

Correspondence.

ROCKWELL.

November 16.—The health of this place is very good.

Arthur Beaver's baby was right sick Friday evening, but is better at this writing.

Miss Gertrude Trexler was in Rockwell this morning on business.

The public school will start tomorrow, November 17th. John C. Peeler and Miss Daisy Bost are teachers. We wish them success.

A large crowd was present at the Lutheran singing Sunday night.

Rev. C. B. Heller preached an excellent sermon in the Reformed church Sunday morning.

Miss Eltha Frick and sister went to Salisbury last Friday on business.

Mr. Summey and Miss Ida Bernhardt were welcome visitors at Will Misenheimer's Sunday afternoon.

John Bost visited in Rockwell Sunday evening.

The annual missionary sale will be held here on Saturday before the fifth Sunday in this month. Services will begin at 11 o'clock a. m. Please do not forget it.

The Lutherans will hold their children's service on Thanksgiving day in the Lutheran church. Services will begin at two o'clock p. m. Everybody is invited to come.

AUNT JANE.

GOLD HILL.

November 16.—Rev. J. W. Willson preached his last sermon here last night for this conference year.

Rev. John Summey has accepted a call to supply a church in Virginia and the Baptist church here is without a pastor. Rev. Summey will move his family to Virginia in the near future, so we are informed.

Last Saturday was a very wet, rainy day indeed. It will be several days before the farmers can resume plowing and sowing wheat. This work is behind, some having not sowed any wheat yet, owing to the wet weather.

Mrs. Daisy Carter has gone to Jackson, Ga., where she will join her husband, who is employed on the dam and power plant being erected at that place.

Mrs. Addie Hart is visiting at Gold Hill.

J. M. Proctor has gone to Cleveland, Ga., where he is looking after some mining matters.

Fred Pirie is laid off from his work at Spencer on account of an injury he sustained while working in the shops.

The public school opened here Monday, November 2nd, with a nice attendance, about 65 pupils.

The election passed off quietly here, notwithstanding the attitude assumed by the registrar, who refused to register some legal Republican voters under the grandfather clause. This box gave the largest Republican majority ever known here. Bryan received 80, Taft 85, and the Socialist ticket one vote, this being cast by J. F. McCarnes, Sr.

Some of our people made a flying trip to Salisbury recently. Some of them went to see the town while others went to sell cotton and popcorn.

Roby Hill is going to move down on Panther Creek soon. We hate to lose him, but he wants to catch a fish.

The telephone fever is still spreading, and if a switchboard would be put up in this neighborhood, the 'phones would be put in till we would have a regular spider-web affair.

During a thunderstorm last week the lightning struck the 'phone wires over which Harvey Wyatt and Eli Aray were communicating, shocking them severely. Mr. Aray received the hardest shock.

It seems as if Jack, of Graham X Roads, had a regular duke's mixture in the last week's issue of THE WATCHMAN. We are always glad to read such funny pieces as Jack writes.

Geo. Canup has the liveliest mule in this vicinity, and the mule is old enough to vote, but Mr. Canup wouldn't let him vote, as the mule is one of the high tariff types.

Hog killing is in operation along now on cold mornings.

Our North Liberty street seems to be noted for its many new organs. Guess we have plenty of music.

Wm. G. Eagle's wearing a broad smile—it's a boy.

One of our young men, of West Blacksmith street, seems to make frequent visits over the creek of late. Just so he don't fall in the water it will be all O. K.

Zebulon Trexler will assist in teaching school, after the holidays are over, at Builittle, this winter.

John Canup lost a fine mare recently.

Paul T. Goodman is teaching school at Jackson college this winter.

Ivy Morgan is our early bird. He sowed his wheat before the season began and now hasn't much to do.

J. A. Ribelin is at home sowing wheat, but will soon take his boys and go to the sawmill again.

Thomas Morgan will teach school at Poole school house this winter.

