GOLD HILL.

We have had a good soaking rain which seems to be general all over the county. The creeks were all up Saturday and very muddy. Wheat and oats will now run up and everything will be greatly benefited.

Rev. Wilson preached at the Methodist church yesterday at 11 a. m., after which service the Lord's supper was administered.

Mrs. Crissie McCarnes died at her home here last Friday at 2 a. m., and was interred in the Gold Hill cemetery on Saturday at 2 p. m. Rev. Wilson preached the funeral and conducted the burial service. She was about 70 years of age and leaves a husband, one son and two daughters to mourn her loss. She was stricken with paralysis some years ago, but bore her misery with great fortitude and always seemed to be happy and ready to die. She received a second stroke about a week before her death and never spoke again, but passed peacefully away.

M. J. Misenheimer and family who moved to Jacksonville, Fla., some months ago, has decided to move back on his farm about three miles from here. He went to Florida to engage in the distillery business, but the health of his family not being good they will return to their old home.

Mr. Misenheimer, the time-keeper for the Southern Power Co. here lost a valuable horse on last Saturday. He drove him from Granite Quarry and he became sick and died in a short time.

Mrs. Dora Casper is quite sick. Dr. Pool is attending her.

Mrs. Addie Hart is staying with her sister here during her illness.

Al Hedrick has gone to Docketown, Tenn., where he is employed in a copper mine.

Work will be started at the Troutman mine near here this week, so it is reported.

Mrs. C. A. Heldman has presented her husband with a son, a young operator. MIKE.

LOWERSTONE.

May 8.—Miss Rose Ann Bost has been very sick for a few weeks. Her friends and relatives hope her speedy recovery.

Roy and Annie Bost visited at John Bost's Saturday night.

The Lowerstone boys crossed bats with Cross Road boys on the latter's ground. The score stood 3 to 4 in favor of Cross Roads boys.

George Troutman and wife and Mrs. A. Peeler visited J. A. M. Brown Sunday.

Lawson Trexler has put a new telephone in his home and connected with the Lowerstone exchange.

The Lowerstone boys will cross bats with the Rimertown base ball team before long. The time will be dated later. M.

FAITH.

May 8d.—The attendance at the Lutheran Synod here Sunday was one of the largest gatherings of people ever assembled at the Lutheran church here. Several parties were here in their automobiles. On Sunday the large grove was filled with buggies and carriages from all parts of the county.

CONCERNING THE UNVEILING.

Veterans from Adjoining Counties will be invited to Participate. Line of March.

In addition to the programme of the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument, which will take place here Monday, as published in The Watchman last week, arrangements are being made to have a procession by the old soldiers. To this and all the old veterans of Rowan and adjoining counties will be invited to participate. The camps at Organ Church, this county, Statesville, Lexington, Concord and Charlotte have been extended invitations and are expected to be present. The line of march has been arranged and at 10 o'clock Monday morning, the 10th, Capt. T. B. Beall, commanding, announces:

The veterans will be formed on Innes street near Klutz & Company's drug store, by the following Confederate officers: Captains John Beard, W. C. Coughenour, C. R. Barker, W. L. Klutz and E. B. Neave, R. W. Price, officer of day; Ben Cauble, orderly sergeant.

Visiting camps and veterans will join the parade and will be given posts of honor.

Grave Yards Need Attention.

The Civic League has done a good service to the community in the way of cleaning up and improving the appearance of the town in general, but it still has much yet to do. A yearly clean-up is very good, but likes much of being sufficient. If the clean-up could be made monthly it would probably meet the expectations and hopes of all interested, once in three months, however, could possibly be made to answer for the present. While we are at it we suggest that the old cemeteries be not neglected. They now present a most deplorable appearance, out of keeping with the general condition of the city and discredit to the relatives of the dead.

May Make out Good Case.

If "Peg Leg" Hughes, the negro brought here a short time ago for safe-keeping in the penitentiary to prevent his being lynched for the killing of Clerk of Court W. B. Causey, of Hampton, can prove the explanation he has just given Superintendent Griffith at the penitentiary as to why he shot Mr. Causey, there will not only be no lynching, but he will be acquitted, and a mild sensation will be uncovered in that section of the state.

Hughes says that Mr. Causey and his friend Jackson were out "larking" the night of the killing and came to his house and demanding women. He says that he told them that there were none in the house and they asked him about a mulatto, his stepdaughter. He says he told them that she had gone away, whereupon they denounced him as a liar and broke into his house and searched it thoroughly, jumping on him outside afterward and beating him. He says he was catching thunder when he pulled his revolver and began to shoot, wounding both men. Hughes says he did not want to kill Mr. Causey, but that he did seek the life of his friend.

The Hampton sheriff who was here recently told Captain Griffith that he knew nothing of the causes leading up to the shooting. The newspaper accounts that have been sent out from Hampton give the appearance of being carefully guarded. Hughes had just finished serving a term in the penitentiary for killing a negro. Captain Griffith says Hughes can hoe more cotton in a day than any two-legged negro he ever had.—Columbia, S. C., correspondence to Charlotte Observer.

Hanged Him on the Bridge.

Nadir Pasha, the second eunuch of the palace under the regime of Abdul Hamid, was hanged at dawn on the Galatia bridge. The body was allowed to swing until 8 o'clock in the morning and thousands of people stopped to look at the Nubian whose name was a terror under Abdul Hamid. The dead man's face showed an under-shot jaw and thick heavy lips. In life he had been fully 6 feet 6 inches tall.

Nadir was executed after a trial by court martial on the charge that he instigated the mutiny of the troops on April 13. Nadir Pasha came to the imperial palace as a slave and grew up in that hot-house of intrigue.—Constantinople dispatch.

Don't Care for the Court.

Mrs. Carrie McDonald, from whom a divorce was granted recently in the Superior court to her husband Don McDonald, who last spring shot and seriously wounded Henry Bruner, on account of intimacy with his wife, was arrested on a peace warrant for threatening to kill Mr. McDonald and her three children who have been awarded to their father and was committed to jail in default of bond.

Judge Adams issued a writ of habeas corpus commanding the production in court of the three children, whose whereabouts Mrs. McDonald refused to disclose. After an extended search by the officers it was reported to the court that they could not be found, when another writ was issued for Mrs. McDonald and her mother, Mrs. Victoria Burney, commanding the presence of the children but at the appointed hour they were not produced.—Fayetteville special to Charlotte Observer.

Does Not Stimulate

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. It is not a strong drink. No reaction after you stop using it. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic and alterative. We wish you would ask your doctor about this. He knows. Trust him. Do as he says. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

What are Ayer's Pills? Liver Pills. How long have they been sold? Nearly sixty years. Do doctors recommend them? Ask your own doctor and find out.

What is the matter with the South? According to government report of 1908 "The Secret is out at last—the Southerner, contrary to current opinion is not lazy, shiftless, indifferent or careless. 'He is sick' the South is afflicted with and harbors that most dreaded treacherous and destructive of all diseases Anemia, Pernicious Anemia. The average Southerner is a sufferer of this health destroying parasite which destroys the red blood cells producing an impoverished condition of the blood; characterized by extreme pallor, general debility, weakness, loss of vigor, lack of ambition, and general undermining of vitality.
