Politics is getting hot in and around Gold Kuoh. Most of the people are for Bryan and a few are for Taft. They say they can tell what a man is when they see him. He is a straight forward man and that is the kind they are looking for. We need men in office who sioner, is moving here today.

STOP SWEARING.

The Khedive's Devotions on the Last Friday of Ramadan.

As the living stream continued to flow in by one door there suddenly arrived at the main entrance the central figure of the day's spectacle-the khedive coming to say his prayers on the last Friday of Ramadan The brilliant escort, the royal sa-

With the magic of the east, unaccountably slow and unaccountably swift, the stream was reversed in its course, and it poured and surged back through the gateway, a stream before, a flood now.

Soldiers and police struggled and R. C. Current, county commisfought to keep it within bounds, for the khedive had finished his prayers and must be allowed to return as Mrs. Lucy Gibbons has about he had come. Another brief ceremonial and the brilliant escort and the magnificent carriage of the Closely shrouded in their black dresses, they crouched motionless like birds, gazing down from their isolation on the great sight in which there was no place for them. Outside, as inside, they all were men. The climax of the day had not yet been reached.

As soon as the ebbing tide had somewhat subsided it was possible to press through the doorway into the interior of the mosque.

It is Nothing but a Habit and is Very Easily Cured. "Don't swear or you'll catch no fish," was a remark made the other day by a venerable inhabitant to a much younger man who was emphasizing his talk by the use of some rather strong expletives. No one was engaged in fishing at the time, nor was a piscatorial excursion being thought of. The suggestion was made in the back room of a cigan store, where three or four men were talking over current events, and the utterance made by the aged citizen was intended, as he afterward said, to show his abhorrence of the nonsensical use of "cuss words." Then he felt called upon to deliver a little homily to his companions, all of whom, like himself, are well known residents of Washington.

"Men incur habits," he said "that are really useless, and, in my opinion, swearing is one of the worst of them. One can see why, in moments of passion or great excitement, a person may indulge in swearing, but that some men, and I know several of them, should break

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well