Prof. W. H. Fowler closed a writing school at the college recently and is now teaching at Granite Quarry. Prof. Fowler is

Chas. Parker has just returned from Walter Cranfield's. He says only one more trip till Christmas. Listen for the wedding bells.

Sure Patron, Hawk wants a bird for Christmas, but wants a wingless bird, and thinks he shall be able to get one by that time, as it is a long ways off yet. Patron is at a loss if he thinks Hawk is paying attention to birds in upper Rowan. He had better watch the roads to Kannapolis, if he wants to know anything.

The mountain wagons roll by, every day, loaded with fruits, etc.

John Kurpees had a cotton-picking last Friday night. Hawk was present, but the old goose had died a few days before.

These cold days ought to cause some big hog to have a sore throat soon in the morning.

Otho Williams, from near Cleveland, is visiting in Davie county.

A Miss Moose will teach at Teague, this winter, where Hawk had his first experience.

Patron, you will have to come oftener or we won't know you.

Hawk had the pleasure of seeing Bro. Bartlette a few days ago. He is too small to stand this cold weather. We will not expect to hear from him till summer.

Success to the editor and correspondents. BLACK HAWK.

LIBERTY X ROADS.

Route No. 1, Gold Hill, November 16.—Our little town is getting lively. We already have a new school house. We are to have a new corn mill in the near future and we are expecting some weddings by Christmas and a lot of other things, if prosperity begins in the next administration.

Col. C. L. Basinger has moved on the Jennie Poole farm.

Roby Hill killed a mad dog recently. The dog tried to bite Mr. Hill several times, but after a hard race he got his gun and shot it.

Rev. James Willson held his last service at Liberty last Sunday for this conference.

School began at Liberty last Monday with Miss Maggie Bame as teacher.

Some of our people made a flying trip to Salisbury recently. Some of them went to see the town while others went to sell cotton and popcorn.

Roby Hill is going to move down on Panther Creek soon. We hate to lose him, but he wants to catch a fish.

The telephone fever is still spreading, and if a switchboard would be put up in this neighborhood, the 'phones would be put in till we would have a regular spider-web affair.

During a thunderstorm last week the lightning struck the 'phone wires over which Harvey Wyatt and Eli Aray were communicating, shocking them severely. Mr. Aray received the hardest shock.

It seems as if Jack, of Graham X Roads, had a regular duke's mixture in the last week's issue of THE WATCHMAN. We are always glad to read such funny pieces as Jack writes.

Geo. Canup has the liveliest mule in this vicinity, and the mule is old enough to vote, but Mr. Canup wouldn't let him vote, as the mule is one of the high tariff types.

Hog killing is in operation along now on cold mornings.

Our North Liberty street seems to be noted for its many new organs. Guess we have plenty of music.

Wm. G. Eagle's wearing a broad smile—it's a boy.

One of our young men, of West Blacksmith street, seems to make frequent visits over the creek of late. Just so he don't fall in the water it will be all O. K.

Zebulon Trexler will assist in teaching school, after the holidays are over, at Builittle, this winter.

John Canup lost a fine mare recently.

Paul T. Goodman is teaching school at Jackson college this winter.

Ivy Morgan is our early bird. He sowed his wheat before the season began and now hasn't much to do.

J. A. Ribelin is at home sowing wheat, but will soon take his boys and go to the sawmill again.

Thomas Morgan will teach school at Poole school house this winter.

Prof. W. H. Fowler closed a writing school at the college recently and is now teaching at Granite Quarry. Prof. Fowler is

Chas. Parker has just returned from Walter Cranfield's. He says only one more trip till Christmas. Listen for the wedding bells.

Sure Patron, Hawk wants a bird for Christmas, but wants a wingless bird, and thinks he shall be able to get one by that time, as it is a long ways off yet. Patron is at a loss if he thinks Hawk is paying attention to birds in upper Rowan. He had better watch the roads to Kannapolis, if he wants to know anything.

The mountain wagons roll by, every day, loaded with fruits, etc.

