MORE TROUBLE AT SPARTANBURG

Over Negro Substitute Carrier, Against Whom Serious Charges Have Been Made.

There is likely to be a pretty postoffice mess here unless J. A. Anderson, colored, who was recently appointed letter carrier in the city, is removed.

Shortly after Anderson was appointed by Postmaster Poinier the Spartanburg Journal published an article to the effect that Anderson was formerly in the railway postal service and had been removed on the charge of writing an improper letter to a white woman. The officials in charge of the postoffice were informed of the charge against Anderson but no steps were taken, it is said, to find out if the charge was true.

Last Friday night a colored sporting house was raided and fourteen colored gamblers were arrested and among those taken in by the police was a colored minister and J. A. Anderson. The latter begged the police not to give out his name to the reporters, saying that if his name was published in the papers it would hurt, as he was in the postoffice service. Anderson was to take out his route and he hustled and got some one to put up bail for him so that he might secure his release and deliver patrons on his route their mail on time, but many people received late mail.

Many patrons on Anderson's route are said to have made the remark that they did not intend to allow him to come their door, believing him to be the man who was fired from the postal service for writing an improper letter to a white woman. Unless Anderson is removed and a white man appointed there is likely to be trouble, for it is said that the clerks in the postoffice endeavored to keep Anderson from being appointed, stating to Postmaster Poinier the charge against him.—Spartanburg special to the Charlotte Observer.

Mr. Kern's Son in Serious Condition.

The condition of John W. Kern, Jr., the 8-year-old son of the Democratic vice presidential candidate, who is suffering from infantile paralysis, complicated by acute indigestion, showed no improvement to-night. His father, who was called home from his speaking campaign in New York and Ohio, reached the city early in the morning and scarcely left the bedside during the day, although himself worn out with worrying over the child's condition and the stress of the campaign. Mr. Kern said to-night that all plans for the immediate future were in abeyance, pending the outcome of his son's illness.—Indianapolis, Ind., dispatch.

Would Mortgage the Farm.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c. at all drug stores.

WORDS WITH THE BARK ON.

Bryan Pours Hot Shot into Officials of the Big Four Railroad.

"I say to you that the little ward heeler who goes around and bribes a man for $5 is a moral character beside the man who attempts to use his power to threaten those who work for him and to buy them by a promise to increase or threaten them by a promise of decrease."

Thoroughly aroused by what he terms a "new menace" through the publication to-day in a Columbus paper of a dispatch stating that the officials of the "Big Four," a part of the New York Central lines, had summoned 500 workmen at Bellfontaine, O., and informed them that if the Democrats won the election there would be a ten per cent. reduction in wages, but if they lost there would be an increase, William J. Bryan, in a before-breakfast speech to a vast throng here today poured a volley of criticism into the Republican party for its campaign tactics.

"We are appealing to the intelligence and to the judgment of the American people," he said in conclusion, "and all we ask is that every citizen shall be allowed to think as he pleases and then be allowed to vote as he thinks. That is our platform, our plan. We leave our case with you.—Newark, Ohio, dispatch.

Scheme to Evade the Law.

It is learned that "blind tiger" operatives have adopted a novel plan here to keep persons to whom they sell from giving them away. For instance, a man says: "I want a quart of whiskey. What is it worth?" The blind tiger replies: "I'll sell it for $1.10, provided you will sell me a drink back." The trade is made. The man buys his quart, pays $1.10 for it, and then sells to the "blind tiger" a drink for ten cents. Both have violated the law and the man who purchases the quart dare not give the man away who sold it.—Asheville dispatch.

ALL WRONG.

