FAITH.

November 26.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Adolphus Gant's was the scene of a quiet wedding, when their daughter, Miss Ada Gant, was married to J. R. Kuykendall, of Asheville, N. C., by Rev. W. P. Southern, of Salisbury. The ceremony took place in the parlor in the presence of a number of their friends and relatives. A dinner followed the ceremony. The attendants were Miss Nellie Gant and Charles Hampton. The pictureman took a picture of all present. Mr. and Mrs. Kuykendall left for Asheville to spend several days among the groom's people.

A crowd of young people passed through Faith today taking a strawride from Salisbury. Among the number were the Mertz boys, Lyon Sloop, Mr. Kestler, Mr. Terryfield, Cora Linton, Henry Trexler and others. Sight-seeing out on the granite belt.

Rev. O. B. Heller preached the Thanksgiving sermon at the Lutheran church here to-day, assisted by Rev. C. B. Fisher. A collection was taken for the Nazareth Orphans' Home at Crescent.

Harvey Basinger and Miss Pearl Rogers were married at the Lutheran parsonage tonight, November 26th, by Rev. C. P. Fisher. They drove there, were married and immediately departed. It was a surprise. They slipped up on us here at Faith. We went to see the ceremony, but were a few minutes too late. We wish them a long and happy life and hope they will come to Faith to live.

The large overhead crane, for handling large granite blocks, has arrived and been hauled to the quarry shed of the Albert Lee Pink Granite Co. here.

Peeler, Bame & Co. have just been awarded the contract to cut a large fine granite vault to go to High Point, N. C., and have a crowd of cutters on it.

J. T. Wyatt shipped sixty-one granite posts to Thomasville, N. C., yesterday, to inclose a church property out in the country near Wallburg, N. C. Wire will be placed around the post.

T. W. Atkins has returned from Mount Airy where he went to see his family.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. and D. of L. had a banquet Thursday night that was a great success.

ROCKWELL.

November 30.—The Rockwell Furniture Co. has started to running regular again.

The public school of this place is progressing very nicely.

Miss Ethel Peeler was at home over Thanksgiving on a visit. She has been in school at Newton.

We are having some fine weather along now.

It has been decided to have a Christmas tree at the Reformed church again this year.

The Thanksgiving exercises in the Lutheran church last Thursday proved a success. The address was delivered by Rev. C. P. Fisher, of Faith.

There will be Baptist preaching here the second Sunday night.

The annual missionary sale was held here last Saturday. The sale netted something like thirty-five or forty dollars.

Homer Misenheimer is going to work in Salisbury this week.

A sociable was held at C. E. Hall's by the young people last Saturday night. All present enjoyed themselves very much.

Prof. Lassiter, of Salisbury, is here instructing the band. He seems to be a very able teacher.

GOLD KNOB.

December 1.—After a time of rest and recreation we again are pleased to report the news of the village.

Everybody is through sowing and are now waiting on cold weather, preparatory to "hog killing."

Wheat and oats are looking fine and promise to be a good crop.

H. T. Morgan moved into his new residence here to-day. We extend his family a hearty welcome.

Mrs. Eva Trexler is spending the week with her son, Jno. C. Trexler, on Chestnut Hill.

Clarence Brown is suffering with a sore hand this week.

Rev. C. P. Fisher, of Faith, preached an excellent Thanksgiving sermon to the Juniors of Rockwell in St. James' E. L. church on Sunday, November 29.

There will be a Christmas tree exercise at St. Peter's on Friday, December 25th, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Uncle Geo. Ingram, an industrious colored farmer of this section, has moved on his farm a few miles above here, which he has bought and built a house on.

Uncle George is the type of colored people we need. For the past 23 years he has been a tenant on the lands of Moses Peeler, and has always tried to please his landlord as best he could and, after 23 long years, he left the farm against the wishes of Mr. Peeler, but with a clean record and not a cent in debt to the landlord. A truly good record. How many more can say that much?

Rockwell Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., No. 170, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Jr. P. C., B. R. A. Beaver; C., Julius Frick; V. C., T. J. A. Barger; R. S., C. A. Miller; A. R. S., H. W. Bernhardt; F. S., J. M. Holshouser; Cond. Geo. E. Brown; Ward., J. E. Misenheimer; Chap., H. W. Bost; I. S., R. G. Bost; O. S., Jacob Miller; Treas., Geo. E. Brown; trustee, 18 months, A. L. Klutz.

