

"CLOSING OUT ALL WINTER GOODS"

Come in and take your choice at the lowest prices we have ever known to equal. No need to print items here. To detail all the goods that have had their prices clipped would be to print a catalogue of the entire stock. We are reserving nothing, every Suit and Overcoat in the store is reduced to a price that must sell it. Before the season begins to wane, these lines are especially affected.

A JOB LOT OF ODDS AND ENDS.

General News, State News and Current Comment Served Without Superfluity.

The Journal of the Western North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church South, containing the minutes of the eighteenth annual session, held in Salisbury November 13-18, 1907, has come from the press. Copies will be mailed to the pastors in the Conference at once, and they will distribute them to their members. The Journal gives 85,072 as the total number of members of the church in the conference this year, an increase of about 3,000 members, since the meeting of the Conference of a year ago.—Statesville Mascot.

There are two citizens of Davidson county who have no right to kick about their taxes. The tax on one of them is two cents and on the other three cents, in each instance it being on land. What county can show a lower tax than this?

Speaking of conditions at the North Carolina Soldier's Home, State Auditor B. F. Dixon, who is more intimately connected with the management of the home than any one else probably in the state, said: "You have no idea how things have changed at the home in the past seven years. The boys there are getting older and feebler, deaths are much more frequent and there are usually some forty of them in the hospital; the 'gray' line is rapidly breaking these days for it is forty-two years since the war ended and the years are beginning to tell. We have 144 old veterans in the home now, which fills it up so that there are only vacancies as deaths occur.—Statesville Mascot.

The Charlotte Chronicle sounds this cheerful and encouraging note: "The politicians and the demagogues are going to find that the farmers, manufacturers and business men of the State are doing their own thinking, this year.

New Berne, Jan. 9.—The old historic building which was part of the Tryon palace before the revolutionary war, was destroyed by fire today. The building was used as a residence by James B. Duffy and was in excellent state of preservation, despite its extreme age. The fire originated from a defective flue.

The 19th and 21st are Lee's and Jackson's birthdays, and will be observed in many places in the south.

High Point, N. C., Jan. 6.—The contract for the building of the Carolina Valley railroad has been let to Dodge & Day, of Philadelphia, and work on the road will be commenced between here and Thomasville just as soon as equipment can be gotten on the ground for that purpose. Some sixty teams have been employed and the steam shovels and dummy engines suitable for the work are now being purchased.

Yesterday afternoon at the office of the chief of police one drug store's report of whiskey prescriptions for the last month had been filed. It showed a slight falling in prescriptions from the November report. One physician prescribed liquor 60 times, one 50, one 36 times and one 28 times, but the great majority of them prescribed it from one to six times only.—Greensboro Telegram.

IN FAVOR OF PROHIBITION.

Barringer Manufacturing Co. Closes Down Till Spring. Other Enterprises Busy.

Rockwell, Jan. 12.—The Barringer Mfg. Co. have stopped work on the building for the factory until spring opens, when work will be resumed.

The stockholders of the Rockwell Furniture Co. had a meeting on the 6th of January and report having done a good business last year.

Peeler & McCombs Co. have opened a livery stable here. We wish them success.

John E. Lysterly, owner of the Rockwell roller mill, is having his mill put in first-class trim and will soon be ready to serve the public with the greatest of pleasure.

As there has been much said about prohibition, I am in favor of prohibition if it is of the right kind, but am not in favor of prohibition that is worse than none at all. If we can make a clean sweep of the liquor traffic, and not have any blind tigers, it will be a great improvement, but if we cannot, it will be as bad or worse than before. It is a question that we should all study before we make any move either way.

UNCLE BILL.

Rioters Use Torch.

Ashville, Jan. 8.—Another chapter has been added to the race riots at Bryson City, by the burning of the county court house and the destruction of all the public records for both town and county. No official document of any kind was saved, and among the scores burned were the marriage license registers for a period of 50 years.

The court house was entirely destroyed, the fire being of incendiary origin, and following the arrest of a number of negroes for participating in the race riots that have been going on for some time. The most precautionary measures have been taken by both town and county authorities, to put down the existing lawlessness, and a curfew law was passed today directed against the negroes, who, it is alleged, have been responsible for the riots. No negro is allowed to be on the street after 9 o'clock under penalty of being arrested. Firearms have been taken from the negroes, and it is believed by the authorities that the situation is well in hand.
