Entered as second-class matter Jan. 19th, 1905, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SALISBURY, N. C., Jan. 22d, 1908.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has declared the 2-cent rate law of that state confiscatory and unconstitutional. Maybe it was.

We see head lines entitled: "Passing of the Panic" We thought it had passed, but were not informed as to its place of hiding.

Senator Simmons not only had the nerve to come out for State Prohibition, but he had the ability to see the on-coming wave, the grace to submit, the sagacity to make an effort to avoid the strife and turmoil of a popular election and to admit its morality above that of politics and partyism.

The telephone patrons of Salisbury seem to be somewhat dissatisfied with the rates of the Bell Telephone Company here and talk is heard favorable to an independent company. The aldermen, it is said, still have under consideration a franchise for an independent company. This company should, in the interest of the people, be given a franchise. The Bell Company is a powerful corporation, greedy and grasping and arbitrarily fixes rates from which our citizens have no recourse. This is a great injustice and should not be.

Last week we stated that the railroads had offered to pay $17,000 towards paying off the litigation, which has been going on in the courts, and the expenses of the extra session of the legislature. Governor Glenn says none of this money is to be used for the purpose of paying any part of the expenses of the legislature and that it will not be sufficient to pay all the cost of the litigation. We are glad to note this correction. One of the peculiar things about this matter is the fact that some of the most pronounced grafters in the State objected to the railroads paying anything toward their salaries. They could afford to do this, knowing their salaries would be paid any way out of the State treasury.

Salisbury Merchants Association.

The Retail Merchants Association of Salisbury held a regular session Thursday night and elected the following officers: T. B. Brown, president; W. T. Rainey, vice-president; F. R. Brown, secretary and W. M. Cook, treasurer.

The telephone rates in Salisbury were discussed, also the matter of taking trains Nos. 21 and 22 off the western division of the Southern. A committee was appointed to co-operate with other associations with purpose of having same restored. A resolution claiming the reduced passenger rates to be injuring business and asking the repeal of the present rate law and the adoption of that agreed upon by Governor Glenn and the Southern Railway officials, be substituted therefor, was passed unanimously by those present at the meeting.

DEATHS.

SHEETS, JOHN, died Saturday morning at his home on Chestnut Hill. Mr. Sheets was a respected citizen, a Confederate veteran, was 67 years old and is survived by a wife and eight children. Bright's disease was the cause of his death. The funeral and interment took place Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. A. J. Farrington officiating.

WOOD, Mrs. MARGARET, a prominent and excellent woman, died at her home near Cleveland Sunday from the effects of pneumonia. She was 58 years of age and leaves a child and many relatives to mourn her loss. The funeral took place at Third Creek church Monday afternoon.

LILLY, HENRY A., an engineer on the main line of the Southern, of Norwood, died in Alexandria, Va., Monday, and his remains passed through here enroute for Norwood, Tuesday morning. Mr. Lilly was very popular in railroad circles.

Ex-Sheriff Julian is confined to his home with illness.

The annual firemen's tournament will be held in Wilmington this year.

If Does the Business.

Mr. E. F. Chamberlain of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve: "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them; used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed without leaving a scar behind." 25c, at all druggists.

Its Influence Has Been Felt by So Many Salisbury Readers.

The soothing influence of relief. After suffering from Itching Piles. From Eczema or any itchininess of the skin. Makes one feel grateful to the remedy. Doan's Ointment has soothed hundreds.

Here's what one Salisbury citizen says: Mrs. Laura J. Litton, of 829 Fisher St., Salisbury, N. C., "For nine years I had a troublesome irritation of the skin on my right hand and although I was treated by a physician and used many different salves and ointments, I was unable to free myself from the annoyance. It itched constantly and was often so bad that I was kept awake at night on account of it. I finally obtained Doan's Ointment and one application served to relieve the terrible itching. A continued use entirely banished the irritation and I can praise Doan's Ointment in the highest terms."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