The Mistake is Made by Many Salisbury Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause. It is wrong to imagine relief is cure. Backache is kidney ache. You must cure the kidneys. A Salisbury resident tells you how. J. C. Williams, 311 No. Long St., Salisbury, N. C., says: "I am very grateful for the benefit I derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and have no hesitancy in endorsing them. I suffered for a long time from kidney trouble and often was in absolute misery from the pains across the small of my back. My head ached a great deal. I was languid and had no energy or ambition to perform work. I was finally advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box from the Salisbury Drug Company. They proved to be just what I needed and entirely disposed of my trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ESCAPED FROM MOB.

Col. Taylor Managed to Outwit the Gang of Tennessee Murderers.

Unharmed save numerous scratches received in a thirty-hour trip through unfamiliar woods and the fatigue incident to the trip without food and the mental strain. Col. R. Zachary Taylor reached here today after a miraculous escape from night-riders at Reel Foot lake, who murdered his partner, Captain Quinten Rankin, night before last.

His own story of his experiences was told by him today as follows: "Monday night last Captain Rankin went to Reel Foot lake in response to a letter from a Mr. Carpenter, of Union City, who wanted to lease some timber lands. On our arrival at the lake we went to the Log House, or Ward Hotel, and early after supper retired. Some time during the night we were aroused by some one knocking at our door, and on opening the door a mob of masked men was found standing in the hall. We were ordered to dress, and as the leader of the mob said, he wanted to talk to us, we put on our clothes and accompanied the men to the back of the lake some distance from the hotel.

"The leader of the mob talked with us, telling us we were associating too much with Judge Harris and were taking entirely too much interest in the lake. He said that the course of Harris and the West Tennessee Land Company in prohibiting free fishing was causing the starvation of women and children, and that something had to be done.

"I never dreamed that the mob intended us any harm, but just then the mob threw a rope around Captain Rankin's neck and swung him to a limb. He protested and said: 'Gentlemen, do not kill me,' and the reply of the mob was a volley of 50 shots.

"This was the first evidence of any intention to harm us and when the firing began I jumped into a bayou, and made for a sunken log. Behind this I hid and the mob fired several shots into the log. They evidently believed I was dead, for I heard one say: 'He's dead and let him go, and with that he rode away.

"I remained in the water until after the mob was out of hearing and went to an island in the lake where I remained all day Tuesday. At night I started out and walked all night, coming to a house at 6 o'clock this morning."—Tiptonville, Tenn., dispatch.

Insist on Cleanliness.

This very solemn communication appeared in The New York Herald Tuesday: "The other day I went in a drug store to order a glass of soda water, but I happened to see how they washed their glasses, and the sight made me leave that place in disgust. Since then closer examination has made me wish the fact that many drug stores have no other outfit for this purpose than a slop pail, which serves as much to wash the hands of the operator as to glasses, and which after a while assumes a most disgusting appearance."

STREET CAR MEN BOLE.

Over 2,000 Republican Railway Men of Chicago, Become Supporters of Bryan.

Street car men of Chicago have come out for Bryan. At a meeting of the North and West Side Railway Men's Conservative club in which over 2,000 men were represented, President Roosevelt was scored for having aligning himself with Hearst, and resolutions were passed pledging themselves to support the Democratic presidential candidate.

Part of the resolution reads: "Whereas, We are conservative Republicans, who took pride in carrying torches and in aiding in the election of our beloved president, Hon. William McKinley, whose memory we esteem and revere, and which torches we now preserve as symbols of Republican work done and accomplished; "Whereas, We are organized laboring men, working for a corporation and interested in the promotion and welfare of labor and in the welfare of the whole people;

"Whereas, Since the administration of our beloved president Republicanism has been by officials in office too frequently ignored and abandoned to the detriment of the whole people, contrary to the welfare of the same people; "Whereas, the president of the United States has abandoned the principles and politics of Republicanism to follow the lead of one William Randolph Hearst, and has taken up the cry which leads to destruction and anarchy; "Resolved, That we do give our support to Adlai E. Stevenson for governor of the state of Illinois and William Jennings Bryan for president of the United States." The club was organized in 1896. C. B. Dwick is president and A. C. Meyer is secretary.
