

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Why these grapes? Because from the healthful grape comes the chief ingredient of Royal Baking Powder, Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

Alum-phosphate powders are made with harsh mineral acids and must be avoided.

CAPTURED A "SUSPECT."
Officers Think he is the Right man but he may Prove Innocent.

A negro named Will Graham was brought here and lodged in jail last Tuesday night, by the Chief of Police of Concord. It was a case of the same dark crime which fills a white man with a desire to kill and kill quickly. The victim was a 16-year-old girl, Miss Pearl Tucker, who lives near Concord. It is said there is some room for doubt as to Graham being the right man. In her struggles the girl is said to have bitten one of the fingers of her assailant, but Graham's fingers bear no marks which would incriminate him. A Concord dispatch tells of the occurrence as follows:

"She was picking cotton in a field within 500 yards of her home in Fairview, in the corporate limits, when a negro man came upon her, tipped his hat and called her name, telling her that Mr. James Dayvault had sent him to tell her to go to the other end of the field and get a hammer that had been left there by her father yesterday. The girl was afraid of the negro, but led the way indicated. When reaching the shrubbery at the other end of the field, in a well exposed place he seized her by the throat and at the same time firing his pistol, telling her that if she screamed he would kill her. He stated also that "It is not a hammer, but you, is what I want." The negro then picked her up in his arms carrying her fifty yards to a point where the hideous crime was committed. The negro then told her to remember his name, giving it as Henry Faggart after which he ran into the jungles and got out of sight.

At 5 o'clock Graham was captured at the home of his father, where he was found changing his shoes. Chief Boger immediately started for Salisbury with him, bringing him here early in the night. By 8 o'clock last night several thousand men crowded the streets of Concord but when it became known that Graham had been spirited away the crowd dispersed. A lynching would probably have followed had Graham been kept in the Concord jail."

There seems to be some doubt as to what disposition was made of Graham, for he has been taken out of jail here and conveyed to another point, presumably Charlotte. This theory, however, is a little uncertain, judging from the following from the Charlotte Observer of last Thursday:

"Will Graham, the negro who it is alleged ravished Miss Pearl Tucker at Concord Tuesday and was in danger of being swung up by a howling mob, was brought to the city last night to be lodged in the Mecklenburg county jail, but Sheriff Wallace and Jailer Johnston both stated that they would not permit him to remain here. The negro was accompanied here by Sheriff Krider, of Rowan county, the negro having been lodged in the Rowan county jail at Salisbury the night after the assault. They made the trip from Salisbury to Barber Junction, changing there to the train which arrived in Charlotte at 6 o'clock. Neither Sheriff Wallace or Jailer Johnston would say where the negro was taken, and, as a matter of fact, rumors that he was still in the local jail did not cease after these officials had spoken. It is commonly believed that he is now under lock here.

Sheriff Wallace stated that he considered it unsafe to allow the man that the mob sought to remain in the city today when the circus was to be here, with its thousands from all over the general section. He assigns this as the reason he refused admittance to the man in the county jail. The negro was taken from the Salisbury jail because it was feared that in its unbridled anger, the Concord mob might make its way there and create trouble.

A telephone message from that town last night, however, stated that all was quiet and that the mob had apparently left off its purpose. The girl, it was stated, is recovering from her fright and injuries.

Those who hold that the negro is still in Charlotte point to the significant fact that Sheriff Krider who brought him here, is still a visitor in the city, remaining over for the circus. It is hardly probable that he would think of a circus unless his prisoner, in whose safe-keeping he is so much interested, was in a place of absolute security. It's a hundred-to-one shot that Will Graham is in Charlotte."

Cotton Sales at Concord.

From September 1, to October 12, 1907, 976 bales of cotton were sold on this market, the price paid on the 12th of October being 114 cents. From September 1 to October 12th this year there have been 1,880 bales marketed and weighed at the platform, and the price paid on the 12th was only 84 cents, three cents less than on the same date one year ago. During September, 1907, only 431 bales were sold, while this year during the month of September there were sold on this market 900 bales.—Concord Times.