John Kurpees had a cotton-picking last Friday night. Hawk was present, but the old goose had died a few days before.

These cold days ought to cause some big hog to have a sore throat soon in the morning.

Otho Williams, from near Cleveland, is visiting in Davie county.

A Miss Moose will teach at Teague, this winter, where Hawk had his first experience.

Patron, you will have to come oftener or we won't know you.

Hawk had the pleasure of seeing Bro. Bartlette a few days ago. He is too small to stand this cold weather. We will not expect to hear from him till summer.

Success to the editor and correspondents. BLACK HAWK.

LIBERTY X ROADS.

Route No. 1, Gold Hill, November 16.—Our little town is getting lively. We already have a new school house. We are to have a new corn mill in the near future and we are expecting some weddings by Christmas and a lot of other things, if prosperity begins in the next administration.

Col. C. L. Basinger has moved on the Jennie Poole farm.

Roby Hill killed a mad dog recently. The dog tried to bite Mr. Hill several times, but after a hard race he got his gun and shot it.

Rev. James Willson held his last service at Liberty last Sunday for this conference.

School began at Liberty last Monday with Miss Maggie Bame as teacher.

Some of our people made a flying trip to Salisbury recently. Some of them went to see the town while others went to sell cotton and popcorn.

Roby Hill is going to move down on Panther Creek soon. We hate to lose him, but he wants to catch a fish.

The telephone fever is still spreading, and if a switchboard would be put up in this neighborhood, the 'phones would be put in till we would have a regular spider-web affair.

During a thunderstorm last week the lightning struck the 'phone wires over which Harvey Wyatt and Eli Aray were communicating, shocking them severely. Mr. Aray received the hardest shock.

It seems as if Jack, of Graham X Roads, had a regular duke's mixture in the last week's issue of THE WATCHMAN. We are always glad to read such funny pieces as Jack writes.

Geo. Canup has the liveliest mule in this vicinity, and the mule is old enough to vote, but Mr. Canup wouldn't let him vote, as the mule is one of the high tariff types.

Hog killing is in operation along now on cold mornings.

Our North Liberty street seems to be noted for its many new organs. Guess we have plenty of music.

Wm. G. Eagle's wearing a broad smile—it's a boy.

One of our young men, of West Blacksmith street, seems to make frequent visits over the creek of late. Just so he don't fall in the water it will be all O. K.

Zebulon Trexler will assist in teaching school, after the holidays are over, at Builittle, this winter.

John Canup lost a fine mare recently.

Paul T. Goodman is teaching school at Jackson college this winter.

Ivy Morgan is our early bird. He sowed his wheat before the season began and now hasn't much to do.

J. A. Ribelin is at home sowing wheat, but will soon take his boys and go to the sawmill again.

Thomas Morgan will teach school at Poole school house this winter.

Prof. W. H. Fowler closed a writing school at the college recently and is now teaching at Granite Quarry. Prof. Fowler is

Chas. Parker has just returned from Walter Cranfield's. He says only one more trip till Christmas. Listen for the wedding bells.

Sure Patron, Hawk wants a bird for Christmas, but wants a wingless bird, and thinks he shall be able to get one by that time, as it is a long ways off yet. Patron is at a loss if he thinks Hawk is paying attention to birds in upper Rowan. He had better watch the roads to Kannapolis, if he wants to know anything.

The mountain wagons roll by, every day, loaded with fruits, etc.

John Kurpees had a cotton-picking last Friday night. Hawk was present, but the old goose had died a few days before.

These cold days ought to cause some big hog to have a sore throat soon in the morning.

Otho Williams, from near Cleveland, is visiting in Davie county.

A Miss Moose will teach at Teague, this winter, where Hawk had his first experience.

Patron, you will have to come oftener or we won't know you.

Hawk had the pleasure of seeing Bro. Bartlette a few days ago. He is too small to stand this cold weather. We will not expect to hear from him till summer.

