

"THE VERY REMNANT OF PRICE."

We will not carry over any heavy weight clothing, we haven't room to keep them. We are offering a valuable remainder of attractive stock of Cassimers and Worsteds Suits, lower than minimum prices. We say now without hesitation it will open your eyes, of unequalled for saving money. Our competitors have and will make strong efforts to imitate, but there is no merchant that can provide you with such an attractive line of clothing with such low prices.

We still have on hand those home-made, all wool Socks at 15c a pair.

FAITH.

Z. P. Smith, of Raleigh, N. C., came out to Faith Saturday night with W. M. Ruth and made one of the finest lectures ever heard here in behalf of the Jr. O. U. A. M. The hall was crowded. He was introduced by J. D. A. Fisher and spoke for an hour. His lecture will do a great deal of good for the cause of the order.

Charley Deal's baby is very sick.

Miss Pearl Lingle and Miss Eula Bell Farmer are visiting at Mrs. T. M. Kestler's in Salisbury.

Mayor P. A. Peeler is showing the Independent phone people where to put the cedar poles they are now putting up along their line.

H. C. Farmer of the Bell Telephone Company, has just installed a new phone in the residence of the General Superintendent of the Albert Lee Pink Granite Co. here, another one will be put in the office as soon as built.

Mrs. Lillie Shuping, of Rock, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. C. Farmer.

The Superintendent of the new Pink Granite Co. is opening up a large ledge of granite on their property here, where they will work a large force of men as soon as they get up their cutting sheds and machinery in place. There is room around Faith for many more large granite companies to carry on a large and paying business but the outside world don't know it.

VERUS.

SALEM CHURCH.

March 6.—Spring has come at last. Farmers have made good use of the fine weather for the past few weeks in sowing oats and breaking corn land.

The picture man was at Salem schoolhouse today and took the picture of the Salem school. It will close Friday, the 18th, with a big exhibition. Everybody invited.

L. M. Saffrit and family moved to the country this week where he will farm.

Rev. Long, of South Carolina, has declined to accept the call to Salem pastorate.

Rev. C. P. Fisher preached at Salem church Sunday.

Rev. R. R. Sowers, of St. Paul's, preaches every 2nd and 4th Sunday at Salem hereafter, at 8 p. m.

Choppings are not quite over for this winter in this community.

No sickness in this community at all at this writing.

W. H. Bost will have a chopping tomorrow.

Mrs. M. J. Bost is confined to her room with erysipelas.

O. Cauble is spending the week in Salisbury among his children.

Mrs. W. H. Bost is unable to get out yet.

Oh, it is so warm that it makes my headache to see those lizards running along on the old logs these days. JOHN.

DUNN'S MOUNTAIN.

March 9.—The ground hog is not making good use of his allotted six weeks, however, we are glad of it.

Mrs. Mary J. Cauble, who has been visiting her son, Lewis I. Cauble, near Lower Stone church, has returned home. She reports a pleasant visit.

Some of the ladies of Union church congregation went to the parsonage, a few days ago, to give the new pastor, Rev. Spracher, a pounding, etc., as per an arrangement previously made, but the Rev. Spracher did not arrive for some reason, thereby missing a good dinner at that time.

The exhibition at Rowan Academy was quite a success, the scholars did their part their part splendidly and the exercises were enjoyed by all present. Mr. Agner delivered a very interesting address. We predict for this young man a bright future. From what we can learn of the teachers, Miss Trexler and Mr. Peeler, have done their duties as they saw it, and to the satisfaction of the patrons.

We most respectfully ask: Where has Brother Patrons gone? Come, brother, let us hear from you even though we may have no school subjects to discuss, let us hear your sweet voice (in print). Come along Pat-s and show up, don't stay away back in the bushes so long.

As a writer for this paper we never express our opinions. However, for good reasons, it is cheaper to send them by mail. See!

What has gone wrong, Bro. Lee, are you trying to hide yourself behind the whole alphabet, or has some other young itemizer beaten you out of your job? Come up brother and give an account of yourself. We wish the brother would enlighten us as to his name, viz: Com-eli-at or I-am-at-us. We should think this brother (would not be throwing off on A. J. Brown or Ardrew Brown) for he is using some gibberish for a name. Possibly he heard some remark made by Mr. Brown in the Hungarian language. Well, try again and give us an easy one.

The flag raising at the Dunn's Mountain school house will take place March 28, as has been stated. Bro. Whitehead Klutz has promised to be with us on this occasion if possible for him to do so. The members of all councils are cordially invited to be present and hear the able speakers. A programme will be arranged for the occasion. A nice time is expected if the weather permits. The public is cordially invited by the Councilor and all members of No. 198. All who can are requested to bring a full basket so the inner man will not suffer. BARTLETTE.

