

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

SHORT LOCAL ITEMS

Frank R. Brown has been offered the position of one of the five directors of the North Carolina Retail Merchants Association...

Luther M. Tesh, field secretary of the Barcoas, spoke to an interested audience, last Thursday at the Spencer Y. M. C. A.

The partnership which has existed between Drs. H. L. Monk and M. L. Smoot, of Spencer, has been dissolved.

Cards have been received by friends, bearing the following announcement:

"Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wetmore invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter Mary Americas to Oscar Talmage Nesbit Wednesday evening, July the seventh, nineteen hundred and nine at half past seven o'clock at Unity Presbyterian Church Woodleaf, North Carolina.

The Southern Hotel, near the depot, has been purchased by W. A. Blackwell, who will manage the business.

During the month of June permits were issued for the erection of buildings aggregating $129,000 in value.

The reward of $25, which was offered by the authorities of West Virginia, for the arrest of the negro John Lucky, who killed his wife in West Virginia, has been sent to Sheriff McKenzie.

Several dealers here have come to the front with the tax of $300 on the near beer business.

Most of the members of the local fire department have gone to Asheville, to attend the State tournament of the firemen.

Sheriff McKenzie went to Charlotte Sunday afternoon and brought back John Freeman, who is charged with retailing at East Spencer.

Will Davis, just off the chain gang, was employed Saturday evening by M. A. Lemley, who lives about two miles from town on the old Mocksville road...

J. C. Kizziah, a popular young man of Spencer, died in that place Friday morning after an illness of several weeks.

The Tax Fixed.

At a recent session of the board of aldermen the tax on near beer dealers was fixed at $300. There was a strong sentiment for a $100 tax, four of the city fathers favoring this amount and four standing out for the larger sum.

Wanted.—You to know Mrs. Dr. Moore expects to be at Dr. Fox's office (if physically able) Thursday July 8th, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. One day only.