Success to the editor and correspondents. BLACK HAWK.

LIBERTY X ROADS.

Route No. 1, Gold Hill, November 16.—Our little town is getting lively. We already have a new school house. We are to have a new corn mill in the near future and we are expecting some weddings by Christmas and a lot of other things, if prosperity begins in the next administration.

Col. C. L. Basinger has moved on the Jennie Poole farm.

Roby Hill killed a mad dog recently. The dog tried to bite Mr. Hill several times, but after a hard race he got his gun and shot it.

Rev. James Willson held his last service at Liberty last Sunday for this conference.

School began at Liberty last Monday with Miss Maggie Bame as teacher.

Some of our people made a flying trip to Salisbury recently. Some of them went to see the town while others went to sell cotton and popcorn.

Roby Hill is going to move down on Panther Creek soon. We hate to lose him, but he wants to catch a fish.

The telephone fever is still spreading, and if a switchboard would be put up in this neighborhood, the 'phones would be put in till we would have a regular spider-web affair.

During a thunderstorm last week the lightning struck the 'phone wires over which Harvey Wyatt and Eli Aray were communicating, shocking them severely. Mr. Aray received the hardest shock.

It seems as if Jack, of Graham X Roads, had a regular duke's mixture in the last week's issue of THE WATCHMAN. We are always glad to read such funny pieces as Jack writes.

Geo. Canup has the liveliest mule in this vicinity, and the mule is old enough to vote, but Mr. Canup wouldn't let him vote, as the mule is one of the high tariff types.

Hog killing is in operation along now on cold mornings.

Our North Liberty street seems to be noted for its many new organs. Guess we have plenty of music.

Wm. G. Eagle's wearing a broad smile—it's a boy.

One of our young men, of West Blacksmith street, seems to make frequent visits over the creek of late. Just so he don't fall in the water it will be all O. K.

Zebulon Trexler will assist in teaching school, after the holidays are over, at Builittle, this winter.

John Canup lost a fine mare recently.

Paul T. Goodman is teaching school at Jackson college this winter.

Ivy Morgan is our early bird. He sowed his wheat before the season began and now hasn't much to do.

J. A. Ribelin is at home sowing wheat, but will soon take his boys and go to the sawmill again.

Thomas Morgan will teach school at Poole school house this winter.

Prof. W. H. Fowler closed a writing school at the college recently and is now teaching at Granite Quarry. Prof. Fowler is

Chas. Parker has just returned from Walter Cranfield's. He says only one more trip till Christmas. Listen for the wedding bells.

Sure Patron, Hawk wants a bird for Christmas, but wants a wingless bird, and thinks he shall be able to get one by that time, as it is a long ways off yet. Patron is at a loss if he thinks Hawk is paying attention to birds in upper Rowan. He had better watch the roads to Kannapolis, if he wants to know anything.

The mountain wagons roll by, every day, loaded with fruits, etc.

John Kurpees had a cotton-picking last Friday night. Hawk was present, but the old goose had died a few days before.

These cold days ought to cause some big hog to have a sore throat soon in the morning.

Otho Williams, from near Cleveland, is visiting in Davie county.

A Miss Moose will teach at Teague, this winter, where Hawk had his first experience.

Patron, you will have to come oftener or we won't know you.

Hawk had the pleasure of seeing Bro. Bartlette a few days ago. He is too small to stand this cold weather. We will not expect to hear from him till summer.

Success to the editor and correspondents. BLACK HAWK.

LIBERTY X ROADS.

Route No. 1, Gold Hill, November 16.—Our little town is getting lively. We already have a new school house. We are to have a new corn mill in the near future and we are expecting some weddings by Christmas and a lot of other things, if prosperity begins in the next administration.

Col. C. L. Basinger has moved on the Jennie Poole farm.

Roby Hill killed a mad dog recently. The dog tried to bite Mr. Hill several times, but after a hard race he got his gun and shot it.

Rev. James Willson held his last service at Liberty last Sunday for this conference.

