Entered an second-class matter Jan. 19th, 1906, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SALISBURY, N. C., DEC. 28, 1908.

If president Roosevelt just had the power there is no saying what he would do to the new New York World. Think of the President of this great country having such language as this hurled at him:

"He has shown himself the most reckless, unscrupulous demagogue whom the American people even trusted with great power and authority."

And the worst of it is that the President has no one to blame for it but himself.

In the Hains murder trial in New York the other day, the attorneys for the defense were asking questions in order to get some matter before the jury. The questions were evidently not proper under the rules governing the examination of witnesses, but the lawyers for the state did not say a word. The Judge stood as long as he could and then asked the prosecution: "What's the matter; are you asleep? Are you not going to enter an objection?"

It is stated, in connection with that horrible crime perpetrated near Whitney a few days ago, that some one in Albemarle telephoned to Salisbury for a delegation to come down and lead a mob to lynch the negro who committed the crime. It is not known certainly whether this be true or not, but if it is, it cannot be regarded as complimentary to Salisbury, even if this city has had a sort of unsavory reputation along the lynching line.

In this week's WATCHMAN we publish a copy of the bill creating an inferior court for the county of Rowan. This article, we are told, is incorrect in some particulars, but will serve to give a general idea of the bill and its purposes. Since noting the operation of similar courts in adjoining counties, we have concluded such a court would be of considerable benefit to this county. We are glad therefore that it is to be a county court and not merely a city court, we are also glad that it is not to be given the abominable name of a "Recorder's Court." The bill as published in this issue seems to abolish the offices of justice of the peace throughout the county, this however, is said not to be the case. The facts will appear when an accurate copy of the bill can be obtained, consequently the discussion of unknown provisions is premature.

The selections for the positions of judge and solicitor, as made by the Bar Association, are splendid and no doubt satisfactory to a large number of our people, but the provision in the bill that said offices shall be filled by lawyers only, is a very bad feature, is class legislation, is undemocratic, and, we believe, unconstitutional.

VERY ANNOYING.

This Hardly Expresses What Salisbury People Say of It.

Any itchingness of the skin is annoying.

Little danger in itching skin disease.

But they make you miserable.

Doan's Ointment is a never-failing cure.

For Piles, Eczema, "all itching troubles.

Salisbury citizens endorse it.

W. A. Monroe, 424 W. Council St., Salisbury, N. C., says: "Several years ago I was bothered by a skin eruption which failed to yield to the various remedies I used. After suffering for some time, Doan's Ointment was brought to my attention I and procured a box from the Salisbury Drug Company. The first application brought relief and when I had finished the contents of one box my trouble had entirely disappeared. I have had no return of it since and know that the cure effected by Doan's Ointment was a permanent one. I advise anyone afflicted in a similar manner to give this preparation a trial."