ALL WRONGS.

The Mistake is Made by Many Salisbury Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause. It is wrong to imagine relief is cure. Backache is kidney ache. You must cure the kidneys. A Salisbury resident tells you how. J. C. Williams, 311 No. Long St., Salisbury, N. C., says: "I am very grateful for the benefit I derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and have no hesitancy in endorsing them: I suffered for a long time from kidney trouble and often was in absolute misery from the pains across the small of my back. My head ached a great deal, I was languid and had no energy or ambition to perform work. I was finally advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box from the Salisbury Drug Company. They proved to be just what I needed and entirely disposed of my trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NO WONDER HE GOT "DIZZY."

A Remarkable Case for the Scientists to Wrestle With.

Two births in six months! That is the remarkable record of one Omaha family. A baby boy, now a little over six months old, and girl twins just a few days in the world.

These interesting events of half a year occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Edwards, 1823 N. 24th street. Both parents are young people, Mrs. Edwards being now about eighteen years old.

The boy, a fat bouncing baby who is growing rapidly was born on March 12th last. The girl twins came on September 16th. The new babies each weighed five pounds. They were bright and healthy from the start, and are progressing as well as the average newly born.

Mrs. Edwards, who is a native Omaha girl, recovered rapidly from her second trying experience. "It knocked me off my pins when I heard of the arrival of the twins," confessed the happy father. "In fact, it made me dizzy, and I went out on the back porch and sat down till I felt better."

The physicians of Omaha are much interested in this remarkable case, and it is expected that official data will be made out by the attending physician for the benefit of science. The doctors say that while similar cases have occurred before, they are exceedingly rare—Omaha, Neb., dispatch.

Noble Example.

The American people owe a debt of gratitude to Hon. W. J. Bryan. In a number of aspects he stands forth as one of the most eminent citizens of the Republic. He is its most distinguished orator. In view of his popularity, great influence, and present attitude toward the masses throughout the land, whatever he does is known and felt with rare effect for good or evil everywhere. When in Maryland of late he turned aside to rest on the Sabbath at an inviting resort. It was gratuitously circulated that he would make a political speech at a point near by. A crowd of over twelve hundred voters assembled to hear him. He was urged to go and speak for the parties responsible for the gathering. But he absolutely declined to convert the Sabbath into a day of work for the advancement of his political ambitions. The late President Cleveland was elected in 1884 by a majority of less than twelve hundred. A change of twelve hundred votes in New York would have lost him the presidency. All honor to this splendid citizen, this noble specimen of Christian manhood, who could say: "I will keep the Sabbath day as my conscience tells me to do, party or no party, election or no election."

Senator Clark Believes the Election of W. J. Bryan Would Prove.

Asserting that the business interests of the country would be benefited by the election of William J. Bryan, former Senator William A. Clark, of Montana, tonight said that he would take the stump and aid in every way possible to bring about the election of the Democratic candidate. Mr. Clark called at Democratic headquarters today and conferred with National Chairman Mack. Mr. Clark said:

"Mr. Bryan is making a most remarkable campaign and I believe his chances are far better than were those in any of his previous contests. He has behind him a truly united Democracy. To me, the most foolish thing about this campaign is the prediction of the opponents of Mr. Bryan that the election of the Democratic candidate would injure business prospects and bring about a panic. It will be difficult for Mr. Bryan to disturb business conditions than has Mr. Roosevelt. I have investments in various parts of the country and as a business man I do not hesitate to say that I would vote for a man whose election in my opinion would injure the business interests of this nation. I believe the election of Mr. Bryan would stimulate the business and place it on a firm and healthy basis."

Mr. Clark will make several speeches in Montana and other States.—Chicago dispatch.