School began at Liberty last Monday with Miss Maggie Bame as teacher.

Some of our people made a flying trip to Salisbury recently. Some of them went to see the town while others went to sell cotton and popcorn.

Roby Hill is going to move down on Panther Creek soon. We hate to lose him, but he wants to catch a fish.

The telephone fever is still spreading, and if a switchboard would be put up in this neighborhood, the 'phones would be put in till we would have a regular spider-web affair.

During a thunderstorm last week the lightning struck the 'phone wires over which Harvey Wyatt and Eli Aray were communicating, shocking them severely. Mr. Aray received the hardest shock.

It seems as if Jack, of Graham X Roads, had a regular duke's mixture in the last week's issue of THE WATCHMAN. We are always glad to read such funny pieces as Jack writes.

Geo. Canup has the liveliest mule in this vicinity, and the mule is old enough to vote, but Mr. Canup wouldn't let him vote, as the mule is one of the high tariff types.

Hog killing is in operation along now on cold mornings.

Our North Liberty street seems to be noted for its many new organs. Guess we have plenty of music.

Wm. G. Eagle's wearing a broad smile—it's a boy.

One of our young men, of West Blacksmith street, seems to make frequent visits over the creek of late. Just so he don't fall in the water it will be all O. K.

Zebulon Trexler will assist in teaching school, after the holidays are over, at Builittle, this winter.

John Canup lost a fine mare recently.

Paul T. Goodman is teaching school at Jackson college this winter.

Ivy Morgan is our early bird. He sowed his wheat before the season began and now hasn't much to do.

J. A. Ribelin is at home sowing wheat, but will soon take his boys and go to the sawmill again.

Thomas Morgan will teach school at Poole school house this winter.

Prof. W. H. Fowler closed a writing school at the college recently and is now teaching at Granite Quarry. Prof. Fowler is

Chas. Parker has just returned from Walter Cranfield's. He says only one more trip till Christmas. Listen for the wedding bells.

Sure Patron, Hawk wants a bird for Christmas, but wants a wingless bird, and thinks he shall be able to get one by that time, as it is a long ways off yet. Patron is at a loss if he thinks Hawk is paying attention to birds in upper Rowan. He had better watch the roads to Kannapolis, if he wants to know anything.

The mountain wagons roll by, every day, loaded with fruits, etc.

John Kurpees had a cotton-picking last Friday night. Hawk was present, but the old goose had died a few days before.

These cold days ought to cause some big hog to have a sore throat soon in the morning.

Otho Williams, from near Cleveland, is visiting in Davie county.

A Miss Moose will teach at Teague, this winter, where Hawk had his first experience.

Patron, you will have to come oftener or we won't know you.

Hawk had the pleasure of seeing Bro. Bartlette a few days ago. He is too small to stand this cold weather. We will not expect to hear from him till summer.

Success to the editor and correspondents. BLACK HAWK.

LIBERTY X ROADS.

Route No. 1, Gold Hill, November 16.—Our little town is getting lively. We already have a new school house. We are to have a new corn mill in the near future and we are expecting some weddings by Christmas and a lot of other things, if prosperity begins in the next administration.

Col. C. L. Basinger has moved on the Jennie Poole farm.

Roby Hill killed a mad dog recently. The dog tried to bite Mr. Hill several times, but after a hard race he got his gun and shot it.

Rev. James Willson held his last service at Liberty last Sunday for this conference.

School began at Liberty last Monday with Miss Maggie Bame as teacher.

Some of our people made a flying trip to Salisbury recently. Some of them went to see the town while others went to sell cotton and popcorn.

Roby Hill is going to move down on Panther Creek soon. We hate to lose him, but he wants to catch a fish.

The telephone fever is still spreading, and if a switchboard would be put up in this neighborhood, the 'phones would be put in till we would have a regular spider-web affair.

During a thunderstorm last week the lightning struck the 'phone wires over which Harvey Wyatt and Eli Ar