Be careful about a little cough. Get something right away; some good, reliable remedy that will move the bowels. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently yet promptly on the bowels and allays inflammation at the same time. It is pleasant to take and it is especially recommended for children, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. Sold by James Plummer and all druggists.

ROWAN ACADEMY.

March 8.—Ah yes, Patsy is still in the land of the living, as she has been absent for some time, guess you all will expect to hear something of importance, but news seems to be very scarce just now.

The health of the community is very good at present. Misses Lula Brown and Carrie Lyerly, of Crescent, visited Miss Sophie Lyerly over Sunday.

It seems that spring has opened up again. If the weather continues this way the farmers will soon begin to plant corn.

The exhibition at Rowan Academy last Saturday was attended by a large crowd. It seemed that everybody enjoyed it fine, the programme was nicely carried out. There was also a public debate given that night by the St. Marion boys. Guess Xerox will tell you all about it.

Ruth and E. L. Peeler went to preaching at Rockwell last Sunday evening. Ruth took her dog along, and I guess it must have got its religion for it did not return with her.

The new telephone line, (better known as the Independent line) seems to be a great help to the people through our community.

Rev. W. W. Rowe preached an excellent sermon at St. Luke's Sunday morning.

Miss Pearl E. Eller, of Craven, visited at Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cauble's Saturday night.

Success to the WATCHMAN and its many readers. PATSY.

SOUTH ROWAN.

March 9.—At last it seems as if we are to have spring. The weather has turned very warm.

The people are very busy turning the soil and some will probably soon plant corn.

Robert Josey has opened up a new rock quarry on Columbus Troutman's land, near Clark's store. He is kept busy getting out heart rock, corner rock and curbing.

The health of our community is very good at present.

In the place of preaching on the third Sunday at Rock Grove, it will be on the fourth Sunday, at 8 o'clock, p. m.

P. A. Jackson's brother, Daniel Jackson, from Union county, has been visiting him quite recently.

J. F. Parks has a fine lot of pigs, out of a litter of 15, thirteen are living and doing well.

The school at the Parks academy will go out next Friday, Rev. H. A. Troxler will deliver an address just before noon, and R. G. Kizer in the afternoon, every effort is going to be put forth to make the occasion a grand one.

John A. Basinger has bought a horse and buggy and will farm this summer.

A young farmer arrived at Charlie Saffrit's Sunday. ROCKER.

Just a little Cascasweet is all that is necessary to give your baby when it is cross and peevish. Cascasweet contains no opiates nor harmful drugs and is highly recommended by mothers everywhere. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by James Plummer and all druggists.

GOLD HILL.

March 9th.—Spring seems to have arrived, at any rate we have beautiful weather since March came in.

Prof. Smith delivered an interesting talk, or lecture, on the subject of the Junior Order of the United American Mechanics, at the Junior hall last Wednesday night.

C. A. Helderman has the frame of his six room cottage up and will rush same to completion, as he expects to occupy it, with his bride-to-be, in the near future.

The sale of the personal property of Emily Miller, deceased, came off at her late residence, last Saturday. A large crowd attended, some from Salisbury. An old clock and spinning wheel, that had probably done service for three quarters of a century, brought upwards of one dollar, corn brought 88 cents, wheat 98 cents.

Mrs. Lou Morgan and Mrs. Addie Hart are visiting relatives at Gold Hill today.

Robert Morgan moved into his new residence last week.

Vance Eller has put a phone in his residence, also J. D. Misenheimer, and J. W. Honeycutt have installed phones in their places of business.

Geo. I. Whitney land a party having been here for a week or ten days have decided to put in the machinery and pumps at the Barringer mine and again unwater same. This is the place that the rich find was made some years ago.

Will Jenkins, who has been very low with typhoid fever for several weeks, died about noon last Friday and was interred Saturday at 2 o'clock, in the Gold Hill cemetery. The Juniors officiating. Will was an industrious young man and a dutiful son, being only 20 years of age he was his widowed mother's main reliance for support. His mother, Mrs. Laura Jenkins, is now confined to her bed with fever, the other two children, Edna and Clyde have recovered. MIKE.

GOLD KNOB.

Gold Knob and Biltmore crossed bats last Saturday and the score stood 32 to 2 in favor of Gold Knob. Any team wishing to play ball will please report to Gold Knob and they will give them a chance at once.

Charlie Brady, while out in the woods working, last week, jumped a fox near St. Peter's church. It is said by some of the old men, that it was the first fox seen in the neighborhood for about ten years.

M. O. Lyerly, had the misfortune to lose a nice hog, the cause of its death is unknown.

The farmers are about through sowing oats and some are plowing land for corn.

B. A. Goodman swapped his horses off for a big team of mules, last week. CORNELIATORUMATUS.

Don't fail to pay your poll-tax before the 1st day of May if you wish to vote in any of the elections to be held this year.
