is now busy on the civil docket.

When the baby is cross and has you worried and worn out you will find that a little Cascasweet, the well known remedy for babies and children, will quiet the little one in a short time. The ingredients are printed plainly on the bottle. Contains no opiates. Sold by James Plummer and all druggists.

John R. Mock Arrested for Embezzlement.

John R. Mock, a native of Salisbury and an all-round splendid young man, who has held the position of freight agent of the Seaboard Air Line in Atlanta for several years, was arrested last Wednesday on a charge of embezzling $6,600 of the company's funds. His bondsmen, The American Surety Co., caused his arrest and imprisonment. He strenuously denies the charge and feels confident of establishing his innocence. His people expect to have him released on bond at once.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by Grimes Drug Store.

WEDDINGS.

The marriage of Miss Mary Dwire and Henry Hartman, both of Salisbury, took place at Granite Quarry Saturday night, Rev. P. W. Tucker officiating. The happy couple will make their home at Granite Quarry.

Miss Saddle Miller, of Albemarle, and Ray Henley, an engineer on the Western division of the Southern, are to be married in Albemarle this evening. They will make their home in Asheville.

Miss Cora King, of Burlington, and M. L. Lemley, of Salisbury, were united in marriage yesterday evening at the residence of Rev. W. B. Dutters, Dr. Dutters officiating. Mr. Lemley is the engineer at the Salisbury Ice and Fuel Co's. plant.

Miss Della Womack, of Reidsville, and Conductor Amos, of the Southern, who lives at Spencer, were married at the home of the bride in Reidsville Sunday. They will live in Spencer.

Miss Carrie E. Morris, of New London, and D. C. Ritchie, of Rithfield, were married at the parsonage of the First Methodist church in this city Monday evening, Rev. E. K. McLarty officiating.

When the Stomach, Heart, or Kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to Druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Free sample test sent on request by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is worth this simple test. Grimes' Drug Store.

GRIMES SAYS

Wisdom in Buying.

You can't expect wisdom in buying to better advantage than when buying Drug Store Articles. However, unlike buying other articles, you must, when buying drug articles, rely to a large extent on the word of the dealer. Buy your drug store articles where you can always depend on your druggist's goods as well as on his word. Whether it is general drug store goods or special drug store goods; whether toilet goods or prescription goods, you can depend on every article purchased from our drug store.

We exert what wisdom we have as well as all the knowledge of goods we possess, in buying goods for our store.

If you do your drug buying of us we absolutely guarantee to your SATISFACTION.
