ROWAN DEMOCRATS VICTORIOUS.

A Hard Fight but Ticket Seems to be Elected by Various Majorities.

The Rowan Democrats had a close call for their political existence yesterday. This was due to internal dissensions, the disaffected prohibitionists, the disloyalty to the party's nominees and the lack of organization, while on the other hand the Republicans seemed to be well organized, worked hard, and with the aid of the disgruntled, anti-prohibition Democrats and plenty of whiskey, were enabled to do more than has been their custom and, it might be said more than they may expect to do again for some time. However, the Democracy came out victorious with the full county and State tickets to her credit.

After strenuous efforts to get a full report of the vote for the various county offices, we are forced to go to press without it, as the official returns will not be brought in and turned over to the clerk of court until to-morrow, too late for this issue. As the fight was made against Mr. McKenzie, Democratic candidate for sheriff, we have secured the amount of his majority, which is 184. This is a considerable reduction of the vote of two years ago, but does not seem to apply to the sheriff at all, and just whether Mr. McKenzie's vote is the smallest vote or not, is not now apparent.

The congressional candidate, Mr. Hackett, has probably carried the county by only 200, and his defeat seems certain. The official count, may show a little better vote for all of the above.

The State ticket, headed by Mr. Kitchin, held its own and polled a very comfortable majority. It was elected by majorities ranging from 40,000 to 50,000.

Assaulted Little Child.

Carlton Jackson, a negro claiming to be from Norfolk, Va., is in jail charged with a most revolting and brutal crime. The victim in this case was a 7-year-old daughter of a negro woman named Mary Davis. The mother gave a detailed account of the affair to officers, and an examination was made later by Dr. Foust, county superintendent of health, and the result of his examination bore out the story related by the mother. The evidence against the man seems to be very strong. He will be tried at the ensuing term of the Superior Court.

October 31st is known as "Reformation Day," among our Lutheran friends on account of the historic association of that date with the culminating action of the immortal Luther November 1st happening to fall upon the Sunday nearest the date, it was selected. At 11 a. m. a service was held at St. Mark's church China Grove, and in the evening one at St. John's church in this city. Rev. J. E. Whitaker, of Lancaster, Pa., was the principal speaker at both services. There were large and interested congregations at both churches.