CHESTNUT HILL.

November 30.—Rabbit hunting is the order of the day every Saturday evening along now for the boys of Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. J. N. Wise has been sick for the past week, but is improving at this writing, we are glad to note.

Mrs. Frances Cornelison, who got her arm broken some time ago, is improving, we are glad to say.

Miss Jessie Yants is very sick with fever.

Alexander Shaver and wife visited relatives and friends on Chestnut Hill a few days last week.

Job Morgan, from Morgan township, was on Chestnut Hill the other day on business, you know.

James Whitley and wife from Pina Woods, visited at N. S. Eagle's Saturday and Sunday last.

W. A. Branam, of near here, visited his son in Greenville, S. C., last week.

The Eagle reunion at Spencer was enjoyed by a large crowd of Eagles Thanksgiving Day.

Elmer Fulton, of Greensboro, N. C., visited on Chestnut Hill Sunday.

Walter Cornelison and wife, of Spencer, visited his parents on Chestnut Hill Sunday.

The preacher for South Main Street M. E. church for the present year is J. B. Cranes.

The members of the Lutheran church are practicing for a Christmas tree.

Eli Eagle, of Liberty X Road, visited his brother on Chestnut Hill last week.

George Sloop, who has been working at Concord, N. C., for some time, visited home folks Sunday.

T. M. Parrish, who got his arm sprained some time ago, is still unable to make use of it.

The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Gaskill Cornelison was very seriously ill a few days ago. Its grandmother gave it a bottle to play with that contained morphine and the little babe got two tablets out of the bottle and swallowed them, and would have died as a result if the doctor had not washed the poison out. It is getting along fine now.

GOLD KNOB.

December 1.—Junius failed to get his Thanksgiving turkey.

Several of the boys from Mt. Pleasant spent Thanksgiving at home.

Mrs. Eva Trexler is spending a few days with her son, J. C. Trexler, on Chestnut Hill.

John Miller has just completed a dam across the creek, near his house, for the purpose of fanning his machinery by water instead of steam.

We are glad to see that things have opened up at Court House Hill.

Miss Roxie Trexler and Miss May Sloop spent Saturday night at home.

A few of the boys went out hunting the other day and as Willie Holshouser was shooting his gun, the barrel bursted and bruised his arm considerably. Willie has been suffering considerably from the accident.

I guess Hawk enjoyed his turkey dinner on Thanksgiving, as Junius saw him in Salisbury last Saturday and he seemed to be very well pleased.

Marcus Lyerly has started to school at Crescent.

Harvey Park, who is working at Greensboro, is spending a few days at home.

G. H. Lyerly visited at N. C. Park's last Saturday evening.

S. T. Trexler, of Spencer, visited some folks last Sunday.

I wonder what has become of Blue Eyes and Patsy? I guess they are busy making joints.

JUNIUS.

Medicine That is Medicine.

"I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and that remedy is Electric Bitters; a medicine that is medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions," says W. C. Kiestler, of Halliday, Ark. "Electric Bitters purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and impart vigor and energy to the weak. Your money will be refunded if it fails to help you. 50c at all drug stores."

Kitchin's Inauguration.

It was agreed that the inauguration of Hon. W. W. Kitchin as Governor of North Carolina will be on January 12. Mr. Glenn and Mr. Kitchin have just reached this agreement. Mr. Kitchin wanted the inauguration January 18 or 41, but Governor Glenn has important business engagements in Washington on these dates and Mr. Kitchin yielded to the wishes of Governor Glenn for inauguration to be January 12. The legislature meets January 6 and will on the 8th, in compliance with the requirements of the constitution canvass the vote and declare Mr. Kitchin's election as preliminaries to the inauguration four days later.

Neglect of Family Religion.

The family is the unit of the church and the commonwealth. As is the majority of the families in them, so is the church and the state. If the families are without piety, the church has a "form of godliness, while denying the power thereof." If the families are devoid of godliness, the nation is practically atheistic and godless. An impious community or nationality is on the high-road to destruction, and is digging its own grave.

If you want examples look at Sodom when overwhelmed with fire and brimstone, Israel at the time of the Babylonish captivity, and at revolutionary France, when smitten of God for manifold sins.—Rev. H. G. Hill.
